

The Standard

Ficha Bibliográfica

Título:	The Standard
Variante del Título:	The Weekly Standard
Número de Edición:	34
Fecha de Publicación:	1861-12-25
Lengua:	Inglés
Creador:	Edward Mulhall y Michael Muhall
Tipo de Recurso:	Periódico

THE WEEKLY STANDARD

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR MICHAEL G. MULHALL 91 CALLE DEFENSA.

SUBSCRIPTION:

1008 per half year, in advance 208 per month. 68 single copy.

Agencies: D. J. Pichete, Mr. John Marshall, Once Setiembre, Villa de Lujan, Capilla del Señor, Filial.

Chasconius, Pareda, Montevideo calle, Porton, Anuncion, Chichias, Guardia Monte.

Mr. James L. Graham, M. Myers, M. Saffran, M. Nesbett, Mr. F. Carron, M. L. Evers.

ADVERTISEMENTS:

Received at the office up to Tuesday, 10 A. M. and inserted at moderate rates.

Published every Wednesday morning at the "Standard" Printing Office, as a special edition for country subscribers and for transmission by English & French packets.

December 26th 1861.

BUENOS AYRES.

No. 24.

Mauá Bank.

Office of this bank having been removed to the above office building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie...

English Seminary

The principal of the establishment contemplates to provide his system of instruction under the most favorable auspices. His practical acquaintance with the most popular systems of education in England and the United States has enabled him to introduce the best and most improved methods...

KNIGHT & PARODY

SUCCESSORS TO G. TEMPERLEY Calle Cangallo No. 80. DEPOSIT OF READY MADE CLOTHING.

Summer stock. New assortment of Ready Made Clothing for Spring & Summer just received per French Packet Ceylon.

3000's Reward. Lost several copies, on the 26 Nov. from the neighborhood of Sta. Catalina, three horses deer b'd as follows: one Bayo, arriolo; and 2 Picanos, one of which is arriolo, the other rodon, with close cut mane and a hole in each ear, the right ear-hole being cut out...

LET'S GO! Hanny's Royal Almanack. AND NAUTICAL ALMANACK FOR 1862. G. H. MACKERN 21-Calle San Martin, 21.

MINERAL WATER. Mineral water just received from the most famous fountains of Germany. Wholesale and Retail in the General Store of THOMAS BICKER 77-Perú-77.

CURRY POWDER AND SOY. First quality and superior Curry-Powder genuine just arrived per "Veludinda" from Hong Kong. Retail price twelve [12] d. Large bottle.

THOMAS BICKER. 77-Perú-77. NEGRETTE RAMON. Thomas Bicker invites his friends to inspect at his house one of the best Negresses from ever arrived from Germany. Said negress born in January '59 on the famous man-of-war "Festelitz" and is a direct descendant of the celebrated 1st Lieut. Genl. "Hauptmann" Kingdon of Moravia (Mahren).

MARRIED COUPLE. A young man and his wife seek employment in an Estancia or sheep-farm's house, the former would mind sheep, and the latter perform general house-work. Apply N. 100 calle Mayrú.

3000's reward. The undersigned has lost seven fine grey cows on Oct 20th, and judging that said animals may have been stolen by thieves, offers the above sum for their recovery. They are marked "62" with two tails to the left. For further particulars apply to advertiser. GERALD DILLON. Calle de Poja, Partido de Matanza.

English Education. A steady active man wants employment in one or two families in the City, or suburbs, to teach a general course of English Education, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, measurement of all descriptions of Timber, etc. of course included. References can be given to several persons of high respectability in the City. Buenos Aires 29th, November 1861, application No. 38 Calle San Lorenzo.

WANTED. A man-cook who speaks English, at the Victoria Hotel. Calle San Martin N. 103.

For sale in Quilmes. A brick house with slate roof, two large handsome rooms with hall, attic, and 2 small apartments and kitchen all attached; a small out house and well of good water; a nice garden, flowers, fruit trees, grape-vines, bud of alfalfa 72 yards in front by 60 in depth, all enclosed with rails and green fence. The premises will be sold a bargain! they are situated 4 squares from the Monument house, Plaza of Quilmes, towards the South, and one square from Doctor Wilde's. For terms etc apply on the premises or at JARROLD and DIAPER'S N. 3 Calle Peru.

Changed Premises.

The undersigned begs to inform the public that he has removed his grocery establishment from the corner of Potosí & Defensa to the premises lately occupied by Mr. Javea Noble, calle Defensa, 162. ROBERT UTE.

