THE 'PROGRES' QUARREL.

Our French colleague at times falls into the error which was set down as characteristic of the 'Standard' from its outset, viz: forgetting that it is not prudent to tell the truth on all occasions. The 'Progres' entered so zealously into the question of elections that we anticipated a difficulty would arise, and now we see a hundred enraged and disappointed Crusaders bent on exterminating this son of Gaul.

The Progres states, what most honest men believe, that a number of factious adventurers in the Club Libertad were endeavoring to bring about disorder and revolution. In fact it was enough for the 'Tribuna' to be organ of that party, to throw discredit on all the members.

We are willing to admit it was unpolicy of Le Progres to make such flat assertions, and the Club Libertad had every reason to feel vexed. But the conduct of the aggrieved was still more objectionable. D. Adolfo Alsina boasts that some of his friends went to see M. St Guilly and called him "a ruffian!"

Dr. A. Alsina is also at fault in making an aspersion on the Club society, of which he says the Clubistas are back. Now it is proved by the voting returns that the Club and all its friends muster 100!

THE IRISHMEN OF VILLA MERCEDES.

There is especially no class of our society more useful than the Irish sheep-farmers, nor any which pays so heavy a quota to the public revenue, or has tended more to enrich this province by developing its splendid resources.

When the assassin Jose Oscar murdered Kirby and his peon in day-light, at their own fancho, without other motive than robbery, the authorities seemed to take no heed of so shocking a crime, and the murderer went about unmolested. The Irishmen clubbed together and made up a handsome subscription for his capture, which was easily effected by one determined man in the town of Chivilcoy.

The editors of the 'Progres' have sent us a manifesto, holding to the purport of their attack upon the Club Libertad, but disclaiming any intent to insult Buenos Ayres at large; we will publish it to-morrow.

Mr. Lum's furnished lodging-house, L'Universelle, is the finest thing we have seen in Buenos Ayres. The apartments are beautifully furnished, and quite on a par with a Paris; we understand there is not one vacant.

ARTESIAN WELLS.

A contract has been entered into between Government and Messrs. A. Sordaux and Co. for the construction of artesian wells in the province of Rioja, and the sum of twelve thousand dollars in Road and Bridge Bonds has been ordered to be issued.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The opera was put off last night, owing to Mme. Briol's slight indisposition. We have not been informed when we shall be favoured with a repetition of 'Norma'; but the 'Ballo in Maschero' will be given to-morrow night.

Our absent friend has exchanged his snub for that of M. Lehoullave and his excessive vanity exposes him to many sarcasms from his colleagues.

The contractors shall pass to the Minister of the Interior a fortnightly report of the progress of the work, accompanied by all the necessary details; and monthly they shall hand in their account for necessary expenses, along with their proper vouchers.

After the recent rains it was remarked that a very foul effluvia arose from the streets. There can be no doubt that drainage and water-works are vitally necessary. Why has the camp, with double the number of births, only an equal mortality table with the city, unless it be that people die twice as fast in town, owing to the want of a proper Municipality?

The latest accounts of Flores are, that he has retired only three leagues from Montevideo. The rumor that he had taken the city was slightly premature. It is said an officer was shot for trying to pass over from the Government side.

The editors of the 'Progres' have sent us a manifesto, holding to the purport of their attack upon the Club Libertad, but disclaiming any intent to insult Buenos Ayres at large; we will publish it to-morrow.

Mr. O'Neill, a friend of the Oriental agent in London goes up to Fray Bentos to-day; we believe he has a mission to survey some estates on the Rio Negro for a company about to be formed in London.

MUTINY OF THE FLOWERY LAND.

The five men who were brought home from Yeatu Villa in the Brazil mail steamer Parana, and landed at Southampton, charged with the murder of the captain and some of the crew of the ship Flowery Land, and scuttling the vessel, were taken before the Southampton magistrates on Monday for examination.

There are in all ten of the crew implicated in the crimes, five of whom, with two witnesses, were sent away from Monte Video in the steamer Uruguay for Liverpool, and the other five, also accompanied by two witnesses, came home in the Parana.

The brig San Juan Bautista is offered for sale by Government. This is a good ship. We should like to know if she blew up all the Corralito rocks in the Uruguay.

Messrs. Sordaux and Co. are to provide the boring utensils, which must be capable of forming an orifice of 31 inches diameter and 150 varas in depth. All the expenses incurred in the work are to be liquidated by Road and Bridge Bonds issued at par.

RIO NEGRO.

A person just arrived from Carmelo represents that part of the neighbouring republic as rather disturbed. This week the inhabitants are alarmed by groups of rebels, the next by the Government troops; the latter are accused of robbery and other crimes, but the former are said to respect foreigners' property.

The Chevepeako (s) has been recaptured by the Federals. Batavia, Nov. 14.—The Confederate war-steamer Alabama is cruising between Nicholas Point and North Island, or right across the Straits of Sunda, and completely blockading them. No further captures are, however, reported.

Pointe Galle, Dec. 1.—The Federal war-steamer Wyoming has gone to Christmas Island in pursuit of the Alabama, where, of course, she will fail to find her.

FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE CRUISE.

