THE FRENCH MAILS.

The 'Saintonge' arrived yesterday morning, bringing dates from London and Paris up to 25th December, and from Lisbon the 30th.

ENGLAND.

Parliament has passed an act forbidding the entrance of American privateers into British ports.

The opening of parliament was to take place on the 11th inst.

Money market looking better. The Bank had lowered the rate of discount to 7 per cent.

The disturbances in India were causing much sensation throughout the Kingdom.

The British troops had sustained some reverses, and had lost officers in encounters with the inhabitants of Peshawar and Afghanistan.

The French Senate, in its answer to the Throne, showed some inclinations towards the Poles.

FRANCE.

In spite of the chilling answers from England and Austria, the Emperor still holds to his idea of a Congress.

In reply to a deputation from the Senate which waited upon him, Napoleon said that he saw with pleasure the unanimity which was reigning in the Chambers.

The Cortes have been engaged in fixing the number of troops and naval forces for the coming year.

In consequence of a disagreeable circumstance which took place between Count San Luis and the Marquis of Douro, the press has resolved no longer to assist at the session of the Cortes.

The fleet in the Peninsula will consist of 2 line of battle ships, 3 frigates, 2 corvettes, and four iron clad frigates.

UNITED STATES.

Dates from the States are up to the 14th Dec. To all appearance, the struggle will cut up that country in two as drawing to a close.

The President's message has been declined, in which he points out the Federal victories, the amicable relations between the States and foreign powers.

The Federal arms are still victorious. Bragg (S) and Longstreet (S) are on the retreat; Burnside is left free, and Tennessee completely open to the Federal troops.

The Federal army is still occupying attention. The King of Denmark, giving way to the pressure of three great powers, has ordered his troops to evacuate Altona.

GERMANY.

The Danish question is still occupying attention. The King of Denmark, giving way to the pressure of three great powers, has ordered his troops to evacuate Altona.

Germany was in great excitement—900 deputies had met at Frankfurt, and decided that it is the duty of the German Confederation to insist on the separation of Schleswig Holstein from the Danish duchies.

Letters from there confirm the defeat the rebels had received at Mgeilla, Jaina, and Bainti.

The Spanish troops had been received by the inhabitants of the different towns with great rejoicings.

From the Havana 2000 troops had been sent to Santo Domingo.

Cuba and Porto Rico had remained quiet.

The insurrection is fast losing ground, and it is supposed that it will be totally done up when, after the rainy season, the Spanish troops, assisted by the late reinforcements, exerted as far as Cibao. The blacks have sustained four other defeats.

JAPAN.

The Taicou remains still on good terms with the European representatives.

In the Assembly of the Dainios, held at Osaka, by order of the Mikado, it was agreed that it was not politic to declare war against foreigners.

This motion has lessened the prestige of the Mikado, and increased that of the Taicou: the latter has taken possession of the French ship 'Comus,' and who were in the fortress of Yokamio, awaiting trial.

By last accounts, a treaty had been entered into between the Taicou and the representatives of England and France, by which the two prisoners should be delivered up, on the truce of Kanagawa being signed.

PORTUGAL.

The emperor Napoleon has been elected honorary member of the Academy of sciences at Lisbon.

Salamanca has transferred his railway concessions in Portugal to a French company, and several lines are being actively laid down in various parts.

The Journal de Commercio has been sold for $50,000.

Large quantities of oranges have been exported to England.

A famine was anticipated at the Cape Verd islands, and large shipments of corn sent out by charitable subscription.

A slight earthquake was felt at Oporto and other towns. Dates from China to Oct. 11 report new troubles between Japan and the foreigners.

In Mozambique several African chiefs had submitted to the Portuguese authority.

Dr. Livingstone was about to return (Sept. 23) in the Pioneer, being unable to pass the cataracts of Iahambisengo.

PRUSSIA.

The following is extracted from a German newspaper published in New York:—

Berlin, 31st Oct., 1863.

The Minister of Affairs, Count of Bismarck, has received the following document—sentence of death pronounced against him by the revolutionary committee.

It bears the postmark of Barcelona, 17th October, 1863. On the left-hand corner it has drawn upon it a skull, and in the lower part a black stamp and some illegible motto.

It is written in French, and runs as follows:—

'To the Minister, Count Bismarck Schouhausen, Berlin.

'The below-mentioned committee of the revolutionary propaganda has cited you to appear before its tribunal.

By an unanimous vote it has sentenced you to death, and appointed the time of execution for the beginning of next month.

It will be useless for you to try to evade your fate, as the hand of vengeance is sure to overtake you, although you may be in most sacred place.

'As to the motives which have determined the committee to come to this decision, you will please excuse them stating them, as your own conscience must tell you what they are.

