LOCAL EVENTS.

Steamer 'Menny'—This boat will, in future, leave this port for Montevideo every Monday and Thursday, and will return on Sunday and Thursday.

Cab Fares.—We have heard several complaints about the exorbitant fares that the 'cabbies' charge on unfortunate strangers who fall into their hands.

Accident.—The other evening just as the 8.10 train was coming into the Retiro Station three gentlemen and three ladies were seen coming down the hill on horseback, when to the engine gave its shrill whistle, all six horses shied, and strange to say, but ridiculously true, all the riders were thrown from their horses into one great heap.

British Hospital.—The postponed meeting of the subscribers to this charitable institution will take place on Friday, the 8th inst., as will be seen by the advertisement published in the corresponding column.

Murder.—On Monday a cartman stabbed another, causing instant death, and then jumping upon one of his horses, ran away, and has, so far, avoided the police who are in active pursuit of him.

Cabriolet.—We do not know if our other colleagues are victimized by these gentlemen, but since the new year, we are sorry to say, our office has been quite deserted by our friends.

Villa del Salto.—This celebrated steamer we are informed, on the authority of the 'Tribuna,' has again been named by President Berro's Government, and will, as soon as the river permits, leave Salto for Paysandu, with reinforcements for the garrison which is closely pressed by large bodies of Flores' filibusters.

The Parana.—This fine steamer arrived in this port yesterday morning, and brings a good deal of cargo. In a few days we shall publish the date fixed for her sailing from this port, on her return voyage.

Northern Railway.—The Administration of the line begs to inform the public that the hours of departure of the trains will be changed from Monday next, 11th inst.

The Argentine Consul General, Mr. Daniel Makinlay arrived per the Marquis de Olinda. It is with pleasure we welcome his return, and congratulate him on his successful arrangement of our various disputes.

Sad Particulars.—As late as the day before yesterday orders were given by the Intendencia to take an inventory of the furniture and chattels belonging to seven houses left deserted, their owners having perished in the late catastrophe.

Oriental Italian Paper.—A newspaper is published in the neighbouring capital exclusively to the interests of the Italian population. The editors are Messrs. Pesco and Marcuello.

The Coquena is intended to run between this port and Concordia, in combination with the Menny, touching all intermediate ports; but great fears are entertained of Nadal's whale-boat.

Registro Cívico.—Scene in the jury-room of one of our parishes, on Wednesday.—Free and enlightened elector (to the Jury)—Here is my 'papeleta,' please give me my voting ticket.

A Juror—Your mother lives in Monserrat parish, therefore you must go there.

Electors—I come to vote for myself, not for my mother. I am domiciled in this parish.

The Jury—Don't be impertinent, away with you.

Enter another free and enlightened voter—Hullo! How d'yo do? Let's see your 'papeleta.' (Shows it to his brother juror.) All right, here is your voting ticket.

Notes.—This papeleta had a small almost imperceptible red mark in one corner, by the commandante of his battalion, which meant—'this is a crudo, despatch him at once!'

Twenty coidos ago complaining that they cannot get their tickets. On the jury jurors make it is precious that the jury adjourn to a neighbouring confectionery to rest from the fatigues of office.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUÁ & C.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place their most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, workmen & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1893.
