THE WEEKLY STANDARD.

The Argentine War.

To-day is regarded by Portenios as an eventful turning-point in their local history. Nine years have elapsed, since the famous revolution of the "11 de Setiembre" drove Urquiza's power from this city, and changed the prestige of a Liberator into the odium of an oppressor.

During the past week, every day was expected to bring the news of a battle, but with the exception of some guerilla encounters and slow marches, the courier gave absolutely no food for newspapers.

Strange to say, Mitre has displayed more activity than the Captain General who has been already long enough on horse back to have reached the Andes.

If it be true that Urquiza is entrencing his position on the Arroyo Pabon, it looks like a determination to await Mitre, and give him battle on a vantage ground.

not fail to inspire into his soldiers in the pithy harangue, "let us seek out the enemy, if they do not seek us."

From past experience, we can safely conclude that the Federals rely on the impetuosity of their onset. If Mitre's troops, instead of taking panic, shew good fight one half-hour, the charm of Urquiza's tactics is evaporated, and superior discipline would seem to decide in Mitre's favor.

The city outworks are now formidable, and with one half of Mitre's army added to the garrison, no South American army could attempt to carry them by assault.

Some excitement has been caused by letters said to have been written by Urquiza and Pedernera, inciting the Cacique Calucurá to make incursions on this territory.

News from the interior provinces is scant: we have the President's account of his honeymoon at Cordoba, addressed to the sovereign Congress and dated August 26th.

Cordoba reckoning on Urquiza's superiority, "has gone to his encampment to besech his own re-instatement when the Captain-General shall have triumphed."

From Mendoza we learn that fresh shocks of earthquake had been perceptible; this may be a timely warning to the foolish inhabitants who are re-building their city on the treacherous site of their recent destruction.

In this city, the state of siege and great uncertainty of the turn events may take, has for a time suspended commerce, and excused us from giving market returns.

It is with sincere regret we notice some of the Irishmen lately arrived have taken the bounty, and this is a sufficient proof of how ill-timed was the said expedition which was sent out here without the knowledge or advice of any well-informed countrymen in these parts.

The French packet which leaves on Saturday may be the bearer of important intelligence, for which purpose in case of hostile movements or a solution of the tedious Argentine difficulty, we will favor our readers with a special sheet by Saturday next.

Tribuna versus neutrality. Since Cadmus first invented letters or Guttenberg printing, human reason has never received such an insult as is contained in the Colaboracion of the "Tribuna" and entitled the foreign population.

It was necessary for us to read the ridiculous production twice through, ere we really believed that any journalist could have the audacity to publish such a rhodomontade of hyperbolic trash.

Of late, insinuations have been rife in the local press that the foreign residents were partisans of Mitre; but now this has been found incorrect, and we must be forced to take part in a civil war that we view with abhorrence.

a civil war or cut the throats of Argentine citizens. It is true the "Tribuna" views Urquiza as worse than an Indian, but probably he returns the compliment, and for aught we know Señor Varela's scalp is quite safe, for the present.

The plain fact is, impunity has produced impudence; and, much as we admire the liberty of the press, we should earnestly wish to see some check given to a popular organ that cries down the most useful part of our society, (namely, foreign residents), and may to-morrow demand our heads as it does to-day our arms with equal show of justice.

If the object of the "Tribuna" has been to gain the prestige of foreign favor, they have gone very badly to work, and produced a number of enemies. Many of us are inclined to believe that the lines referred to are rather the nightmare incoherencies of some juvenile poetaster than the insinuations of a party whose north-piece is Varela's press.

Press Piracy. We all abhor plagiarists who, like the bird in the fable, plume themselves with other peoples ideas.

Of late, every paper in town has suffered an imputation of privateering, as if all were equally poor and yet alike disposed to plunder their neighbors.

The government has ordered a corps of 200 men to act as an inspection in the frontier departments of Colonia and Soriano. The house of Serna had stopped payment. It is said a strong allied naval force remains in port pending the arrangement of the English and French claims, which may cause some difficulties with the sister republic.

Paraguay. Dates are up to 31st ult. After the reception of Doc'or Lorenzo Torres as confidential agent of Buenos Agres, D. Baldomero Garcia directed a note to the Government demanding explanations concerning said interview.

Monthly exports 63,640$, imports 110,206$.

United States.

Latest news of the war.

The American frigate "Annie Bowen", arrived at Rio Janeiro Aug. 26th, has brought dates from New York up to July 19th.

Again we say, figures are facts, and whether it be the census of Jamaica or market returns, their publication makes them common property, and no paper can claim their paternity, unless they be a mere invention.