(Signed) 'Chief of the Committee, M.A.T. (Mort aux traitres), KROSINSKI MORILLE (Secretary.)'

THINGS HARD TO BELIEVE.

Sitting in our easy chair after the labours of the day, it is amusing to revolve the many things we are asked to 'swallow' from time to time, and a little reflection will convince us that the good folk of Buenos Ayres are the most 'gullible' in the world.

A young foreigner lately arrived passed his first night in the Polonia, and accounted for it by stating that his hotel being closed he begged the entry to admit him to such secure hospitality: his friends believed him—to oblige him.

Possibly many things which pass current in this town, are received on the same conditions. We will enumerate a few.

It is hard to believe that a republican form of Government suits this country, or harmonises with the spirit of the 19th century; or that South America gained much by Independence, or that the defeat of the English was fortunate for the progress of Buenos Ayres.

It is hard to believe that Christianity is the religion of the State, that parodies on the Crucifixion are calculated to impress moral sentiments on youth, that the Bishop is ignorant of the scandals vouching church-service, or that the advocates of M. Renan's book are Roman Catholics.

It is hard to believe that our police system needs no reform, that camp justices are immaculate, that soldiers and vigilantes preserve order oftener than they violate it, that life and property are perfectly secure, and that our judges are always above bribery.

It is hard to believe that the revenues, especially of this city, are properly applied, that all public employees live on their salaries, that the Municipality over-seriously intended to get up a water-supply, that the price of San Martin's statue could not have been more usefully spent, that bathing establishments are unnecessary, that the Lottery is a charitable institution, and that the wants of the city are either imaginary or irremediable.

It is hard to believe that our Provincial Government devotes all its attention to camp interests, that Dr. Acosta values much more the Irish sheep farms than the Chaco Indians, that active efforts were made to arrest the G. Monte murderer, that the assassin of Kirby and Devere is likely to suffer death, that Dr. Alsina's Rural code will be finished this year and prove very useful or that the state of the camp is improving.

It is hard to believe that the Argentine Government did not aid Flores to invade the B. Oriental, that our officers committed no barbarities in the war against Penalarza, that the interior is enjoying peace and prosperity, that President Mitre regards cotton-planting favorably, or that the Congress of '61 will be better than its predecessors.

It is hard to believe that B. Ayraon paper-currency will cure itself, that Franfort and London capitalists are vexed because we will not take a loan, that taxes are exceedingly light, that our finances are in flourishing condition and that the Casa de Moneda is purely a public bank in which the Directors never practise ledger-de-min.

It is hard to believe that the Tribuna embodies public opinion, that its editors and clique are actuated by patriotism, that "our absent friend" keeps behind the curtain out of humility, that the "foreigner" of the Nacional came from Europe, that the Pueblo has no more support from Government than the Standard, and that the Mosquito is brimful of wit.

It is hard to believe a native when he tells you his house is at your disposal, or Flores when he wishes Servando Gomez "may live many years," or Irish sheep-farmers as to the price got for their wool, or new comers from England of high family and education, or in a word half the statements written or verbal which people take in so readily.

Reader! if you 'swallow' most of the things of difficult digestion above-named you are capable of appreciating Gulliver and Baron Munchausen.

COTTON CROP IN PARAGUAY.

Asuncion, Jan 6th, 1864. The quantity of cotton planted, in 1863, throughout the republic is really enormous.

President Lopez, in his anxiety to promote a national industry, procured 300 sacks of seed from the U. States, some of which, however, has resulted badly: I believe mostly Georgian.

There was also a large stock of native seed, besides the remains of former plantations, which have been pruned. The cultivation of cotton being obligatory has become universal, and is carefully attended to.

Owing to the excessive heat of the season I was unable to make long excursions in the interior, but my ride of 60 miles on horseback was sufficient to give me some idea of the crop now springing up.

At every step I met small plantations in excellent condition, the inhabitants having sown a second time in the few places where the seed missed.

I place implicit reliance in the official report made up by Government from the returns of the several rural authorities. I must, moreover, be borne in mind that the report ends with Sept. after which date very large plantations have been laid down, especially in October and November, bringing up the real number of plants to almost double that set forth in said official report.

The quarter ending June 30th shows 773,480 'lineos,' that ending Sept. 30th, 736,391; giving an aggregate of over a million and a half of plants.

The 'lineo' is usually 85 'varas,' and the plants distant one 'vara' (34 inches) one from another. Allowing the new plantations for any losses, we have still Two hundred millions of cotton hills, the product of which at a low calculation, (1 lb per plant) compared with the results proved at Corrientes, will give Eight millions arrobes seed cotton or Two millions arrobes ginned.

