FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1864.

ARRIVAL OF THE REPLEN

7 D Y Later from London. The steamer 'Kepler' arrived in Montevideo...

Great fears were entertained in England of a general European war...

Charlotte had not surrendered, but was in flames in several parts...

Lee had left the Rappahannock. The Russian fleet left New York to winter in Washington.

All the French and English Consuls in Alabama had lost several of her crew at the Cape of Good Hope during desertion...

The atrocities of the Russians still continued in Poland, and all Europe was alarmed at the massacre and sack of the Count Zamoiski's palace.

All the money markets in Europe were rising their rates of interest. Gold still kept flowing out of the U.S. of America and France.

Money was getting very tight in both London and Paris. It was rumored in London that private advices spoke of a great battle in Tennessee...

Lord Elgin is dangerously ill. France is about to come in the market for a loan.

THE CHILIAN SACRIFICE.

On last Sunday we published all the information we possessed respecting the awful catastrophe which occurred on the 8th December in the church of Compañia in Santiago, the capital of Chile...

One clergyman alone of all the clergy who belonged to the church, Don Juan Diez Díaz, worked heaven and earth to save the multitude...

One clergyman alone of all the clergy who belonged to the church, Don Juan Diez Díaz, worked heaven and earth to save the multitude; secondly for closing the vestry door, when possibly had it been open many lives might have been saved...

If we are to believe the accounts in the Chilean newspapers, silver candles were saved by the dozen, while the loveliest girls in Santiago were doomed to death in hundreds in the church...

It is said that the walls of the church were to be demolished, and a public park was to be laid out...

Flfty graves were opened to include the remains of the frightful catastrophe. Uncertainty, doubt, and despair were painted on every countenance...

and the whole city was overwhelmed in despair. A hundred and seventy men, and passed not fifty yards from the church...

None of the clergy perceived in the awful configuration of the 8th of December, nor were they seen to offer either spiritual or corporal relief...

Great blame is attached to the clergy, who are charged with occupying themselves in saving the ornaments of the church and not the people...

The Municipal elections are over in the principal parishes of the city...

One man perceiving that if the pile of dead bodies, which had accumulated at the door could be removed...

General Horrox took the chair. The Secretary proceeded to give account of the works of the committee...

CLUB DEL PUEBLO.

Tremendous Concourse.

Two Thousand Persons Present. On Wednesday the friends of the National Government and the opponents of the 'Tribuna' National...

It was remarked the great number of leading merchants who were present scarcely an individual attended the meeting...

General Horrox took the chair. The Secretary proceeded to give account of the works of the committee...

The greatest vandal of the day is the Captain of the Port at Colonia, who will not even allow the 'Standard' on shore...

We refrain at present from making any remarks on the conduct of the French consuls or even the authorities...

The cause of this dreadful accident was the imprudent profession of lights, one door only being left open...

there on the 4th inst., and that the judge ordered him under arrest, assigning to him the city of Paraná as a prison.

We hear that Mr. Thornton will shortly go down to Montevideo in person. We suppose that his trip will have something to do with the Oriental question...

The Municipal elections are over in the principal parishes of the city. The 'Standard' is published in another column the names of the members elected...

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

Do- M. PONGEARRA, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English school, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An excellent and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee in this respect of the education of the pupils.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise: English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religion Instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most beautiful Quays of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