Wanted. On an English estancia near town a sober and intelligent man to work in a quinta & take care of horses. Apply Mayrú 175, before 9 a. m. or after 3 p. m.

YOUR LIKENESS. In photography and art work, taken with the most perfect fidelity by Charles Rowley, Studio San Martin opposite the Roma Hotel. Frames and casts at cheap rates, and in every variety.

RESIDENT TUTOR. A young man of superior education, sober and unmarried, seeks employment as resident master with the family of an English Estancia, who would give him an interest in sheep after some time. Address "Farula" at this office.

MEDIANERO. An Englishman who has had 6 years experience in the camp, wishes to buy half a flock for cash, entering as Medianero with some respectable estancia. For particulars, address Mr. Javea Noble.

Wanted. By an Englishman of good experience in Sheep-farming a situation as Medianero. THE ADVERTISER has good fine merino sheep which he would like to place on the same Estancia. Apply to H. M. Moss. Calle Defensa-29.

CIGAR-SHOP FOR SALE. The establishment N. 29 Defensa is offered for sale, with or without stock. It is in an excellent situation suitable for any branch of business, and subject to a moderate rent. Apply on the premises.

MAN & WIFE. A couple who have been some time in this country seek employment in a sheep Estancia for a man or for a proprietor, the husband is young, the wife is housemaid. Apply at Mrs. AUSTIN'S, Calle Tucuman, 50.

PATENT ASPHALTIC ROOFING FELT. A cheap, light, durable and permanent roofing, strongly recommended as suitable for galleries and other buildings. On sale at Calle de Potosí n. 58, where all necessary instructions for its application can be obtained.

NOTICE. The First General annual meeting of the Subscribers to the British Hospital will be held at the English Church School room on the evening of Monday the 31st instant at 7 P. M. in accordance with the provisions of the act of Parliament relating thereto, when a Report will be presented by the Committee of Management of the working of the Institution during their period of office, accompanied by an account of the receipts and expenditure for the year last past, the approval of the same being required for transmission to Her Majesty's Government. FRANK PARISH II. B. M. Consul, British Consulate December 28 1861.

FOR SALE. The new first class and fast sailing American barque "Plymouth" of 281 tons Register and built in Baltimore, January 1846 of Oak, Larch and yellow pine, yellow metal and copper, fastened in every respect well found and with an entire new set of sails - For particulars apply to the consignee, Zimmermann Fraze & Co, Calle Bolívar N. 57 - Plaza Victoria.

TO LET. A very commodious house with nine rooms, garden, and walled floor, with a garden - Calle Cangallo 337. - For further particulars - Apply English Seminary, Suipacha 20.

FOR SALE.

Seven English game Cocks of the pure Derby breed, just arrived in British Barges. Orders for further particulars apply at the Naval Store of Henry Rivers & Co, Calle Julio N. 44 July 1861.

To Sheep Farmers. Good investment for surplus wool money. Ground for building on in lots to suit purchasers in the immediate vicinity of the Plaza 11 Septiembre with frontages to Calle Cangallo, Mayo, & Castelar. To enquire apply to P. D. Lynch Calle Mayo No. 91 or to Edward Bayson, Calle Lima, No. 80.

General Undertaking. 107-Calle Mayo-107. The undersigned, respectfully intimates that at his well-known establishment will be manufactured a large assortment of ready-made, & cloth coats of superior quality and of every variety of style, at prices ranging from 20 to 3,000 $.

IRON. Messrs. NEYRAL and SERRAVALLE. Have opened an establishment of grocery and iron, where persons from the country districts may procure stores at reasonable prices and find every accommodation when travelling.

Ready on Twelfth Day. The Irish Catholic Almanac for St. Agostino and published by M. G. MULHALL, at the "STANDARD" PRINTING OFFICE.

This volume will contain a Calendar for the year, with the feasts and fasts of the Church, local statistics & taxes, a synopsis of the Catholic Church, table of sinners and extent of parishes, postal routes, sailing of packets, a new table of distances, lively with England, will make a valuable, multifarious, interesting, and useful thousand other useful and interesting subjects.

RAMBOLD'S RAMS FOR SALE. PETER HEALY has for sale at his Establishment, (and way between the City and the Camp) of the North West in his establishment in the Camp of San José half a league to the North of the Villa Mercedes, he has on hand an excellent assortment of nearly 400 rams of different classes and prices to suit the wants of buyers, all having been selected by himself personally and brought up from Mr. Richard Newton's estancia, San Bernardino.