I have seen the original letter of Messrs Emmott of Manchester to Messrs Blyth and Co. London offering 24d. (1 real silver) per lb. for Paraguay cotton such as the last remitted. This would give the above quantity a value of Twenty four million patacones, or Fifteen hundred thousand doubloons.

This magnificent sum will dazzle the sceptical, and give room for suspicion of gross error or exaggeration, but there can be no question that, saving some terrible and unforeseen calamity, the Cotton crop of Paraguay for 1864 will be stupendous, and cause a revolution in the commerce of these rivers.

The difficulties of carriage and labor are not formidable, although existing in some degree. The roads of the interior traverse a very unequal country but are generally dry and sandy, free from those marshes which impede traffic in the camps of B. Ayres.

Above all, the distances are comparatively short, the centre of the agricultural districts (Villa Rica) being 35 leagues from the capital and chief port. It is rather fortunate than otherwise that Government takes an active interest in Cotton, for it can always dispose of 20,000 troops in case of a want of hands.

At an outlay of 400 doubloons, President Lopez might furnish each of the 87 departments with a Macartney gin, and, by saving three-fourths of the land carriage, an immense benefit would be thus derived.

It is to be hoped the duties will be light, on its exportation, for the dream of Francia's time, to manufacture cotton at home, is now demonstrated a puerile absurdity: I impressed on the Government the error of importing N. American seed, which is annual, instead of the Egyptian or other perennial classes, which require much less labor and are better suited to the climate.

It will perhaps hardly be necessary to introduce foreign seed after this year's crop.

Although small portions may be sent to France or Belgium, the great bulk will of course prefer England, and Liverpool traders may expect to find, in B. Ayres, 2,000 tons of a new species of cargo this year.

I rejoice that I have come to Paraguay, and seen the first indications of this great industry, of which, without exposing myself to the charge of egotism, I may truly say the Standard was the precursor.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Melo: all town goes this morning to inaugurate the new church. We hope to be there ourselves, although we don't much relish travelling in the same train with Governor Saavedra, Dominguez, Acosta, Varelas, &c.

Such a trainful of 'crudos' might most easily meet with an accident, as the guards and engine drivers are out and out 'coidos.'

The train on the Northern Railway was brought to a stand still the other day on account of the engine driver perceiving something on the line. He whistled and whistled to see if the thing would move, but not a stir; he therefore stopped the train, when suddenly the bulk, which was nothing more nor less than a man, arose, put on his hat, jumped over the fence, and was lost in the Palermo woods.

It is thought that the man was mad or wished to commit suicide.

The committee of the Club Progreso has at last determined to give a ball during the Carnival, but only ladies will be allowed to be masked: this is a very discreet regulation, as it will help to avoid disturbances. It is rumoured that in Colon there will be no masked balls, as the Chief intends to prohibit them.

Poor Belgrano, sweet Belgrano, like everything sublunary it had its day. The auctioneer has been sent for: like the doctor, his aid is only called in when signs of dissolution are at hand.

Ristorini holds sway in Belgrano to day: Mr. Champion's splendid tent is to be knocked down to the highest bidder. Alas! for Belgrano, how many cocktails and snashes have been imbibed around M. Champion's festive board; how many lovely girls fatigued with the dusty music on the promenade, have loitered under that hospitable canvas, which this day is torn by the rude hand of some rustic speculator—sic transit, &c.

Again we hear of a revolution in Cuyba. Passengers who arrived per Pavon assert it for a fact, and several departments are said to be in arms against the Government of the province.

It appears the new Governor Ferreira has been acting very arbitrarily, and the people assert that he has outstepped the bounds of the constitution. Ferreira is said to be a regular tyrant.

The Corrientes Quilt which our gossypium brother brought from the cotton fields of that province has been placed by us on the Bolsa on exhibition, previous to being forwarded to Manchester. The raw material from which this Quilt is manufactured is in our office, but as it is very scarce and we wish to send it to England, we regret we cannot at present send samples of this wild cotton to the Bolsa.

This unfortunate peon who leaped from the ballast train has since expired in consequence of the injuries he received. In the evidence given before the Commissary of Police touching this lamentable accident, it transpired that on a previous occasion the same man had been restrained from jumping from the trucks whilst in motion.

STEAM TO SALTO.

To the Editors of the 'Standard' Gentlemen, Can you inform me why the agents of the steamer 'Salto,' for Salto, cannot receive parcels for that place, having sent one to be conveyed there, and which was refused?

A MERCHANT.

REVOLUTION IN CORDOVA.

Thirty persons murdered. The 'Ferro-carril' brings news from Cordoba, 25th inst. The departments of Poncho, San Xavier and S. Alberto are in rebellion under the leadership of Col. Chagaray, a 'caudillo' of the Sierra. Col. Pizarro was about to march thither, but has been countermanded, his battalion being more required in the capital.