We therefore plead not guilty, and if a jury of sensible editors condemn us, we are ready to swallow our pen-wiper and digest the aspersion.

SOUTH AMERICA. New Granada.

Civil war is raging on the plains around Bogota. Between June 1st and 13th three battles had taken place; the federal troops were on every occasion worsted by the rebels.

Chile.

The election of Perez would seem to augur a most auspicious future for this republic. In several departments the voting was unanimous, which indicates the complete public confidence enjoyed by the new President.

Montevideo.

The mystery that involved the disappearance of D. Jenaro Pineiro has at length been cleared up. As was supposed the unhappy victim was foully assassinated along with his housekeeper in his countryhouse outside the city.

Paraguay.

Dates are up to 31st ult. After the reception of Doc'or Lorenzo Torres as confidential agent of Buenos Agres, D. Baldomero Garcia directed a note to the Government demanding explanations concerning said interview.

On the 17th the Chamber of Representatives passed the bill for a new tariff, which levies 3 per cent off coffee, and 10 per cent off tea; also 10 per cent additional on all articles taxed above 50 per cent it is supposed this will give a return of 35 millions import duties or double the present returns.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Wonderful rescue.—Captain Zulueta of the brig "Destino" picked up, off Cape St. Mary, a boat with eleven persons, including 2 women and 2 children, who had been wrecked in the "Wm. Hyno" from Patagonia.

Wanted.—From the politeness of Mr. Posadas, a letter-box or office for newspapers at last hour. Since he has closed the Capitanía and agencies, to periodicals, let him provide a substitute. He has forgotten the old proverb "don't throw out the dirty water, till you have the clean."

Assassination.—A youth aged 16 years was murdered, last week, in a pulperia on the beach. The assassin, as too often happens in this country has escaped. He is supposed to be a fellow nicknamed "Perdiz."

Bank interest.—By order, dated August 25th 61, the bank gives 10 p. cent on deposits in specie and discounts same at 12 p. cent per an.

Treasure trova.—The capricious wheel of our lottery has turned out 50,000$ for the shopman of Don Adolfo Wilkinson. The cronista of the "Tribuna" will be jealous; so are we!

Funeral honors.—The usual church-rites were celebrated for the late Doctor Portela in St. Ignatius church the 31st ult. We understand it is the intention of the Medical Board to publish a likeness of their distinguished co-frere, as a testimony of respect towards his reputed worth.

Fire.—Last Saturday in the old custom-house, some of the tow became ignited but was speedily extinguished.

State of siego.—Our readers will find in another column that the city is declared in asamblea. The 11 de Setiembre is our political equinox, so we must look out for squalls.

What's up.—Some speculators, said to be foreigners, were arrested last week for giving play to their lively imagination in circulating false reports about the Argentine campaign. In slang lingo, Spaniards call these stories bolitas, which is rendered in English rhetoric by stummers, fizzes or woppers.

Sisters of charity.—These excellent ladies only mindful of the necessities of suffering humanity have volunteered five sisters of the community to attend the hospital train which was embarked yesterday for San Nicolas, under the direction of Dr. Monteleoca.

Ceriolano Marquez.—The sentence of this criminal is yet undecided; one justice condemns him to death, the other to ten years penal servitude. The appeal is pending in the supreme court.

The hos'ilo floats.—The "Salto de Guayna" reports the National squadron anchored under the Rosario batteries. Ours was stationed at the mouth of the Pavon. Our former Admiral Don José Muratori has arrived from Entre-Rios.

Irish servants.—Any persons requiring farm-servants or household maids can apply at this office, at N. 48 calle Reconquista.

Tribunal of Commerce.—The election for the vacant dignity of consul in this corporation gave a return in favor of Don Agustín Drago.

Good oxomple.—We are happy to observe that a treaty of union between the republics of Chile, Peru and Ecuador has been agreed upon; and now under the deliberation of Chilean chambers.

New pavement.—The kerbstone of St. Francis over which the "Tribuna" has so often tripped, is now quite smooth for thin-skinned journalists or bare footed friars. Calle Mayo is also under improvement: but the Plaza 25 still demands reformation.

Architectural order.—The Cathedral façade will soon look very pretty. The angels have their hair nicely brushed; it is said, that the columns will not be finished by the Tuscan or Ionic orders, but by the order of the Municipality.

B. C. Provident Assn.—We are authorised to state that the shares of the association will continue to be allotted to eligible members upon payment of 1s premium until the 1st of October inclusive, after which subscribers will only be admitted upon the understanding that their deposits bear no interest until after the declaration of the first half yearly dividend.

