ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

The festival of the Apostle of Ireland again comes round, and claims the cordial salutation of Christendom in general, and of Irishmen in particular.

Mankind accepts as one of its greatest heroes the missionary who converted that country which subsequently earned the title of Island of Saints, and shone as a lamp of learning in the dark ages.

So manifold and cheering are the recollections of to-day, that Ireland and Irishmen forget their griefs on the 17th March, and hope for that happy era of futurity, destined perhaps never to come though foretold by our immortal bard.

Alas! the ruin and desolation of Ireland is not due to foreign agency but to the divisions and dissensions of Irishmen.

May it please Heaven that the spirit of unanimity with which our forefathers received his precepts should return to our distracted country!

Almost all the infantry and artillery are in Buenos Ayres, with the exception of the following battalions:

ARGENTINE ARMY.

The following tabular statement of the regular forces of the Republic, extracted from the Ferrocarril, will show what a very inefficient army the National Executive counts on for the maintenance of order in a country half the size of Europe.

Table with columns for Reg., Division, Cavalry, and Infantry. Lists units like 1st Mendoza, 2nd Fraile Muerto, 3rd Rojas, etc.

The strength of the national army amounts nominally to 6650 men. Some of the battalions will have a little more than the number stated, but the majority of the corps are rather under than over.

The regiment of Olascogoy, now stationed in San Rafael, scarcely reaches 100 men.

That Baigorria cannot collect the 400 men, of which his regiment should consist, and so with many other corps.

Table listing units and their strengths: No. 3 Rojas (250), 5 de Mayo (250), 6 Rioja (400), 8 Salta (250).

Table listing Resumen: In the Provinces (3100), In Buenos Ayres (3550), Total (6650).

Notwithstanding all the noise about San Nicolas, it appears that Colonel Quintana resumes his place there as military agent of the National Government.

There seems no longer any doubt as to Gov. Sarmiento's leaving for the States. He is expected in town shortly, but who his successor will be we are at a loss to know.

A milkman from San Martin has sent us an account of the 'Facion' on last Sunday; it would seem there was hot work in the newly made town, and one of the Ministers lost his hat.

Colonel Olid, one of the most powerful opponents of Flores is dead; he died surrounded by friends, and having received every religious consolation.

though in a military point his conduct may be wrong, still it is to be regretted that when Flores invaded his native country there were not more men of the same stamp as the son of the respected Mr. Holiday.

We notice, in the 'Tribuna' of yesterday, a question put to Mr. Solveyra, as to the publication of his 'Directory' for last year.

The Juez de Paz of Magdalena, we hear, is one of the best in the country. All the murderers and ruffians in his partido have skeddaddled since Sr. Zapiola has taken office.

The packet brought out in gold thirty thousand pounds sterling for the Bank of Mauá, and two hundred pounds to order.

Twelve sheep came out in the packet for Messrs. Getting and Co. The number of imported sheep, we perceive, is daily increasing.

Mr. Thomas Gowland, the popular auctioneer, will sell, on Friday next, 199 boxes of real Irish whiskey.

We regret to see that our old friend Rodriguez, the diligence man, is about to be sold off. This gentleman, for a long period, carried the 'Standard' to many parts of the camp for us.

Governor Saavedra, we learn, has presented the wheelbarrow used at the 'inauguration' of the Great Southern Railway, to the Museum, where it is to remain as a memento of the industrial progress of the country during his administration.

The opera company has been engaged to sing the Stabat Mater in the Cathedral on Good Friday.

The flour mills all through the country are at present working very hard, as wheat is very abundant, particularly up the river.

San Martinians - Permit me to give you a toast; I drink to the prosperity of this place.

Comment on the 'Facion' in San Martin. Screened by the sloping hills of Moran, and surrounded by numerous old bullock-carts and filled-up ditches, exists the dusty mushroom village of San Martin.

nevertheless the town was going ahead, 'a la Canguya', for the last few years. A hotel was opened in the vain delirious hope that visitors would come, but not one even auctioneer; went out there in the morning of San Martinian existence, but they were all done up, and notwithstanding the most alluring puffs in the 'Tribuna,' and the united exertions of the beggared property holders, San Martin was drifting fast to the dogs.

In these days of Argentine go-ahead-ism, however, I am proud to say, that no matter how great the emergency, there are always found men who, with the most meritorious intentions, and instigated by motives which are latent in the breast of every patriot, come forward at the eleventh hour to save their country's honor and prosperity.

We have received from England, per last packet, circulars and prospectuses of a new description of cotton-gin, invented by Mr. W. Wanklyn, who, we believe, is brother to the distinguished River Plate broker, so well and universally known amongst us.

about preceded by the milk men; the band played something like 'pop goes the weasel,' the milk-men some horrible Pyrenean air, the sun was awful.

Yours, &c. A SAN MARTIN MILKMAN.

Another special meeting of the Corporation was held on January 16th, to consider the important question whether the statue of the Liberator should be left in the niche it occupies at the side of the City Hall, or be promoted to a more commanding position in the centre.

