OUR STANDING ARMY

It is the fashion to suppose that only in the decayed monarchies of Europe a standing army is required...

The military profession has been signally degraded by making our frontier service a Clonca Maxima for the crime of our society...

It remains to be solved, how we can dispense with the citizen soldier, and provide an adequate standing army for the frontiers...

The heat that to-morrow the 2nd of the line will arrive from Martin Garcia, to be quartered in town, and that the most stringent measures will be taken to preserve peace...

On Thursday last one of the most lamentable cases of collision, between a sailing vessel and a steamer, ever known in the Plate, occurred in the river in front of Buenos Ayres...

Let us hope that the penal system will be entirely divorced from the army, for it is a patent absurdity to arm and constitute us guardians of public order...

With a well-organized army of 12 or 16 thousand men, the National Government may count on a sufficient element to maintain order both in the capital and in the provinces...

EDITOR'S TABLE

The regiment from Rosario, the first of the line, arrived in town yesterday morning. When they were drawn up on the Mole they appeared a very fine body of men...

The non-arrival of the 'Saintonge' left the city rather severe of news yesterday. The day was excessively hot, and with the exception of some strange stories about the Cruces, and a report that the Chil was taken prisoner by the Government soldiers...

An authentic account of the lamentable accident which occurred on the Northern Railway will be found in another column. We hope it will be a lesson to passengers not to be in too great a hurry to get out. As a general rule no person should attempt to board a carriage when the train is in motion...

The Salto arrived from the Uruguay yesterday, but brought very little news of importance. News is off again in some place near Treuenfels. It is said that his men are tired out, and leaving him daily. Old he has only 30 men, but boasts with these few defenders...

The steamer 'La Argentina' had been blown off a slow steady rate, with only slight alarm on which suddenly a little breeze called the Buenos Ayres, blowing herself of the strong wind which was blowing at the time, shot ahead of the steamer...

It is estimated that 1,300,000 Acres of the bog and waste unoccupied might be reclaimed, and made to pay. We must therefore, firstly take the available land of Ireland at 17,000,000 statute acres. The respective areas and populations will then stand thus—

It is evident from these figures that Ireland, for fiscal purposes, is badly worked, and, like one of her own negroes, is called to furnish another crop of taxes than she ought to furnish for her population...