Supplement.—If any important news arrive in town before the sailing of the "Saintonge, we will give a supplement, for the convenience of those who may send papers by the French packet.

Maritime items.—From Bahia we learn that eight shipwrecked passengers of the Portuguese brig "Paquete do Minho" from England to Buenos Ayres, reached the Island of San Jorge. The Oriental barque "Europa" from Genoa, entered Bahia terribly damaged, and was condemned. The Brazil S. was detained 12 days at Sta. Carolina by stress of weather and had her rudder broken.

Comestibles.

In comestibles there have been no sales effected of importance since our last, and importers are as loth to do business as the almaceneros, who are now unable to meet their engagements with their wanted punctuality.

The official account of Stocks in the Custom House deposits on the 31st July has recently been published, we extract the following.

Bottled Beer nearly 11,000 barrels
Sugars 6,000
Dutch Gin 45,000 boxes

A return to an order of the House of Commons has just been published, giving in a tabular form the whole of the registered steam vessels in the United Kingdom, on or before the 1st January, 1861.

steam vessels is 1,946; the total amount of registered tonnage is 40,880 tons; and the amount of gross tonnage, 686,417 tons.

A Paris letter in the Independent says:—"The famous M. Bloudin has proposed to the French authorities to cross the Seine upon a rope stretched between the Palace of the Tuileries and barrack of Quai d'Orsay. This will be a gratuitous sight to the Paris population."

A great cooking depot has recently been opened in Glasgow for the sale of food at a remarkably cheap rate, and has become an extensive affair. The shops and saloons number six. To give some idea of the demand for food at these places, it may be stated that last week the number of rations sold and consumed amounted to upwards of 20,000.

Count Flahault, the present Ambassador of the Emperor of the French to her Majesty, is probably one of the few survivors of those who were present at the battle of Friedland, fought in June, 1807. After Napoleon's great victory over the Russians and Prussians, the terms of the treaty of Tilsit were agreed to on a raft in the river Niemen, or Memel, where the Emperors of France and Russia were said to have agreed to divide the world between them as conquerors.

MICROMETERS have been constructed by the aid of Photography by Mr. Clarence Moffit, of New York. He has thus succeeded in reducing a scale of ten inches, divided into tenth parts of an inch, to the length of half an inch, divided into two hundredth parts of an inch.

THE QUEEN'S VISIT.—It is stated that her Majesty the Queen will arrive in Dublin on the 15th of August, and will remain for a week at the Viceregal lodge, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant remaining at the castle during the sojourn of her Majesty. It is also stated that the Queen will proceed from Dublin to Carton, where she will honour his Grace the Duke of Leinster by becoming his guest for a week. Her Majesty will visit the camp every day during her stay in the neighbourhood. She will proceed to Killarney and Cork, and it is stated that she will return by Dublin, and on her return to England she will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales.

It is expected that her Majesty will arrive in Killarney on Monday, the 26th of August. During two of the four days' sojourn of the Royal party at the Lakes they will be the guests of the Right Hon. Col. Herbert, M. P. at Muckross, and on the other two, days they will be partakers of Lord Viscount Castlerosse's hospitalities at Kenmare House.

A letter from Weimar announces the approaching marriage of Listz, the pianist, to the Princess Wittgenstein, a match which has been already spoken of.

The Tuileries—or rather the southern wing of the palace—is under repair. The cost is estimated at 40,000,000f. (1,600,000l.) There was an enthusiastic meeting in London, on Tuesday, to welcome Anderson, the fugitive slave; and a fund was announced on his behalf. Some experiments are being made at Portsmouth with a new description of diving apparatus which dispenses with the air pump.

It is stated that the State Fire Insurance Company narrowly escaped a heavy loss by the great fire in London, having declined to renew their risk last Lady-day.

The next Lord Chancellor is the son of a physician of Bradford, and afterwards at Bristol, at which former place Sir Rr. Bethell was born on June 30th, 1860. His precocity was so unusual, that when four and a half years old, he could write as well read.

WOMAN'S SCEPTRE.—There is something extremely pleasant and even touching—at least, of a very sweet, soft, and winning effect—in this peculiar of needlework, distinguishing women from men. Men are incapable of any such by-play aside from the main business of life; but women, be of what earthy rank they may, however gifted with intellect or genius, or endowed with much beauty—have always some little handiwork ready to fill the tiny gap of every vacant moment. A needle is familiar to the fingers of them all.