Wanted. The undersigned begs to inform the sheep breeders of the North West in his establishment in the Camp of San José half a league to the North of the Villa Mercedes, he has on hand an excellent assortment of nearly 400 rams of different classes and prices to suit the wants of buyers, all having been selected by himself personally and brought up from Mr. Richard Newton's estancia, San Bernardino.

RAMBOLD'S RAMS FOR SALE. PETER HEALY has for sale at his Establishment, (and way between the City and the Camp) of the North West in his establishment in the Camp of San José half a league to the North of the Villa Mercedes, he has on hand an excellent assortment of nearly 400 rams of different classes and prices to suit the wants of buyers, all having been selected by himself personally and brought up from Mr. Richard Newton's estancia, San Bernardino.

150 DOUBLOONS. Wanted the above sum on a mortgage of immovable property in the city of Dublin, worth £1,000; the 200 years interest 10 per cent, with the principal. The rent may be applied as a sinking fund if desired. For further particulars and rental, apply at this office.

7 vacas perdidas. Su hijo perdido el 20 de Octubre próximo pasado, 7 vacas lecheras, nacidas el 22 de Setiembre a las 6 de la mañana, de las cuales se da gratificación al que las devuelva al Sr. GERALDE DILLON, Calle de Poja (Matanza).

ENGLISH CHURCH SCHOOL. The public are hereby informed that the classes of the above will re-commence on Monday, 1st January 1862. The languages taught in this School are, English, French, Spanish, Italian, &c. The School is a fine building with two day-rooms, one for girls, the other for the boys. HANRIET FRIZ PARSONS. - R. J. BROADBENT.

WANTED. Four or Five Medianeros for an Estancia in the South of this province, an immediate application is required. For further particulars apply at Calle Tucuman n. 34, between 9 and 10 hours of 11 and 12 A. M.

Mauá Bank.

Office of this bank having been removed to the above office building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie...

English Grocery Store.

The subscriber has opened the above as a grocery store the stock includes rice, sugar, wine, spirits and other necessaries for family use in town and country, of the best qualities, all purchased and selected with the greatest care. Particular attention will be given to the cultivation of a family trade, and orders from the country carefully attended to.

On sale.

A large and Select Stock of Tea, Groceries, Wines, and Spirits are offered at moderate prices, they will be well packed and forwarded to any of the Phases or Railway Stations by Thomas Watell & Co. N. 92 ca 25 de Mayo, B. Aires. N. B. - The branch Establishment in "Mocho" will furnish all goods at the same prices they can be supplied at from the city.

Just received.

A new and select stock of Groceries, Wines, Spirits, Teas, Boticas, Currants, &c. suitable for family use. Camp only executed with the quickest promptness at the most moderate prices, and forwarded free of cartage to any of the plazas.

Tea Wine and Spirits.

The Subscriber begs leave to inform his Friends and the Public that he has an excellent assortment of the above articles. He can particularly recommend his table Wines both Red and White. He has likewise a general assortment of Groceries and Spirits of the very best quality and most moderate prices. Buenos Aires 14 Oct. 1861. Jno. Bloor. Calle Cangallo No. 16 - Veinte cinco de Mayo 60.

NOTICE.

I hereby give notice that the partnership hitherto existing in this city between J. H. G. Russell and Edward Wards, under the firm of "Russell and Wards" is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Buenos Aires 20th December 1861. Russell and Wards.

WANTED.

A man-cook who speaks English, at the Victoria Hotel. Calle San Martin N. 103.

DUTCH CONSULATE.

The above named Consulate is removed from N. 108 Calle de la Reconquista Street. Office of Messrs. D. T. Visser & Co.

Education.

ANGLO FRENCH SEMINARY 331 Potosí 331 Between Buen Orden and Lima. This school is designed to give a thorough and liberal education to families desirous of acquiring the English and French languages, and the best instruction in arithmetic, drawing and music, and other accomplishments. Two English teachers reside in the family and an excellent French teacher, who give their personal attention to the pupils. The moral training and the health and physical development of the scholars are carefully attended to. References, Day, Mr. N. Goddellow; James O'Brien; W. Temple; G. and H. M. Kern. N. 115 p. William Parody.

NOTICE.

The public are respectfully informed that the School is now closed for the Christmas vacation, but will be re-opened on Monday Jan. 13th 1862. A. CROOKER POWER, Master.

