SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1864.

BRITISH MAIL NEWS... The 'Mersey' which arrived yesterday morning, brings us dates from London and Paris up to the 9th of January, and from Lisbon to the 14th January.

War between Denmark and Germany was considered almost inevitable. The Danish troops had evacuated Holstein. In each city of that territory, as the Danish troops left, Duke Frederick of Augustenburg was proclaimed, and the civic authorities gave orders to pull down all the Danish insignia.

On the 28th December the Pretender Frederick landed at Kiel, and was received most enthusiastically. Austria requested the Diet to order Duke Frederick to withdraw from the Holstein territory until the question was settled, but the Diet, by a majority of 9 to 7 votes, refused to give this order.

Austria and Prussia protested against the vote, and the Diet had to re-consider their resolution. The final verdict is not yet known.

The King of Denmark, according to the advice of England, has dismissed the Minister, Hall, and formed a new Cabinet.

King Christian IX. was in Schleswig, reviewing his troops, and putting them on a war footing. The two armies are in front of each other, and the slightest accident may provoke a battle, and plunge Europe into a general war.

Sweden appears to remain firm to Denmark, so long as there is no war, England is using her best endeavours to reconcile the two parties—at one time preaching moderation to Copenhagen, at another threatening in Frankfurt. She advises a meeting in London of the signers of the Treaty, and also of the Germanic Confederation. Both Denmark and Austria are agreeable to this proposition.

The French Government takes advantage of this state of affairs to again recommend a general European Congress. In consequence of so much opposition to his Congress, the French Emperor had given up the idea.

In Italy things look very warlike, and in Venetia great excitement was existing. Victor Emmanuel, in his New Year's Day address, spoke of them very strongly. He expressed his sorrow that during 1863 no favourable opportunity had presented itself for completing Italian independence, but that he hoped the approaching European movement would effect something definite.

Garibaldi and nine of the deputies had resigned in a letter addressed to the Senate. Garibaldi says—"The people will always find me on the road from Venice to Rome."

On the 29th December there had been a conflict in Altano (the Papal territory) between the French and Papal troops—three of the latter were killed. The origin of the fight was a drunken squabble; still, serious consequences may be expected.

The French Emperor in his New Year speech declared nothing—but it was, on the whole, considered to be rather pacific than otherwise. On the 4th January some people were arrested, accused of conspiring against the life of the Emperor; of these four are Italians, who are supposed to be the prime movers of the conspiracy. Some Orsini bombs were found on them. No particulars are known of the case, but it is approved of a loan of 300,000,000 francs being effected. In receiving the foreign ministers, on the 1st January, the Emperor was particularly gracious to the American Minister, German and Spanish ministers the British minister he only favoured with a passing word.

In England, the dissolution of Parliament was the topic of conversation. In London this step was not considered probable. The Ministry, however, will, with difficulty, hold their seats, as there is existing a difference between Palmerston and the Spaniards on the United States. So report goes.

Lord Russell had been elected Lord Rector of Aberdeen College.

Parliament was to meet on the 4th of February. The English list of novelties and moralists has sustained a severe loss in the death of that great and good man, Thackeray.

Fighting is still going on in India. The British have lost, in November, 308 killed, and 491 wounded. Dona Theresa de Bourbon, wife of the Infante, Don Francisco de Paula, had died at Madrid.

By last accounts from the West Indies, the Santo Domingo rebellion was almost at its end. The principal chiefs had surrendered. Spain has more than 2,000 men in Hayti.

In France, the Government is busy re-organising the army. General Haubert has been appointed Inspector-General, and the officers who were dismissed, on account of revolutionary sympathies, are to be readmitted into the army. The British have commenced to re-occupy the fortifications of Corfu.

The conspiracy which in Poland is still continuing besides the military executions and banishments, forcible contributions are exacted. Six millions of roubles have been demanded of the soldiers who are to retire to Poland.

By way of London, we have news up to the 31st December last. Nothing decisive had taken place. Burside the day was near, by the land district, which was occupying Dalton with 35,000 men.

The siege of Charleston was being still carried on with vigour. The affairs of the country were not so favourable as the British would like people to suppose. Comfort with 180 cavalry had been surprised and killed. Vera Cruz and other places were still under the control of the British troops.

The British brigade Adina, with a cargo of coal, had been lost on the reefs of Maria Tereza. When she was lost the world was full of the British brigades. Some few days previous the British schooner Flax had struck on the same spot, but after being lightened she proceeded on her voyage.