The Chevepeako (s) has been recaptured by the Federals. Batavia, Nov. 14.—The Confederate war-steamer Alabama is cruising between Nicholas Point and North Island, or right across the Straits of Sunda, and completely blockading them.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

'Ignorant'—Yes, by the English law a woman is entitled to dower out of the estates of any man who has ever made her an offer. But she must have registered the offer in the Central Criminal Court, and given notice, verbally, and in open court, to Mr. Justice Wilde, or the judge in divorce for the time being.

WOMEN SCROLLS.

Some women were recently arrested as they were endeavouring to get into the Confederate States. They were searched. One wore a bale of fine linen as a bustle.

WARS AND PEACE.

In Warsaw, such has been the bloody work of the Russians, that General Burg has issued orders forbidding mourning to be worn after the 10th of November next. Passengers on foot violating the ordinance are to be fined ten roubles; the proprietors of private carriages, with mourning emblem, one hundred roubles; persons in hired vehicles, fifteen roubles; officials transgressing are to forfeit one month's pay.

VALUATION TABLE.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Value. Includes 'For the loss of both eyes $327 50', 'For one eye 64 75', 'For both arms 277 50', etc.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Still Galloping.—Till when will the police tolerate the diabolical nuisance of galloping, and cartmen driving their waggon at full speed through the streets?

'Verbium Sap'—Our 'word,' in answer to your 'whys,' is the monosyllabic 'go to Bath and get your head shaved.'

'A. B. F.'—Procrastination is derived from the bed of Procrastites, and means what the pantomime clown means when he says 'how do you do to-morrow?' We have no idea what that is.

'A Lover of the Swan of Avon'—Nonsense. The lino is carted in all good editions. I should stand—

'Fat of strange oil and heated like the Bard,' alluding, of course, to Gey's Bard, a horse.

'Adolescent'—We do not think that any person could learn German thoroughly in two hours, but we do not say that the advertiser is a quack,

Chile and Bolivia.—The Tribuna has the following paragraph with respect to these two republics:—"We know positively, that far from there being any ill feeling between the Chile Government and Señor Frias, plenipotentiary of Bolivia, their relations are most friendly and cordial. It is totally false the report of any rupture between these two countries."

French Caricature.—Le Progrès has an excellent cartoon on the late elections. The French are falling out of a scale into a large pot, which Gelly and Ilibao are stirring up; M. Varela and the "Nacional" (the headlong white Gen. Mitre, the "N. Argentina," "Standard," "Progreso," and "Pueblo") editors weigh down the balance.

Teatro Argentina.—It seems Madame Pauline and M. D'Hotté have resolved to convert this Custom-house depot once more into a temple of the Muses.

Bulls.—There will be a masked ball to-night at Colon, also a rural entertainment at Belgrano.

Cigar-Machine.—The Tribuna states that one Sor Escorza has invented a machine for making cigars, turning them out as perfect as if wrought by hand.

Crudo Sentiments.—The "Nacional" says, "The Club Libertad has triumphed wherever there were no Mitres, no sabres, &c. In fine, wherever honest men had free suffrage."

Northern R. I.—We read that a survey was made yesterday of the San Fernando islands, as far as Boca de Las Palmas, with the view of prolonging this line.

Danda Oriental.—The "Nacional" states that Caraballo is before Paysandu that Servando Gomez is crossing the Rio Negro at Polanco, that the woods are full of deserters from the Government army, that Fray Beato has been seized by the rebels, and that the Pampero is about to return to Martin Garcia.

The Blanco Army.—The Blanco newspapers assert that Servando Gomez has arrived at the Arroyo de La Virgen, situated some 8 or 10 leagues from the capital.

The principal military tactics of S. American generals seem to be, getting away as far from the enemy as possible. This may not be very satisfactory work, but it saves an immense loss of men, and besides, so long as the troops receive their food and pay, it does not much matter to the army any little delay, or camping out in the open country.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAU & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great empires of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings. The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, & Druggists & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau and Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

CONDITIONS.
1. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6%) per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rates established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.

The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious citizen might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.

This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of the establishment to even the humblest classes.
Public attention is, therefore, specially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the investment of funds, according to the rules of the association.
The PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:
1st. On one's own life, in shares of 25 silver each. These subscriptions liquidated at any time, at the subscriber's time and option.
2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest for profits by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned.

3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class.
All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.
The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security.
The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.
For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the hours of 11—4; or specimens given on application.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA J. L. BARRACAS
Don. Mr. Pongerrard, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English school, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.
The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.
Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.
The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quarters of the Calle Larga of Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.

For particulars apply for prospectus at the Standard Office, Calvo Belgrano 71.

No more Scab in Sheep.
Patented by Government.
General Store in Buenos Ayres at 265 CALLE BUEN ORDEN.
Store at Villa Mercedes, of Messrs Kautz and Schwengel.
Store at Tuyu, Establishment of D. Carlos G. yor.
The shearing time being now over the inventor of the Anti-Scab Specific for curing Cutaneous Diseases in Sheep, and all domestic Animals, begs to inform the Estancieros that it can never be applied to such effect as after shearing, when it not only cures the worst cases, but acts as a preservative against the disease.
The simplest method is bathing the animal, whether sound or affected, in the manner prescribed by the instructions.
The specific has been already found an efficient remedy for insects (Garrapatas). Numerous certificates may be seen, showing the high repute of the Specific throughout S. America. Its low price places it within the reach of all, 25 lb. sufficing for 500 or 1000 Sheep. It contains no poisonous quality, and is sold at the above Deposits.
