the Partido of Aricañon on the land known as Pontezuelas, which will be killed before or after shearing, as best time intending purchasers. If desired, these sheep may be left on their present grazing.

2d.—A potrero, composed of 25 manzanas square of productive land, situated in the cattle sale at Barracas, close to the Conservatorio; it is subdivided into 20 lots with the necessary facilities for each lot in case it were destined for building purposes; the plan may be consulted at Mr.
Brown's office.

3d.—The well-known solitario of Brown, standing on this side of Bar-racas bridge, comprising all the properties requisite for this branch of business, and moreover amply furnished with vans, instruments, in shelter, cylinders, corras and other appurtenances, ready for working on the purchase of cattle.

4th.—A tract of alfalfa, bounded on one angle by the Barracas bridge, fronting the calle Real on one side and the calle Sala on another.
This ground is high and adapted for building.

5th.—A corralon, very large North of the above Establishment.

6th.—A lovely country-house and farma, on the coast of San Pedro, above the Barracas, with two queros near to the village. It contains 10