Lamentable suicide.

Byron tells us that the English patriots... I can see that the country of a people... and hence a grateful posterity commemorates this one good deed which sufficed to redeem all the rest of his tenebrous career.

River-mails.

The hostile fleet is disarming at Paraná; it is said they had each only 10 tons of coal for the day's flight, we believe they had more than enough.

Montevideo.

Mails just arrived inform us that the Chief of Police has fined 500 dollars for not having license. Another youth has been drowned; he was an Argentine and Mr. Wm. Douglas leaped in to rescue him, but in vain.

England.

(From our own correspondent.) Manchester Nov. 5th '61.

Our market during the past month has been one of considerable difficulty for spinners and manufacturers. Continually advancing rates for cotton, and no corresponding advance on the manufactured goods, have at last driven producers to short time, a course which was only adopted after long waiting for an improvement in demand.

Model-school examination.

The annual exercises of the model-school "Catedral del Sur" began on Monday. The infant and primary classes were examined on Monday and Tuesday; on yesterday the higher classes gave a good display of proficiency in English which branch is under the able management of Mr. George Ryan.

Public and Private Education.

This all-important subject calls for such profound experience and unprejudiced sentiment, that we touch upon it almost unwillingly and venture a few observations, en passant, without expounding any infallible dogma as to the best method of teaching the young idea how to shoot.

An Englishman Killed by a "Vigilante."

An unusual sensation has been caused among our British community by a tragedy which occurred resulting in the death of a poor English sailor. The facts are simply stated: the unfortunary man was intoxicated, and as the vigilantes had bound to seize him, a scuffle ensued, which ended in the death of the sailor.

Talk of the Day.

Neas is growing slack; it is said Mitre is going to Santa Fé, the National Guards are about to leave their former quarters between this port and the Republic of Uruguay & Entre Ríos. A propos, the Mississippi has been overhauled, and started for Montevideo, on Tuesday.

The Pilots again.

We have been requested to give publicity to the following: To the Editor of the "Standard" Sir, The regulation of Pilot contains no act for the prohibition of Pilots being owners of their own vessels, on the contrary it throws them in an open competition with the public, giving all the advantages & disadvantages of a free exercise of office, notwithstanding the undersigned is the existing Pilot proprietor, who by immense exertion has by the term of a year survived the ruin of his former companions.

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily

The Northerners are evidently unable to subdue the rebellious South, and to an English eye it seems a culpable waste of time and the resources of the State, when there is no definite end to the same thing, attained only in view. I suppose, however, that impartial observers of the war of Independent thought that the conduct of the mother-country was culpable, as it is in the matter of war and all events she had, in the matter of war and all appliances, far more advantage over her rebels than the Federal Government has over them.

EMIGRATION TO BUENOS AYRES.

We are glad to learn of the safe arrival at Buenos Ayres of the brig Raymond, of this emigrants from this port, after a successful voyage of sixty-one days. Truly happy are the relatives and friends of the emigrants who will share with their safe arrival, we doubt not, that all well-wishers of our maritime commerce will share with us the pleasure of the prosperous inauguration by Mr. Curran of a direct line of communication with a country whose solid inducements to those of our agricultural and labouring population who may be disposed to emigrate.

INDIA.

Telegraphic advices from Calcutta are to date 29th At Calcutta a slight advance in the price of cotton has been noted. The English mail of Sept 29th reached Bombay in twenty days seven hours. Weather favourable in every part of India for the maturing of the crops. Cholera continued to abate.

The British Minister's Letter.

The following is his excellency's reply to Urquiza's proclamation: D. J. de la Peña Minister de Entre-Ríos. Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 2nd inst, in which you enclosed me a notice of the law enacted by the Legislature of Entre Ríos on the 1st inst. whereby that Province re-assumes her sovereignty until the re-construction of the Republic.

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

The greatest course in life.

Social evils are multiplying before our eyes, and yet no one has the courage to set his face against them. Some press on as more heavily than others and keep on, even awake, subjected to a physical night-mare which paralyses our efforts. The life of man now so abbreviated by the progress of the sciences, that we find some of them, not only of the physical sciences, but also of the moral and political sciences, people are obliged to die, rather than starve. The bakers therefore are "plague the first."

We do not inhale this expression. Editor.

Provincial News.

Home has not been taking a constitutional form of the frontier as some might suppose...

Head-quarters.