The American Consul of Thomas J. Wilson has addressed a note to the Government of the province of Bahia requesting an explanation of the affairs which have taken place in Bahia. The Government has demanded information from the Inspector of Customs.

UNJUST IMPRISONMENT. At a time when murderers escape by the dozen from our city prison, it would be well to take a peep into the cells of those unfortunate victims of Buenos Ayres law (1) who are treated as condemned felons, for defending themselves from the knife and pistol of the highwayman.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Mersey came into port yesterday with the Southampton mails, Jan. 24th, confirming the news we published in our 'Morbic,' except as to the said impending war between France and Russia. Our supplements for this month have arrived, but those of December are still missing.

To-day is Valentine's day; we merely mention the fact because most people do not remember it. Memorials of home, sweet home, are associated with it, and not a few of our philandering, dissipated, and spheroid-minded countrymen will confess that they were once susceptible to tender impressions and visions of domestic felicity.

The news from the provinces is unimportant, only giving details of the fiasco at Cordoba. That from Montevideo is rather stirring and forecasts either a speedy arrangement or the probable fall of President Berro.

We hear of a shocking case of beating of soldiers with the rattan, at Rio de Janeiro, for delay in obeying superior orders. Although we have little sympathy with a class which causes much annoyance to the public, we may remark that European discipline does not justify such summary punishment.

An Irishman has disappeared, in the Partido de Fortis de Arce, under suspicious circumstances. His body was found in a well, and interred by the natives, without a coffin, no notice being given to the countrymen and neighbors of the deceased. His name was Timothy Egan.

One of the Irish clergyman recently arrived is to be stationed at Merlo. The gentleman proceeding to Cordoba are not notices, not in order, but come out with the intention of entering the Dominican convent in that city; we believe they are mostly from Westmeath.

It is satisfactory to find that most of our readers applaud very much Dr. Fitzsimon's philosophical and gentlemanly reply to Mr. Murray's crude communications on the age of Man and of the world. The latter by his late citation will probably draw down a yet more crushing rejoinder.

The mail passengers inform us that the story of the Naxon, as related at Capatzen, is a true report, but a mail steamer and the man killed no less an official than H. B. Majesty's mail agent. This makes the matter much more serious, if true.

We have no news of Mr. Wheelwright, but as he was to despatch in December two vessels with rails for the Cordoba railway works it is probable he has written Mr. Gowland or other friend here. His last account were conclusive: the road was a fait accompli, and all difficulties overcome, although it was not yet formally opened.

The number of registered voters in Buenos Ayres 6 per cents are quoted Jan. 4th, at 93 to 95; deferred do, 36 to 38.

The River Plate Mail, No. 3, has arrived, and subscribers will call for their papers, or enrol themselves, at this office. As usual it quotes largely from our columns. Owing to its interest in these countries, it is to appear, in future, twice a month, 7th and 21st.

THE ELECTIONS. Our readers will be careful not to go out on horseback, or indeed at all, if possible, to-day, as the elections will probably be taking place with disorder, and mortal law is in force, so far as prohibiting six persons being seen together in the streets.

The result of the elections in the city is anticipated as a decided victory for the Union. The list of the 'Nacion Argentina' is thought imaginatively: we have seen a list giving different returns. The number of registered voters in the city is, 3187; the Union has a majority in some parishes, a minority in others, but they count 1830 votes, so that even polling every man in town they have a majority of 27. The absent voters will be mostly Cordoba, displaced people who don't like personal disfigurement.

We understand precautionary measures have been taken to preserve order. One hundred men will be posted at the Prison, fifty at the Parque, and twenty-five at the Capitanía, besides the rest of the garrison. A 5000 underarms at the Ratrio. The old hero of Independence, General Nazari, has charge of the Merced, Colonel, and San Miguel; Colonel Sosa, Monserrat, Pizarro, and Balvanera; Colonel Diaz, Concepcion, San Telmo and Barracas; Colonel Gomez, San Nicolas, Socorro and Pilar. It remains to be seen whether these theatrical plans can be carried into effect, or whether the ruffians will pelt the Prime Minister with respect the General's grey hairs.

The Club Libertad was to hold a grand meeting last night, and it was expected the dawn would find them ready to issue from their rendezvous for the several polling-booths. There will be a marked hall to light, where victors and vanquished will meet, but we advise our friends to avoid the rencontre.

NEWS FROM THE PROVINCES.

