THE COMMERCIAL BODY

Argentines have been so long accustomed to be ruled by lawyers and soldiers, that we are not astonished at the feeling of surprise which some of our colleagues have betrayed...

THE COMMERCIAL

Possessed of the most powerful of all elements—money—it has tolerated, in silence, every species of political intrigue, every description of anarchical imposts, rather than yield the influence it held...

Some of the leading merchants and capitalists of Buenos Ayres have come forward at last, and notwithstanding all the tirades and abuse which the 'Tribuna' and 'Nacional' heap on those men, they have determined to act their part...

The day has at last arrived when the merchants of the River Plate have become the rulers of this country, and the same power which supports President Mitre to-day, can supply him with an army and navy to conquer any rebellion that is attempted in the River Plate.

Recrue to every principle of patriotism—bent on their own and their country's ruin—guided by a depraved ambition for place and emolument, the enemies of the present Govt. have attempted to raise their heads—but the commercial body are true to a man. We want peace, and we must have it. The commerce of the River Plate has sided with President Mitre: he may laugh to scorn all opposition.

The foreign merchants in the River Plate, if they have no vote, have an overwhelming influence. Every foreign merchant in this city is determined to wield that influence in favour of the National Government.

The Argentine Central Railway. As we know it will be gratifying to many of our readers to hear good authentic news respecting this company, we are happy to publish the fact that rails for one hundred miles of the road have already left England in two vessels...

The Mercantile of Sunday publishes an attack on the River Plate Bank, but as the writer had the good sense to confine himself to his vernacular, we have less objection to find with the style of the communication.

On Saturday evening a painful rumour ran through town respecting the Paraguayan steamer. Some stated that she was on fire in the harbour, others that she burned to the water's edge in the night time...

Our passengers having little else to do begin to talk about their several journeys. The horse dealer narrates his journey from San Pablo to Cuyaba, 250 leagues, most of the way being through Indian territory...

with our forensic literature: he intends returning to England after a few months. Dr. Arze has great hopes for the navigation of the Pilcomayo, which would make Asuncion the entrepot of Bolivian products.

The 'Mining Journal.' Our impressions regarding this San Juan Mining Company are rather favourable, and we have little doubt as to the success of our go-ahead fellow-countryman, the Major.

The 'Tribuna,' the great sower of discord in this country, calls upon the 'Standard' not to pay attention to some remarks of the 'Nacion Argentina' about the Ministers.

THE 'STANDARD' ABROAD. THE RIVER PARAGUAY. Villa Francia to Asuncion. Dec. 16th 1863.

On yesterday morning we were lucky enough to get afloat, and continued our course without interruption until reaching Villa Olivia, where two Italian vessels lay weather bound in Voyage for B. Ayres.

We spent the evening, watching the shoals of alligators on either bank: sometimes as many as a dozen were basking together in the sun.

individually) One name alone was mentioned, and this person is made the victim of the colonists' wrath—as he goes to prove we have used too much moderation with the best among the colonists, remarking that we should have added some of them deserved a penitentiary rather than be treated as honorable men.

The Government will appreciate now our indications on the necessity of placing a complete stranger at the head of the authority there: an independent man, and one who will be firm in making the laws of the country respected.

THE ORIENTAL QUESTION. We are happy to assure our readers that through the mediation of the British Minister, Mr. Thornton, amicable relations have been resumed between the Argentine and Montevideo Governments.

We congratulate Mr. Thornton on the signal success which attended his efforts; the probabilities are, that had it not been for him, we should now be at war with Montevideo.

Mr. Thornton, we feel convinced, will not fail to use his best exertions to bring about a speedy termination of the revolution, which is at present causing such loss to British subjects in the Banda Oriental.

SAVINGS BANK. BANK MAU & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. BUENOS-AIRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate...

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, workmen & servants of all classes...

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

CONDITIONS. 1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p's) per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