No more battles, no more scrimmages. This may be considered the telegram of our army in the field.

It is true a certain M. Nicolrich has started a paper in Santa Fé...

One Comas (not the god of Folly) having styled himself governor of some shere, Mitre advised Pannero to clip his plumage...

Wanted

The list of public wants is not observable in a long file of advertisements...

yes, Parisian fies, swart-canes, wrist-bands, pomatums and tom-foolery...

Change of Weather.

The barometer of our hopes fell a little this morning, on reading Mitre's reply of the 14th inst., to Urquiza.

It also remains his late adversary that the National identity cannot depend on private Provincial compacts...

The hero of Pavon does not exclude the victor of Caseros from taking part in the national regeneration...

The Casa de Moneda, or Royal Mint, is an immense building, which was erected at a cost of two millions of dollars...

Town items.

Government has already named the Commission of valuation, among the members, we perceive those of Messrs. Kemnitz and Bullich of the Commercial Tribunal staff...

Travels in Peru & Bolivia.

We have been favored with the following instructive travels of an English gentleman as they chiefly relate to a terra incognita...

CHAP. I.—POTOSI.

A high mountain appears in the distance as you advance on the high road between the post-house of Caiza and the town of Potosi...

of the kind we had hitherto seen; it was that mountain which was made known to the world in the year 1645 by the mercurial casuistry by an Indian named Diego Guilaqui...

The report of this discovery spread rapidly and widely abroad, and shortly after, a town was built at the base of this mountain, called Potosi...

The streets are numerous and very steep, and the exteriors of the houses are clean and neat...

The Casa de Moneda, or Royal Mint, is an immense building, which was erected at a cost of two millions of dollars...

There are several public edifices in the principal square of the town: on one side of the square stands the government house; a long range of buildings, including the Justice house, the jail, and a guard-house...

The climate of Potosi is very disagreeable from the daily changes of temperature, as the four seasons of the year are experienced on the same day.

It will be readily conceived that these effects should be produced, on considering the great height of this mountain above the level of the sea...

Table with 2 columns: Item, Value. From the principal square of the town... 13,240 feet. The Mountain of Potosi... 15,970 feet. El Huayna Potosi... 14,890 feet. Latitude of Potosi... 19,342. Do on the point of the mountain... 19,361. Mean height of the barometer for 16 days... 47.50. Thermometer... 56.

Doctor Redhead, a physician many years established in the town of Salta, who visited Potosi a few years previous to the arrival of Mr. Pentland...

of the sea, which agrees, within eleven feet, with that gentleman's measurement.

No mining district in the world has produced such an abundance of silver as the mountain of Potosi; and which, probably, still contains as much hidden treasure as that which has been drawn from it.

In that manuscript the treasurer states that, "having examined the great number of books that have accumulated in this office from the period of its foundation, it results, that in the year 1556, the working of these mines formally commenced, thus reigning the industry of the Lord, Don Philip, the Second—But in the eleven preceding years, that is, from 1645 in which this mountain was discovered, no account exists of what it produced...

Tricks of Trade.

We have been requested to note a trivial imposition in the wool-market, against which the sheep-farmers loudly protest.

Local Events.

Newspapers, like everything else, change with the climate, and it is a pleasing to an Englishman newly arrived, to institute a comparison between our local prints and those of trans-atlantic presses.

In both he will find politics the very life and soul of the leading articles; in both may be found advertisements; but, here ends all similitude, for if he look for births, marriages & deaths, he will be told this piece of intelligence is considered too priv. to be profaned by publication.

The wife and strays, that fill the small chinks between leading articles, are grouped in English prints under the heading of "Miscellaneous" and seldom read by serious people; but here, it is the contrary, for "Local events" contain, like a lady's postscript, the whole gist of the production.

It were all very well if these vagabond items were restricted to the facts "boy drowned," "papalecta," "gas," "new polka," "imaginary duzen," "stalling invention" and such like.

man who, in his private capacity, is permitted to intrude his wares under the E. flag and to pass off as a state benefactor. The indubitable error of public opinion descends to the rank of a private advocate, leaving his own moral weight...

Frenchmen are not reckoned fashionable, nor an imperfection of human folly. Heavens, though a stranger, receive more favor than Germans are viewed as so strange a light...

- 6th. It will be said we rail against a habit of our own, since we have, now and then, passed a law...
7th. Wide street committee.
8th. Silence in church and dog-expulsion.
9th. Public amusements and their players.
10th. Public charities and their management.
11th. Public convalesces and their springs.
12th. Public-houses and their occupants.