THE CORDOBA REVOLUTION. The long expected revolution in this province broke out at half-past 1, a.m., on 31st January. The first signs were the firing heard in the plaza, but as this had been looked for, for some time past, no one was taken aback; the guards were immediately at their posts, and the people patiently awaited the final result. At first, the revolutionary party gained ground, and 20 men attacked the head-quarters. From the ease with which they took the barracks, it is supposed that the troops had been bought over. In the upper rooms of the court, the Governor and the Commander, General Pizarro, took their stand, at the head of 6 men, and manfully defended the stairs leading to the second story. At the same time that the head-quarters were attacked, the revolutionists also tried to get possession of the Police, but in this last attempt they were not so fortunate.

For more than an hour the revolutionists remained there, placing reserves at the corners; and so little molested were they, they even indulged in 'masé.'

In the meantime the youth, Don Rosaldo Pizarro, on hearing the firing, had got together a small company of men, and ordering them to charge bayonets, caused the rioters to retreat, and he took possession of the court. Young Pizarro announced his victory, by shouting 'vivas' for the Government, for the patio and the corridors. The revolution had received its death blow, but not without bloodshed. Lieutenant Benito Echenique was severely wounded in the stomach, and died the same evening. Another officer, Arguello was slightly wounded in the chest by a ball: the total number of Government troops killed was 4. Cordoba is now returning to its normal state of quietness, and all revolutionary clouds have passed away. There is now no further danger, as Moreno has only some 50 or 60 men, the rest who had joined him having deserted.

Santa Rosa and the Rio Cuarto are still in the full enjoyment of peace, and the Commandante and Judge have returned there.

The parties who assaulted the head-quarters and Police, raised the cry of 'Viva Pascauro.'

The Government have been propositioned by the Union party, but its cause is gaining over every day proselytes from them.

Schorrburg, one of the most celebrated names of the Union party, has been appointed Chief of Police, but as he had refused the post for private reasons, Señor Rodriguez was named in his stead. Another chief of war party, Col. O'Meara, had been called to service. Colonel Urquiza, one of the chiefs of the Federals, was appointed Commandante-General of the Northern Department, and had accepted the post. A great many prisoners have been made since the revolution, and arrests are still taking place. Still, all receiving fair trials, and no acts of violence have been committed by the victorious party. The heads of the revolution have been two Señores Cires, Major Diaz, and a man called 'Clavo Sotero.'

The Club Libertad has succeeded in carrying its candidate, Dr. Vega, in spite of all the opposition of the Governor. In only one province has Duxos, the Government man, been victorious. Buenos is said to intend trying to annul these elections, but the Club Libertad and the people are determined to hold out against the attempt. Colonel Arredondo, who in past times has done so much for Uruju, displayed remarkably unprejudiced behaviour as a liberality towards freedom of election.

The only news we have from Paraná is the re-election of Carrigo in spite of the efforts to the contrary of the Club Libertad.

The encumbrance of the previous elections has proven the cure to be worse than the disease, as Carrigo has now relinquished proofs of his popularity in Paraná.

The Federal Judge had arrived in Guatamarca on the 27th ult.

Rain has been prevalent in the province, and a very excellent year is expected in Guatamarca. Election excitement is still going on—the Government had withdrawn the candidate of ex-Governor Carrigo, and named in his stead Don Marcelino Augier. The Government had accepted the politics of the Club Libertad of Buenos Ayres, and become Uruju.

St. Ordo had arrived in Santa Fe on the 6th inst., and on the following day was to be placed in charge of the Government, which St. Ordo had been obliged to resign on account of ill-health. Santa Fe otherwise was in its usual sleepy, drowsy state, and undergoing the carnival.

AN AFFAIR OF THE VANDERBILT.

A great sensation has been caused in Montevideo and here by exaggerated rumors respecting what was termed 'an outrage on the British flag' by the American cruiser Vanderbilt. We have learned the full particulars from an unquestionable source.

It will be remembered that the American vessel 'Conrad' left this port, last year, for N. York with a cargo of hides and wool, and was captured in the South Atlantic by the Alabama. Her crew being taken out, she was arrested and named as a rebel privateer, under the name of the Tuscolosa. It would appear the Confederate vessels made for the African coast in order to dispose of the booty, for the Vanderbilt soon learned that they were in some port near the Cape of Good Hope, and accordingly set off in pursuit of them. The Southrons, however, were too quick for her, the Vanderbilt arriving in time to hear that Cap. Semmes was gone; and that the s.s. Saxton was loading the captured cargo of the grandeur Conrad. The Vanderbilt very naturally proceeded to make a prize of the English steamer, which is not a mail boat as reported. Sending an armed force on board, the American officer ordered all the crew below, but one of the engineers refused to comply, whereupon he was instantly shot down. No further resistance being made, the vessel was carried off to N. York, where it will be subjected to a prize tribunal. In view of these circumstances there is really no cause to fear any unpleasantness between the Cabinets of London & Washington.