A queen, no doubt, plies it on occasions; the woman poet can use it as adroitly as her pen; the woman's eye, that has discovered a new star, turns from its glory to send the polished little instrument gleaming along the hem of her kerchief, or to darn a casual fray in her dress. And they have greatly the advantage of men in this respect. The slender thread of silk or cotton keeps them united with the small, familiar, gentle interests of life, the continually operating influences of which, do so much for the health of the character, and carry off what would otherwise be a dangerous accumulation of morbid sensibility. A vast deal of human sympathy runs along this electric line, stretching from the throne to the wicker chair of the seamstress, and keeping high and low in a species of communion with their kindred beings.

THE SULTAN MAHMOUD.—There is a story about the death of Abdul Medjid's father, the formidable Mahmoud, which will bear telling—the more so as we heard it from the lips of a young Turk just arrived in England. When Mahmoud lay on his divan of death, he remembered that a great review of the garrison of Constantinople was to take place under his palace windows in three days' time. He desired that, at whatever moment he might expire, his death should be kept secret from the troops until the review was over. Sultan Mahmoud died on the same night; but three days afterwards his dead body, covered with his well-known cloak, and capped with his well-known fez, bearing a diamond glass grotte, was propped up, on an opera-glass in one of his cold hands, at an open window, beneath which the troops defiled, shouting "Long live the Sultan!"

THE WRITING OF THE DEAD.—A thought in warm sunny life, and then suddenly rising up to us, when the hand that traced and the heart that cherished it are dust, is, verily, as a ghost. It is a likeness struck off the fond human being and surviving it. Far more truthful than bust or portrait, it bids the tears flow and the pulse beat. What ghost can the churchyard yield to us like the writing of the dead.—Baker Lytton.

ANSWER GIVEN TO ANY QUESTION AT THE SHORTEST NOTICE.—Mr. Norman Osborne was anxious to know what the duties were under the office recently appointed of "Instructor of Military Cookery." It must be, we should say, for the purpose of "cooking the accounts;" or, it may be, to teach the raw recruits how properly in cooking to make a mess of it; or, again, it may be with the object of giving those very raw recruits a good dressing every time they deserve it. Osborne, my little dear, you pay your money (that is, your usual bid, for this week's number) and so you are at full liberty to take your choice.—Punch.

A VERY NATURAL MISTAKE.—Lord Dufferin, the British Commissioner in Syria, has been appointed a Knight Commander of the Bath. As Syria is comprehended in the Ottoman Empire, the Bath with whose order his lordship has been decorated will, perhaps, be erroneously imagined to be the Turkish Bath.—Ibid.

GENERAL ITEMS.

According to the Scotsman the office of Secretary for Ireland is likely to become vacant soon. Lord Herbert of Lee has positively resigned the War Office.

The accounts we received from different parts of the country in reference to the prospects of the harvest are of the most encouraging character, and the anticipations of an early and abundant harvest are almost universal.

Almost all the French journals state that Prince Napoleon and the Princess Clothilde are to leave about the 15th July for America.

From Paris we are informed that Victor Emmanuel contemplates a visit shortly to Naples, where it is stated he will reside some time.

Accounts have been received from Tahiti to the 10th March. A post-office service had been organised in the French establishments in Oceania.

The formation of a fleet of gunboats for the North Sea is at present the object of negotiations between Prussia on the one hand and Oldenburg and the town of Bremen on the other.

above named. There is a hitch in the negotiations arising from a demand on the part of the small states for compensation in the form of a diminution of their contingent.

LITERATURE.

"The Life, Times and Correspondence of the Right Rev. Dr. Doyle, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin, by William John Fitzpatrick, J. P. (Dublin) James Duffy."

James Warrn Doyle, the future Bishop of Kildare, was born in the autumn of 1788, in the town of New Ross, county of Wexford.

James received as good a preliminary education as the country could then afford, and at nineteen years of age, his vocation for the church having been decided, he entered his novitiate at the Augustinian Convent at Grantstown.

From Paris we are informed that Victor Emmanuel contemplates a visit shortly to Naples, where it is stated he will reside some time.

We have at an early period of our life rejected the favours of the great, and fled even from the smiles of a court, that we might, in our native land, from which we had become an exile to procure an education; labour in the most humble department of the most sacred ministry.

turned to Ireland, and in October of the following year was ordained in Enniscestray by Dr Ryan the Coadjutor Bishop of Ferns.

His fame as a learned theologian, as well as his reputation for general ability, soon extended far and wide, and when the See of Kildare and Leighlin became vacant in 1819, with a character for learning and ability rarely attained by a man of his age, who up to that time had not taken any part in public affairs.