News by "Doloritas."

This steamer which arrived on Saturday brought nothing new of importance, but throws some interesting light on the recent movements in the interior.

The rebels in Corrientes 4000 strong had completed their triumph by electing Sr. Pamplín G. venor pro-tem, the decree being signed by himself as V. Pres. of the Chambers.

Manuette River has led a mixed force towards Mendoza, to liberate the provinces of Corrientes. Mitro was expected to arrive in Rosario on Monday 23rd, and the National Guard was to commence embarkation on St. Stephen's Day...

Rolon's abdication.

Detailed accounts of the revolution in Corrientes state that the expedition, finding his cause hopeless, made a virtue of necessity, imitating Derant. Seeing, said he, that my name is held as an excuse for revolt, I will deprive the rebels of this pretext.

A merry Xmas.

To day being Christmas eve, it becomes us to wish our readers all the compliments of the season. Perhaps no other

Why in the whole year so forcibly reminded us of home, or calls up in such vivid lines...

Here, in a far-off land, with seasons so opposite, old Father Xmas is robust of health...

"Comes but once a year" And when it comes, it brings good cheer" All these are here wanting, and it requires an effort of imagination to associate the festival of Christmas at home with the tropical glow of this country.

Yet this great festival commemorating the dawn of Christianity brings with it a charm of friendly unity among Christians of every persuasion, who all rejoice alike in the coming of the Messiah. Not alone the three British Kingdoms, but peoples of composite tastes and climates celebrate the Day.

It is not then a mere passing formality on our part to reciprocate the congratulations which resound on every side: we look on this feast as a landmark in our existence, and as it is our first, we feel a double pleasure in heartily wishing our readers and colleagues.

"A merry Christmas, and many happy returns of the day."

BRITISH HOSPITAL.

Subscription List (continued) with names and amounts: Mr. Peter Bearo $50, George Palmer 50, William Sheeden 100, etc.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

It is rumored that Pres. Davis of the Confederate States has died, and as the report gains credence, this will prove a serious blow to the secessionists.

The report is mentioned in a leader of the Times that Sir Cornwall Lewis has suspended for the present the issue of 100 pounder Armstrong guns, and has directed such experiments to be made as shall bring the efficiency of this new ordnance to a decisive proof.

The Times announces that the Queen has offered to confer the dignity of knight upon Mr. Fairbairn, the President of the British Association, in consideration of the eminent services he has rendered to science.

The siege of Sebastopol are to be inscribed upon them. He has also laid the cornerstone of a church that is to be consecrated at Obersones, on the spot where a former church existed.

Accounts from Vera Cruz state that a decree of the State Legislature has recently appeared for the purpose of encouraging foreign immigration. Ten per cent of the revenues of the State are to be set aside to assist immigrants to come to settle in Mexico, and the proceeds of a State lottery are to be devoted to the same purpose.

Mr. Mire's mansion in the Rue Richelieu, Paris, where he had the office of the Gaisnes des Chemins de Fer, is now offered for sale at the upset price of 50,000 francs.

A Paris letter in the France Central of this date states that the Emperor of the French presented the Duchess de Magenta, before her departure for Konigsberg, with diamonds to the value of 40,000 francs, and 10,000 francs in cash.

There is a talk at Missolonghi, says the Patrie, of erecting there a monument to Lord Byron.

Letters from Circassia mention that the chiefs have, by a unanimous vote in general assembly, abolished slavery through the whole territory of the tribes.

It is now generally accepted as a settled fact that the Emperor Napoleon III. further adjourned the settlement of the Roman question.

An inmate of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, named Bode, formerly of the 60th (Hilks, a native of Nassau, has been pronounced right-handed as to his property to the amount of 350,000 francs.

A London watchmaker, who gave one thousand guineas for the back page of the Great Exhibition Catalogue of 1862, has been offered a bonus of 1,000 francs for his bargain!

look place at Liege, which was brilliantly illuminated in honour of the event. During a serenade in front of the palace, the two kings appeared together at one of the windows, and were most enthusiastically cheered.

The Russian government is said to have given orders for the arrest of the most conspicuous young men of Warsaw, in order that they may be condemned for political offences, and then incorporated in the Russian army, and the telegraph says 2,000 are already in the hands of the authorities.

