FRENCH PACKET REVIEW.

This mail leaves us in a very undeciduous situation, although without immediate cause for alarm. Affairs both at home and abroad look equally in the provinces the spirit of revolution has not died out with the Chacho, but rather become more exasperated.

The British Minister's friendly offices between Buenos Ayres and Montevideo have proved fruitless, and the 'entente cordiale' completely broken, even to the suspension of diplomatic relations.

The Argentine Cabinet, being in a position, if necessary, to back the same with an armed demonstration, consisting of a dozen steamers and 50,000 well-disciplined troops.

We cannot have greater evidence of the rapid progress which Buenos Ayres might make, if order were properly guaranteed, than the material advancements which it is our fortune to chronicle.

Our commercial review to day is meagre, as some of the vessels came to anchor only yesterday to the Carnival.

It is rumored three men were stabbed, during Carnival, at the Retiro, and another killed at Paso Julio, but this wants confirmation.

Rain has fallen plentifully in some parts of the camp at San Vicente, on Monday evening, and in the North since then.

The prolongation of the Western Railway, by Government, continues slowly, in direction of Villa Mercedes.

Our paper money depreciates daily, and tends to check business. Our police, both in camp and town, is becoming a public danger rather than a protection.

A terrible drought desolates our campagna, which is now as devoid of pasture as the desert of Sahara.

Immigration flows in steadily, but infinitely smaller than the wants of the country demand.

The Sainfoque leaves to day for Montevideo and Rio Janeiro, with the mails for Bordeaux, etc. four p.m.

The Bogota, s.s., was to leave Liverpool for Chile, via Montevideo, on the 29th January.

We have received circulars from New York, per Endora, stating there was great demand for hides and wool.

On the day after to-morrow the great battle of the Crucos and Corridos is to come off, for the election of six Deputies to Congress.

In yesterday's paper we published the declaration of Carlos Durango who was lured like a mad dog and fired at by a gang of policemen.

The 'National' states the Chief of Police winked at the affair, through the interest of the alcalde's friends.

The outrages at the Boca and Barracas, by policemen, should be punished. Also the alcalde, who was found in a man's house with a drawn sword.

We are happy to learn that the Parana cotton fields are thriving; some of the plants are three to four feet high, and the most of them in flower.

Great discontent is felt in Asuncion, touching a new customs regulation, which requires the Paraguay steamers to take out a manifest, en passant, at Corrientes.

The 'Sancionario' states that the relations with Buenos Ayres are not very satisfactory.

The Bolivian envoy, Dr. Acec, is unable to conclude his mission satisfactorily, about the Pilcomayo navigation.

The chief of Police, who never loses an opportunity of insulting foreigners, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel.

The new law of Patents has been a stumbling block to merchants and is generally condemned as vexatious.

Those who may be found guilty of falsifying, in any election, the list of voters, or voters names, or otherwise tampering with the election returns, will be liable to imprisonment for six months or three years.

Those who may steal or carry away any public documents with intent of imprisonment, with hard labour, of one to three years, or be fined 1000 lard dollars.

On 3rd inst. an emeute took place in Cordoba, but was fortunately put a stop to. It appears that the soldiers of the garrison were the prime movers.

It is generally supposed that this movement is intended to leave the Muscovite fleet free in case of a war between France and Russia.

It is now more to be feared on the Government side is want of union amongst the military chiefs.

After, for so long, leaving the entrance to the Oriental Republic open to the filibusters who flooded from this side to join Flores, the Montevideo Government have determined upon proving the utility of locking the stable door after the steed is stolen.

What is now most to be feared on the Government side is want of union amongst the military chiefs.

After, for so long, leaving the entrance to the Oriental Republic open to the filibusters who flooded from this side to join Flores, the Montevideo Government have determined upon proving the utility of locking the stable door after the steed is stolen.

President Lopez received a letter from Mr. M. G. Mulhall, dated on board the steamer Rembrandt, which was read for the Association, and a vote of thanks was passed to you for your generosity.

As you are aware, our first plantation comprised 10,000 hills. The drought which ensued, coupled with a severe frost, caused us to lose the greater part, reducing our plantation to about 5,000 hills.

We are sorry to see our example has not been followed at the colony (Villa Urquiza), for there are only two colonists who have sown two or three thousand hills each.

Such a case may disturb in the minds of the Colonists, the Courts of the Supreme Court, the Courts of the Judges of the Section, or in any meeting for the election of Government magistrates.

Those who may be found guilty of falsifying, in any election, the list of voters, or voters names, or otherwise tampering with the election returns, will be liable to imprisonment for six months or three years, or to a fine of from 100 to 500 lard dollars.

LOCAL EVENTS. Defeat.—The Colorado troops have completely routed Colonel Olin in the neighbourhood of Rocha, thus riding Herrero of one more enemy.