The Confederate commander Semmes is said to have tricked an English vessel at the Cape of Good Hope by passing down as it a fugued boat for $11,000.

We hear of another affair in British America which alarmists construe into a Grande Lutte. An American merchant steamer sailed from Boston for Rhode Island, with 16 passengers, who mutinied, seized the vessel and put off to sea. Some Federal war steamers crossed in a capturing vessel on the British American coast, and carried her into Halifax, to be adjudicated on by a British tribunal. This seems very fair, but is otherwise interpreted.

INDIANS. We see the following mentioned in the Chile papers:—

'On a journey of twenty-six days, the Cacique Manuel Traipan, of the friendly tribe stationed on the banks of Rio Malague, has arrived in Santiago, he comes accompanied by two interpreters and six young men servants, and his object is to enlist the President in his favour, to have him send his descendants maintained in the territory of nearly sixty leagues in extent, from which he has been driven by some Mendocinos. These Indians and those on the other side of the Cordillera have either acknowledged the rule of Chile, or, as they say, have placed themselves under the jurisdiction of our country. Notwithstanding this they have been in the pay of the Argentine Government. On Traipan, for example, was bestowed the authority of Mondoza in 1855, and orders were given to recognise him as the Cacique of that district. The Indians who belong to the district in which is the Fort of San Carlos, on the other side of the Andes.

The Indians have been lodged in the Cuartel de la Policia.

Don't let any of our foreign readers suppose from the last sentence that the red men have been arrested and punished by being locked up in the police. The Chile Government has no Palermo in which to entertain their savage friends, they provide the next most comfortable building which is at their disposal.

ARMY AND NAVY HONOR. GENERAL MADEA has demanded that a court of inquiry shall be held in reference to his late movement; and it is said that the result of this inquiry will decide the question as to his removal. Deserters from the rebel lines state that a large number of soldiers in the Southern armies will take advantage of the amnesty offered in the President's Proclamation, as soon as they can become acquainted with its propositions. The Richmond Sentinel, speaking of this amnesty, regards it as intended to make capital in Europe.

Enraptured as at present being freely given both to the volunteer and men of the Army of the Potomac.

The British schooner María Alberta was captured, on the 24th of Nov. by the American cruiser Vanderbilt. We have learned the full particulars from an unquestionable source.

command, or more than thanks—my profoundest gratitude—for the skill, courage, and perseverance with which you and they, over great difficulties, have effected that important object. God bless you all. A. LINCOLN.

John Morgan, the guerrilla, when last seen was in a buggy with a female named Dixie, and closely pursued by Federal detectives.

THE AMERICAN ARMIES.

Another period of inaction appears to be upon us. The battle of Chattanooga secured Grant's position at that point, enabled him to obtain supplies freely and abundantly, and to accumulate them there for a fresh advance into Georgia. But some time necessarily elapses before that advance can be commenced. Soldiers say that it will take sixty days to make Chattanooga a proper base for an offensive movement against Home and Atlanta.

During all this time, therefore, it will be safe to look for dulness in the army of the Cumberland—guerrillas, skirmishes, the destruction of supply-trains, captures of bushwhackers, &c., are likely to be the most prominent events in the history of the army during the months of December and January.

There can be no doubt that the Virginia army is not so prominent events in the history of the army during the months of December and January.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAU& CO.
 No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the 100 great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in this city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mau & Co. WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one after dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6%) per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars after the depositor if he wishes can open an account (current) according to the rates established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

This is decidedly one of the best Spanish Almanacs published in Buenos Ayres, and has selections from the most distinguished literary characters in the River Plate. It contains also a deal of Commercial and Administrative Intelligence, which will be found of the very greatest importance.

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.
 This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the humblest classes.
 Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions and the invention of plans, according to the rules of the association.
 The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:
 1st. On one's own life, in shares of $2 silver each. These subscriptions liquidated at any time at the subscriber's time and option.
 2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest for feited by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned.