Accounts from Vera Cruz state that a decree of the State Legislature has recently appeared for the purpose of encouraging foreign immigration. Ten per cent of the revenues of the State are to be set aside to assist immigrants to come to settle in Mexico, and the proceeds of a State lottery are to be devoted to the same purpose.

It is stated that a crenation of dukedoms may be expected in France, the aspirants being Counts Persigny, Walenski, and Morley.

Mr. Mire's mansion in the Rue Richelieu, Paris, where he had the office of the Gaisnes des Chemins de Fer, is now offered for sale at the upset price of 50,000 francs.

A Paris letter in the France Central of this date states that the Emperor of the French presented the Duchess de Magenta, before her departure for Konigsberg, with diamonds to the value of 40,000 francs, and 10,000 francs in cash.

There is a talk at Missolonghi, says the Patrie, of erecting there a monument to Lord Byron.

Letters from Circassia mention that the chiefs have, by a unanimous vote in general assembly, abolished slavery through the whole territory of the tribes.

It is now generally accepted as a settled fact that the Emperor Napoleon III. further adjourned the settlement of the Roman question.

An inmate of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, named Bode, formerly of the 60th (Hilks, a native of Nassau, has been pronounced right-handed as to his property to the amount of 350,000 francs.

A London watchmaker, who gave one thousand guineas for the back page of the Great Exhibition Catalogue of 1862, has been offered a bonus of 1,000 francs for his bargain!

LOCAL EVENTS.

San Fernando Railway.—Our readers will be glad to learn that everything is in apple-pie order for the working of the railway. The gentlemen lately arrived will push on the enterprise with activity, and we have been assured by one of them that all difficulties having disappeared, the line is now in a fair way of going ahead.

Another, and yet another.—On Friday morning a boy was drowned, bathing near the Old Custom-house. A waterman, who was near, refused to give him assistance, and was arrested for such inhumanity. Probably the thought human life of little value, seeing Government takes no measures to prevent the so repeated casualties.

position that is generally fatal. It is a paralysis that shows itself in a one-sided gut, and being contagious, we fear some others have the dangerous symptoms.

Mock sympathy.—Our soi-disant English colleagues lament over "A British citizen killed by Islamism." The pharmacology is apt to mislead, for the fact is that the deceased was as good a Paddy as any of the lot, but none worthy of sympathy, being as disgraceful rowdy as those who joined him, in the fight with knives. We have no crocodile tears for a ruffian killed in a brawl.

Answers to Correspondents.—Zarate.—We beg to decline turning commission: get to recover you: bills on Government. The best man you can employ is the Editor of the Com. Times. Pic ad 147.

Vacation.—We beg leave to state that we intend rustication, so that our next No. will not appear until Friday 27 inst. On Tuesday 31st there will be no paper, as the Daily Standard assumes its enlarged form on Wednesday January 1st and the Weekly paper will be thenceforward published on Thursdays.

Almanacs.—Surely you don't wait the calendar of next year, before 1862. There's a time for all things. Apply between the two Xmas Days.

Boys drowned.—A. B. must apply to the statistic office: if they understand Algebra they will tell you the number is represented by X (an unknown quantity).

Gallant Action.

We call attention to the following as a testimony of international generosity and gratitude. Ed.

The undersigned Master of the Chilean Ship "Elcira Subercarreaux" begs to return his sincere thanks to the Master Officers & crew of the American barque "Archer", for their prompt and effective assistance rendered in saving the Crew & Boat of his vessel which capsized in a squall on the 23rd instant.

J. H. HARRISON. Buenos Aires, 24th December 1861.

Closing Paragraph.

Yesterday in lawyers' language was a die non: nothing to satisfy, erasing journalists, but a poor devil who was drowned, like so many before him. Nervous people slender: bless you that's nothing, we are accustomed it. Does humanity expect any gloved legislators or perfumed Editors to jump in, cry down, or prevent the loss of a mere plebeian. If indeed some member of one of the Clubs, or Courts, or Chambers, were drowned, we should scarce hear the end of it this year, but a vulgarian (citizen though he be), has a right to take care of himself; his state went unless in case he be the wisest sailor, who, is by this time little thought of.

The weather being S. S. R. e'tra has gone to take a month's of fresh air, while Editors can't even take a run to Colonia, unless the State sends them. To day the rising generation of Belgrano get their penknives, and then the soldiers fire blank cartridges in the evening: the moral is good: it signifies that when they escape the birch, they get the gun as Nat. Guards. This is teaching the young idea how to shoot.