Meantime the revolt spreads through the province: at Rio Cuarto, D. Ramon Pizarro, a friend of the Governor has been thrown into irons. Several rustic authorities have been dismissed, but it is thought they will not recognise the decree. It is said Dr. Luques, is about to take charge of the Ministry. The Impartial denies the revolt at Pocho.

Governor Ferreira writing to Gen. Gelly-obes, Jan. 22nd, states that the province suffers not so much under Indians as from wandering gangs of brigands who take refuge in Santa Fe when pursued: they made two invasions, murdering over thirty persons, including some women and children. A regiment of the National Guard has been mobilised for service in the capital, and 150 picquets of 25 men each sent to guard the frontier at Oberias and Mangrullo.

D. Eusebio Ferreira writes to the Governor, stating that his house was attacked, Jan. 31, at eight a.m., by a gang of brigands under Lieutenant Molina. The Judge of Instancia (Lujan), and Captain P. Acosta. These fellows had been robbing, and the writer heard they were coming to kill him, when mounting a fleet horse, with his little son, he escaped, after being pursued eight leagues. He ad a that if the Government take no steps to protect life and property, the people will resort to positive measures.

A general revolt, organised in the capital, was expected to break out on the 28th inst. The Government threw itself entirely into the arms of the Baso party.

THE SCOTCH CHURCH.

To the Editors of the 'Standard' Gentlemen, Being a constant subscriber to your very interesting paper, the 'Standard,' in general, with some exceptions, I see it daily in my chamber. Fortunately, I received it on Tuesday last, 26th inst. On glancing over its contents, I was attracted to the following in capital letters—'Scotch Church and Forms. Hello! what's this? I read the piece carefully over until the end, when this logical gentleman coolly draws his conclusions from an hypothesis which, if not puerile, is very impolite and unfriendly towards the founders and constituents of this very respectable church and forms. He says, winding the subject up, 'therefore, the present movement, by the Scotch residents in Buenos Ayres, to kneel during praise, is only to return to the forms originally practised by their forefathers.'

The above words would try to infer that this is the movement of the whole community. It may be, as I am informed, an innovation moved by a part of the 'church committee,' not the voice nor the desire of the community as a body—at least no innovation of that body of the old and praiseworthy men—the founders of this church in Buenos Ayres. Many of those kind and industrious men have left us, and bidden farewell to their fellow-labourers and joined their fathers. But before their departure they, in union with those yet living here among us, who, with me, can attest to the truth of my assertions; they felt much satisfaction in beholding the works of their hands prosper, a church established on bases and forms the same as the kirk of their native clime, the Established Church of Scotland.

They found no fault with her forms, they had seen the whole machinery work well, they saw, as I now see, that the composition was good, well done, biding fair, with her forms unchanged, unaltered, to go forward in the great work she has undertaken, bearing her head exalted without vanity, the pride and glory of their native land!

This church takes under her constituency a school, in which the youth is taught every requisition necessary to enable him to fill the various vocations to which he may be called, in his travels through life. A Sunday School, carried on successfully, under the direction of our worthy and indefatigable minister, the Rev. J. Smith. Several young ladies and gentlemen, families of the old gentlemen founders of this church, assist in this laudable vocation. A committee, formed for the improvement of vocal singing, mostly composed of the off-spring of the old stock; one of my daughters assists. So any one can see that this compact goes on working extremely well.

Mr. S. P. may say here, this is all very good, but what has this to do with the innovation in question. The compact of this church is such, composed of parts or forms connected all one, in, or with another, each filling that place or form consigned to it, according to the plan and order of her great founder, and diametrically in opposition to her former persecutors. To alter one link of this concatenated body, might disarrange the whole fabric, and be productive of consequences unfriendly to the feelings of the major part of this community...

I am informed that this gentleman has not been long amongst us, hence likely ignorant of the whole history of this church. Does he know of the battles, toils, difficulties, through which we have gone, before we effected the great object...

Offices—87 calle SAN MARTIN.

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.

This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the humblest classes.

Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the inversion of funds, according to the rules of the association.

The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:

- 1st. On one's own life, in shares of $5 silver each. These subscriptions liquidated at any time, at the subscriber's option.
- 2nd. Without loss of capital by the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest forfeited by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned.
- 3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class.

All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.

For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the hours of 11—4; prospectus given on application.

SAVINGS BANK.
BANK MAUD & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangalla. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantage of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the great emporiums of the Rio or Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maud & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maud & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Maud & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

- 1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
- 2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6%) per annum which is liquidated every six months.
- 3rd. The depositor can at any time retiró the whole or part of the money deposited.
- 4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
- 5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