The Federal agents are persevering in their endeavours to fill the thinned ranks of the American armies with the youths of Ireland.

At the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Jan. 13, a very interesting report was read upon the linen trade and the growth of flax.

Finally arrangements were made with a confectioner in Flores or Moran, and on last Sunday this extraordinary blow out came off.

10s, a week. The simultaneous growth of wealth and population was, no doubt, the model idea of a flourishing State.

Wool Market. New York, January 22. The active wool market, to which the eyes of dealers and importers have been turned for more than a month, has not made its appearance.

The State of the Streets—After a long time, and a deal of talking on the part of 'El Nacional,' the Calle Cerro has been put in a state of repair, and is now no longer such a break-neck pass as it formerly was.

Chair in the University—One of our native colleagues speaks in high terms of a new chair which has been placed in the University.

Bullion—On the last trip from Rosario, made by the Pavao, she brought 218 gold ounces, 1338 Bolivian dollars and 27 marks silver.

Body Found—On Sunday last there was found drowned in the river at San Fernando a man whose face presented marks of violence. It has not been recognized, nor is there much chance of its being so, in the absence of a Morgue in Buenos Ayres.

Starved Out—Sir Charles Napier said that he could keep the Punjab in check with an Englishman, after his dinner, a tight Irishman, and a starving Scotchman.

The Colonel of the 9th Regiment of the National Guard, stationed near Lobos, addresses a piteous despatch to the Provincial Government, stating that 63 of the National Guards, out of 100 which marched on the 27th July last for Azul, have returned.

Maritime Intelligence—On the 11th inst, the General Garibaldi entered Montevideo, with the captain and crew of the Princess Louise, which was wrecked on the Lobos Island by the 'G. G.' we learn that the Princess Louise has totally disappeared.

Machos—The 'Saturday Review' had lately an interesting article upon the species of mania displayed by some people in England for arson; and pointing to innumerable cases of individuals who, having once indulged in the intoxicating fun of stackburning, have been unable to practise self-denial.

ON CHANGE. March 16, 1814. Patagonia opened at 29 35, and went up to 29 10, at which price they closed firm. Total cash sales 18,267.

Sparring Exhibition. MR. MACKAY wishes to intimate to the Public of Buenos Ayres that he has opened a practical Sparring School in Calle Peru 293, where he intends holding a Fistic Exhibition on four evenings in the week, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Something like Advertising.—In the 'Evening Standard' of 5th ult., one London firm has 65 advertisements; these occupy one whole column of the newspaper, and, taking them at the reduced rate of three shillings each, must cost £15, or $135 Buenos Ayrean paper currency.

little sum to pay for advertisements in one paper for a single day; but no great loss ensues, as it has been found from experience that advertising expenses are rapidly repaid by the increased profits of the business.

Not quite sure on the subject.—Some folks are slow at realizing either great grief or great joy, and, like puppies, require some time to fairly understand a thing, but when they do, happen to open their eyes they see about the clearest.

Table of Exchange.—The indefatigable manager of the Bolea, Mr. Rom, has just sent to press a table of exchange adapted to the new calculation of patacons instead of doubloons.

Prison birds.—The six assassins who escaped from the Cabildo are enjoying themselves, probably at their former sanguinary calling. Perhaps after the elections on Easter Sunday, the Government will have time to take measures for their arrest.

The Pa-on.—This steamer is undergoing temporary repairs, and the Espigador will take her place, in bringing down the Rosario mails to-day.

Legislative.—Sr. Rosco will give an entertainment shortly at Colon: we do not know if this be the professor of that name who gained such reputation in Europe.

Subat Mater.—This splendid composition of Rossini will be performed on Palm Sunday evening by the Italian Opera Co. Of course the theatre will be crowded.

Attempted assassination.—The native papers make much noise about an alleged attempt to murder General Faus-ti Aguilera, the Oriental rebel, at present recovering from his wounds, in this city.

Hurrah for the Danes.—The most important news from Europe is the formation of an Irish regiment in aid of the King of Denmark. They are all stated gentlemen from the Co. Cork, and will be called the 'Alexander Cent-guards,' equipping and maintaining themselves without any pay whatever.

Grat Loss. We are told that an Irish estancierero in the North lost 400 fine sheep on Sunday night; they died of exhaustion.

Attempted Escape.—Last Sunday night the prisoners confined in one of the halls of the prison attempted to make their escape from their hospitable friend's police. According to the testimony of one of these, the instrument used in their futile attempt was given them by the wife of one of their comrades who had lately paid her husband a visit.

which has left or been taken away, it seems almost incomprehensible how, in the absence of any new emissions, paper money should so depreciate. Still ounces are 470 and looking up; verily the rottenest monetary system in the world is the paper currency of Buenos Ayres.

The Espigador arrived from Rosario with 85 passengers and a good cargo; but she brings no news whatever from the interior. No mails have arrived from San Juan.