News from the army speaks of a court-martial pending on Olivenza & Chivango. Peterborough, finding his constitution broken up, is going to Perle. Cardero (who wasn't shot) leaves an order of the day, complimenting himself and abusing Cabasa. Celvo and other Dramatic persons, of the Paraná stage are going to represent in Montevideo. Our colleagues say he plays the role of "Faturor": others think he is at home in 'Sir Giles Overreach' (A new way to pay old debts).

Subscriptions to British Hospital.

Subscription list: Mr. Thomas Harries $50, Thomas Galvan 100, David Clavin 200, Alexander Winton 200, etc.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTS.

Swed. barque "Fosterlandet" 378 Nordin from Caliz Nov. 7. to Bunge with 226 last salt. 24. Span. polacore "Rosario" 171 D. rull from Barcelona Sept. 19 and Malaga Oct. 13. to Mr. J. M. for captain 1800 pp. red wine, 70 qts Malaga, 400 qts raisins, 1,000 boxes pine, 100 plums, 16 lbs. pepper.

Span. polacore "Elegancia" 301 Malacary from Rio Janeiro 1st inst. to Fryer with 300 lbs sugar, 300 lbs salt. 24. French barque "Lorient" 335 Gourdet from Bordeaux to Montevideo 1st inst. In sight—a barque.

DEPARTS.

Bordeaux, French brig "Little" Sagory with 285 bales sheepskins, 25 dry horse-hides, 10 empty casks. 24. Brazil, Span. polacore "Adela & Rosa" O'Shea with 3,200 qq. jerked beef 80 dry horse-hides. 24.

N. York, Amer. brig "Wm. Mason" 2000 with 61 bales horsehair, 85 do. wool, 2000 shibbones, 60 horse-hides.

MANIFESTS.

1800 Yere from Bordeaux to Bagnac with 1200 lbs wine, 100 cases brandy, 78 do. champagne, 74 red wine, Ardill 100 lbs red wine, 50 boxes wormwood, Heydecker 100 lbs red wine, 850 boxes red wine, Charant 49 do. white, Marquis 200 lbs red wine, 100 lbs horse hair, Bieber 200 do. dry goods, Fazzariella 109 do. sardines to order 100 baskets potatoes, 100 do. sardines, Phebus from Marseilles to Bagnac with 100 boxes wine, 150 do. liquors, 250 do. wool, 100 do. 300 vermouth, 300 wine, 200 cognac, Marriese 400 boxes vermouth, 100 wormwood, Crainer 300.

11 de Setiembre Market.

Market prices table with columns for various goods and their prices.

Donblons.

Table showing Donblon exchange rates for various dates.

Table showing Opening price, At 4 1/2, Saturday Dec. 23, Various dates up to 62, Closing price, Donblons sold.

Deaths.

Died on the 16th inst. aged 49 at his Ecclesiastical in the partido de San Vicente, W. Lopez, Coronay Esp. long resident in this country, and sincerely regretted by all who knew him.

On Saturday 14th inst. aged 24, California Mc. Cause of pulmonary consumption, at the residence of Mr. Harritt, who was a native of Wexford and remarkable for filial tenderness.

THE TEETH.

Calla Rivermouth, 275, near Baltimore, Dr. CORNWALL, a minister of the Gospel, for the relief of pain and for restoring to health and beauty the teeth which will gold or other materials that are not beginning to decay, is his intention as to prevent their falling out.

Clearing off the cutter, which is beneficial to the breath, gums, and enamel of the teeth themselves, so efficiently as to prevent their accumulation.

Being well posted in all the modern improvements in the art, he can offer great advantages to those who have need of artificial teeth, whether in ivory, gold, silver, or porcelain, to one to a whole set, he can guarantee entire satisfaction—prices moderate.

TO MERCANTILE FIRMS.

The undersigned, at the suggestion of several commercial houses, proposes in contract for the service of agents in the "Estados de Aduana" and to assign the labor of their various duties, for the better service of the trading public.

For this purpose, a Registry book is kept in this office, wherein Mercantile can write down their firm, in case they require copies. Care will be taken to have on hand a sufficient number to form a gang who will be entirely devoted to this service.

The price payable for each cart will depend on a tariff according to distance, and will be kept the mercantile community will find the advantages to their satisfaction. Suen M. Rodriguez. WANTED a thorough good English Cook man or woman for a small English family. Liberal wages given. Apply H. M. Moore. 23—Calle de San...