SEIGE OF CORDOBA

Governor Manabien accused of Assassination

The 'Ferro-Carril' brings dates from Cordoba, 18th inst. Colonel Alvarez who is said to be following Gen. Paganio's orders, arrived within 6 leagues of that city on the 18th, at the head of 600 men

Some of Ferreira's enemies would support him, rather than suffer themselves to be trampled on by his new pretence, and the garrison parades daily in the plaza amid enthusiastic plaudits

Private letters from Buenos Aires confirm the account of Gov. Manabien's attempt to assassinate Senator Moreno, D. Pedro Cano and D. Francisco Vega

We have news from Huelva, Feb. 12, things are going on badly, no scruples held to carry the late Cortes' measures

From Rosario we learn with satisfaction that two of the assassins who perpetrated the tragedy at Corrientes had been arrested

AN ARGENTINE EXHIBITION

The 'Ferro-Carril' of Rosario, in an article suggesting the holding of an Argentine Exhibition, which would, it thinks, be useful in fomenting the industry of these provinces

It could send wheat, flour, wool, hides, medicinal herbs, 'mani,' sweetmeats, and preserved fruits

From Corrientes, timber, canvas, harness, all kinds of vases, different woven fabrics, cow hides, deer skins, tiger, caraculo and aguaras, cotton, yerba mate, and maize

San Luis could send some minerals, hides, and a very superior class of wool

Mendoza and San Juan. As the products of these provinces are the same, we will mention them together

It produces in great quantities, fruit, wine, and honey. Amongst its natural produce are gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, gypsum, clay for fire-bricks

STATE OF THE INTERIOR

With the exception of Cordoba and Catamarca, all the provinces are enjoying a profound peace

The people are quietly enough disposed, are plunging the province into all sorts of difficulties

We cannot say just what degree of truth there may be in what they say of the participation that General Paganio, an officer in the national army, has had in the affairs, but it is very certain that he has managed to expatriate a large portion of the people

The two factions of the liberal party in Cordoba, we are sorry to say, have passed from paper anarchy to warfare to blows, and blood has already been spilt

The National Government is laboring hard to establish good roads throughout the country, and many of the provinces are assisting in the good work

It is to be hoped that President Mitre will get out of this scrape by taking the province of Buenos Aires

It is only as a mercantile speculation that the province of La Plata has been pronounced a failure

PARAGUAY AND LA PLATA

At a time when daily experience shows us the rottenness of our present system of Government in B. Ayres, when this city is divided into two hostile camps each professing loyalty and patriotism

"Our attention is constantly turned, with a feeling of sympathy, towards the River Plate, where our commerce might be greatly developed, and our surplus population might acquire an easy fortune

"The Argentine republic having been the Banda Oriental is devastated by civil war, an expedition having been sent up in the winter previous to embrace both sides of La Plata

"The rebellion of Flores brings Paraguay still more prominent as a potentiality was despatched from Montevideo to Asuncion begging President Lopez's assistance to repel the aggression of the Argentine

Dr. Wardlaw of Glasgow. In this case the claims are more direct and personal, for no one can question the propriety and expediency of showing due respect to the remains of a gallant officer that fell in the service of his Queen and country

"The deceased it may matter little where their bones moulder; but to families, near relatives and friends, the case is very different

"Our attention has been called to some grumbling by active passengers against the cabin of the Esmeralda; we know all the circumstances, viz: a gentleman sleeping on the cabin sofa, with his boots on, was politely told to read the regulations, and took affront
