THE RIVER PLATA MAGAZINE

The first number of this periodical contains the following articles: Biography of Admiral William Brown

LOCAL EVENTS.

The Pan-American Exhibition.—This unprecedented exhibition has met with the most signal success in the Villa Mercedes, and is about to move on to another country town shortly, we have no doubt, it will meet with the same support.

The Hepler.—This first-class steamer, we are happy to learn, is coming out again. She is expected here, on Wednesday or Thursday next.

The River Plate Bank.—We call attention to the advertisement in another column, which the manager sent us yesterday. It will be seen that the capital of the bank is now one million sterling, double its former capital, and a more generous rate of interest, and a more liberal policy, is to be pursued.

Extraordinary Circumstances.—We notice that some person in the Louvre Hotel is advertising for ten copies of the 'Tribuna,' for which the price of one hundred dollars is offered. This is what we call a goal beginning for the new year.

New Numbers.—We understand that they have begun numbering all the queros and houses in the outskirts of town, with black paint. Where there is no door or wall to put the number on, it is pointed out, the 'Luna on the hedge.'

The Old Club House.—This building is being torn down, and we hear a four-story house will be built on the site. Our friends in the new Club House, we fear, will find their quarters rather gloomy if this is so. They ought to move to the new building.

High Wages.—We hear that in Chiliviey the wages paid to peons is from $40 to $50 per day. Owing to these extraordinary high wages, peons are flocking in crowds on west.

The Western Railway.—It is rumored that the man ger of this road proposes to make the head terminus at the Plaza Once de Setiembre, and run the cars by horses up to the Parque. We think that the manager ought to consult Mr. Zuccerman, of the Northern line, before he attempts such a thing, as we have reason to believe the Northern Railway is about to apply to the Government for liberty to bring the locomotives up to the Plaza 25 de Mayo, as the horse business is too inconvenient.

4 Janis.—We hear of an enterprising Irish gentleman who has just obtained from the Government twenty square leagues in Junin. He gets the land in fee—that is to say, he pays only on the conditions of putting a puesto on each acre. We understand that the survey has gone out to 'mojones,' or set of the lands, and deliver same to the enterprising proprietor. He proposes putting forty flocks of sheep on the land. In a few short years, what will not this country be worth!

THE BOLSA.

Patatoes opened at 28 1/2, and rose to 2 1/4, at which price they closed. The number of potatoes sold were 4,893. In the liquidation room, at five o'clock, the sales were 28.35.
