A word to express one's feelings under such circumstances, I find none, and therefore revert to my own favorite expletive—blatencruel!

Being naturally a religious turn of mind, intensified I may observe by long residence in a neighboring tropical country, I score to reply to the imputations of the calumniator, who has not even scrupled to assume an honored and distinguished name.

The regularity of my attendance at the Booth Temple is known to all men, especially the "brethren." If henceforth I absent myself it must be attributed to that invidious attempt to introduce false doctrine, in the shape of improved music, which, with sorrow and grief, I see some degenerate youths of the congregation are intent on doing.

I want neither organ, nor harmony, nor do I wish to hear anything more melodious than the well known voice of THE TRIO B—Z—U, Helgrano, Jan. 1861.

Argentine Contributions.—TO THE EDITORS OF THE "STANDARD." Gentlemen, I beg to submit to your standard the following, and request you to insert same in your paper.

My vessel, the Chango, on board of which I am acting as mate, was lying in Barracas on New Year's Day, and, to pass away idle time, I took a gun belonging to the master, not being aware it was against the regulations of the place to use same.

I would only wish to know who keeps the gun, and if it is to be sold, to whom. Also, who it is who has got my boots, or the $20 m/c.

Remain, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, JOHN DIXON.

LATEST FROM THE BOG. Lopez Jordan has surrendered upon the Government of Entre Rios to Urquiza, who was again with the reins of Government in his hand.

From the Banda Oriental. The Villa del Salto is armed, and has brought down Laguna's regiment from Salto to Paysandu.

BONNA BEHN JEDINA RIVERA The Montevideo papers announce the death of this lady, the widow of the late General Don Francisco Rivera, the most popular "caudillo" of the Banda Oriental.

They received with respect and approval before many noble spectators and observation from one of no common judgment for her sex.

Like Madame De Sial, she died childless, at a very advanced age, and leaves behind her the sincere regrets of many who, during the course of her long life, received valuable proofs of her generosity and kindness. R.L.P.

STORMING OF PAYSANDU. SPECIAL INTELLIGENCE. Flores and his men have at last begun the attack. It has been going on now for the last two days, and a deal of blood split. All the houses in the outskirts of the town have been sacked.

Confession.—A rather amusing case has occurred in Barracas about a gun. We refer our readers to a letter which will be found rather amusing.

River Pilot Magazine.—We are happy to hear from Mr. Williams, the editor, that each day brings him new subscribers to his interesting periodical on Thursday evening treats its subscribers to various caricatures respecting our absent friends who are expected here next Thursday.

Telegraph.—We perceive that the Northern Railway is planning the poles for the telegraph line between San Fernando and Buenos Ayres.

Paqueta.—Dr. Costa, in Cordova, assured the Government that Freitas and Mitro was greatly displeased at the attitude in politics which Paqueta has taken.

Montevideo Mole.—We have received a copy of a pamphlet against the Montevideo Government from the scandalous state of the mole. We understand that it is full of holes, and the planks have a delightful spring in them, which if one is not very careful will pop you into the river instantaneously.

Paqueta.—This steamer is due to-day from the interior. We believe that Mister Costa is expected down in her.

New Steamer.—One of the new steamers of the Salteen line is shortly expected out from Montevideo.

Disheveled.—This is real in a fashionable world that ladies' dresses are to wear next season trimmed behind. An artist remarked that a mode of carrying their hair ought to be invented. "No," replied some one else, "the extreme bon ton consists in ladies sweeping along without seeming to remark the drosses to their dress—superciliosus." "It is ridiculous," adds a married man. "Quite an economy," replies a Municipal. "It is evident you are a bochele, and have not to pay for dresses." "It is also quite evident you are not a Municipal, who has to be understood to look after the streets being properly swept, and also to pay the cartage of dust, &c."

THE BOLSA. Jan. 8. Patinones opened today 28 5/8, and rose to 28 8/8, but afterwards fell to 28 7/8, 25,000 being sold. In the liquidation, most were at 28 0/8 at 4 p.m.
