EDITORIAL TABLE

The Mexico yesterday printed the Standard office of every paper published since the 1st of January.

The Buislay family seem to have outdone the opera. This speaks badly for the public taste.

We regret to hear that in the Banda Oriental the farmers are beginning to experience a drought in several parts.

Mr. Hector F. Varela has written a letter to the 'Puro-blood,' denying that he has hit his brother money to purchase the 'Mo-quito.'

On the whole, the occurrence is anything but creditable, although nominally in fulfillment of a standard order.

General Ferré has been commissioned to go to the Chaco with the object of treating with the Indians in a similar manner to that employed by the United States Government with its frontier tribes.

The personal influence and local information of General Ferré are sufficiently extensive to warrant the belief that he will be successful in his endeavours.

Having rested nearly four hours at Pirayú, I obtained fresh horses and left my compliments for the Gefe of the district.

President Ferré left a fortnight ago, per Pavao, and we suppose is, at this time, actively engaged in the scene of his labours.

be constructed that if necessary a locomotive can be used upon it.

Conspicuous for these undertakings will be received by the Government until two o'clock of the 15th February next.

The captain of the British ship Granada arrived at Valparaiso last month from the Falkland Islands.