Accident.—While playing carnival a young child, Comandante Oribe, fell from the roof of a house and broke one of his legs.

Montevideo.—By a sailing vessel we learn that Flores was at Sta. Anita, twenty leagues from Montevideo.

St. Petersburg.—Sunday will be the feast of this saint, and a great one is associated with 'billets-doux', cupid's darts, and other amatory devices.

General Hornos.—Here is no longer any doubt that this gentleman has come to the same conclusion as myself, that it matters not a paper dollar which candidate wins.

Immigrants.—On Monday half the whole boats in the river were busy bringing ashore some hundreds of Italian immigrants.

Dangerous Span.—During the playing of Carnival on Sunday last, one indignant stranger, who was stopping in one of our fashionable hotels, hung a bottle of ale out of his window over the street.

Passengers for Montevideo.—In consequence of the great number of loose and suspicious characters who have of late been flocking to the Oriental Republic, that from this time forward, all persons who may land at Montevideo must present themselves at once at the police court.

English Packet.—The Mercury did not arrive yesterday, but will probably be here on Monday.

Colonel Crawley.—We have seen a copy of the 'Times' of Dec 24th, in which the sentence of the court martial, pronounced by the Queen.

The Money—This steamer, by her last trip to Montevideo, got out of port when only ten leagues short of that port, and had to land her passengers on a part of the B. Ayres coast.

Stays of Montevideo—The "Pueblo" of last night states that a sailing vessel has come in with news that Flores is besieging Montevideo.

IMPORTS.
Salt—The decline noted in review for January 10th has continued still further, and prices may be said to be nominal, at 7 rs. per fanega, and every sign of a greater fall. Our saladeros are not doing much, and all well stocked. There is, therefore, no hope of a reaction, more especially as heavy arrivals are expected from Cadix.

Coal—No improvement; nothing done since the beginning of the month.

Wine—Repeated arrivals have caused a fall, and our market is now nominal, at 823 silver; Marselles tiles also going down; the stock is enormous, and we cannot look for a separable change, for some time to come.

Lumber—Still very dull.

Wine—Two cargoes, Spanish, reached prices below last quotation; French, on the contrary, is sensibly improving.

Sugar—Just the same; no change up or down.

Liquors—Not much in demand; prices unchanged.

Flour—Going up.

Yerba (Mate)—Has slightly fallen; in Paragayo no alteration.

Remarks.
The following shipments have been made for Europe and the States:—
For Havre—3 bales cowhides, 541 cowhides, 189 pipes tallow, 9 bales feathers, 74 bales horsehair, 1 case feathers, 2 bales slung calfskins, 1 case feathers, 500 dry cowhides, and 2 bales do.

Commercial Review.
The sales of Saladero ox and cow hides during the last fifteen days are—29,403 ox hides at 30 1/2 to 37 1/2 rs. Last price 37 rs, 60 lbs guaranteed. Sales since 1st Nov. 1863, 164,300 hides slaughtered, 166,600.

Portugals slaughter—35,500
Hides unsold 4,000
Hides to make 2,000

Saladero Tallow the sales are—645 pipes, almost all in halves at 13 1/2 rs.

In American Hides the sales are—4000 hides at 30 1/2 rs, 11 cases cowhides, 838 mat. cow, 45 mat. ox. Stock of classified, 8000 hides.

In Spanish, French, and Mediterranean hides the sales are—15,000 hides, at 43 1/2 to 51 rs for kips 20 rs for wide 58 30 for Cordova 11 for Paraguay.

Wool.
Fine qualities in good condition are much sought after and going up. Arrivals from the camp slow, not more than 10,000 arrobes in the fortnight; large lots have been put in deposit. The drought has prevented much wool from coming in from the camp. From the upper provinces, no sales of importance, but the prices are going up. Of B. Ayres, about 80,000 arrobas have been sold: fine wool, 100 to 110; good mesita, 88 to 95; middling, 60 to 85.

Vessels sailed since January 26th.
For Antwerp—Fortuna and Wubbo Williams, with hides and wool.
Genoa—Witch of the Wave and Clelia.
Havre, Corneille and Pablo, with hides.
New York, M. A. Herrera, hides and wool.

FREIGHTS.
Rates have again fallen, and although this is the busy season, vessels can hardly find cargo at current rates. This is more particularly true of France, very little being done for that destination, although we have several large vessels on the berth. Rates at present are nominal.

CHARTERS.
New York, Dutch language Dorothea Henriette, current rates.

Antwerp, Dutch brig Amicizia to sail on Wednesday, sailed hides and tallow, 45s and 5 ps; bones 10s and 5 ps.
Havre, French bark Mers de Famille, tallow, 60 frs, salted hides 121, bales 60 frs. Belgian brig Guria laid in the Uruguay, salted hides 92s and 3 ps.
