ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

The festival of the Apostle of Ireland again comes round, and claims the cordial salutation of Christendom in general, and of Irishmen in particular. Nor are there many countries where the name and memory of St. Patrick are not reverently celebrated, nor is there a son of the Emerald Isle who forgets that to day is his national anniversary.

Manbidu accepts as one of its greatest heroes the missionary who converted that country which subsequently carried the title of Island of Saints, and alone as a lamp of learning in the dark ages preserving Art and Science within its happy domains and offering food and instruction to the youth of all Europe.

Alas! the ruin and desolation of Ireland is not due to foreign agency but to the divisions and dissensions of Irishmen. The emblem of unity which St. Patrick chose to represent the Irish Trinity we wear in our hats but not in our hearts.

Notwithstanding all the noise about San Nicolas, it appears that Colonel Quintana resumes his place there as military agent of the National Government. This will be gratifying news for many of the Colonel's friends in that quarter.

ARGENTINE ARMY.

The following tabular statement of the regular forces of the Republic, extracted from the Ferrocarril, will show what a very inefficient army the National Executive counts on for the maintenance of order in a country half the size of Europe.

Table with columns: Reg. (Regiment), Division, Commander, Strength. Lists units like 1st Mendoza, 2nd Trillo Maerto, etc.

though in a military point his conduct may be wrong, still it is to be regretted that when Flores invaded his native country there were not more men of the same stamp as the son of the respected Mr. Haldy.

We notice, in the 'Tribuna' of yesterday, a question put to Mr. Solviera, as to the publication of his 'diocesan' for last year. We believe that our talented friend would more than be able to do so at present with his new-pen.

The Jefe de Paz de Magdalena, we hear, is one of the best in the country. All the murders and ruffians in his partido have skeddaddled since Sr. Zapola has taken office. We hope that the neighbours will assist this model judge in protecting life and property.

We have received from England, per late packet, circulars and prospectuses of a new description of machinery, invented by Mr. W. Wanklyn, who, we believe, is brother to the distinguished River Tiste broker, so well and universally known amongst us.

Twelve sheep came out in the packet for Messrs. Getting and Co. The number of imported sheep, we perceive, is daily increasing. We perceive that a German house has sent home for a whole flock of Silesian ewes, for an Irish shepherd to rear in the north.

Mr. Thomas Gowland, the popular auctioneer, will sell, on Friday next, 194 boxes of red Irish whiskey, ex-London, from Dublin. The whiskey is of the celebrated quality of Jameson and Co., of Dublin, lovers of a good tumbler of whiskey punch, should attend the auction.

Governor Saavedra, we learn, has presented the wheelbarrow used at the inauguration, of the Great Southern Railway, to the Museum, where it is to remain as a memento of the industrial progress of the country during his administration.

The strength of the National Army amounts nominally to 6850 men. Some of the battalions will have a little more than the number stated, but the majority of the corps are rather under than over.

Notwithstanding all the noise about San Nicolas, it appears that Colonel Quintana resumes his place there as military agent of the National Government.

nevertheless the town was going ahead, 'la Chaucera,' for the last few years. A hotel had opened in the main delavatory, but hope that visitors would come, but not one even auctioneer; went out there in the morning of San Martinian existence, but they were all done up.

In these days of Argentine go-aheadness, however, I am proud to say, that no matter how great the emergency, there are always found men who, with the most meticulous intentions, and instigated by motives which are latent in the breast of every patriot, come forward at the eleventh hour to save their country's honor and prosperity.

We regret to see that our old friend Rodriguez, the diligence man, is about to be sold off. This gentleman, for a long period, carried the 'Standard' to many parts of the camp for us, and sincerely sympathized with him in his troubles, which have been mainly caused by the drought.

Finally arrangements were made with a confectioner in Flores or Moron, and on last Sunday this extraordinary party did come off, and San Martin made her appearance there was a stir noticeable in San Martin; people took 'mate' rather earlier than usual, in town.

The second train was just as full, and the third train was so crowded that the Provincial train to-day, at which all the Directors in company with the National Finance Minister, attended.

The flour mills all through the country are at present working very hard, and as wheat is very abundant, particularly up the river. The wheat market in Buenos Ayres is very drooping and flour also has a downward tendency.

Our advice from the camp are not to fly to the east, the burning corduroy sign is turning the young grass quite yellow, and farmers are beginning to be nervous about the winter if the rain does not come.

Screened by the sloping hills of Moon, and surrounded by numerous old bullock-carts and filled-up ditches, outside the dusty mountain village of San Martin. It would seem as if some splendiferous Baques, anxious to insult the memory of General so much revered by modern Argentines, could find no better way to perpetrate their misdeeds than by calling in the Argentine wigwags, got up in the greatest speed, after the defeat San Martin.

San Nicolas, it appears that Colonel Quintana resumes his place there as military agent of the National Government.

Another special meeting of the Corporation was held on January 6th, to consider the important question whether the statue of the Liberator should be left in the niche it occupies at the side of the City Hall, or be promoted to a more commanding position in the centre.

The Federal agents are persevering in their endeavors to fill the thin ranks of the American army with the youths of Ireland. One of these persons has been pursuing his avocations in Galway for the last week with considerable success.

The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Jan. 15, a very interesting report was read upon the silver trade and the growth of fax. It states that the past year was one of general prosperity. All the machinery used in its different branches was in active operation, and the production of tin, iron and goods has exceeded that of any former time.

The importation of Cape Wool, direct, amounts to 4273 bales, of which but little is sold. Market value, 40 to 44 cts. per lb. Carpet wools are scarce and in demand especially good worsted wools.

The inauguration banquet of the Lord Mayor of Dublin, which took place on the 4th Feb., was the most magnificent entertainment of the kind given in the Mansion House since the reign of Lord Mayor was held by Mr. Benjamin Lee Guinness. The immense space of the King's Room was covered with tables as closely as they could be conveniently ranged.

The simultaneous growth of wealth and population was, no doubt, the model idea of a flourishing State. He would not appear to be much of the post Goldsmith, who said—

He thought the land would fare worse if the reverse were the case—if men accumulated and wealth decayed. Here the noble lord was interrupted with loud cries of 'no, no.'

His Excellency then rose and proposed the health of the Lord Mayor, and complimented him on having set a bright example to every young man in Ireland, for his expansive hospitality and significant entertainment.

The active wool market, to which the eyes of dealers and importers have been turned for more than a month, has not only appeared to be a very particular transaction, but has been in domestic sales, at 77 cts. to 83 cts. per lb. and as this description of wools is a necessity with some manufacturers and exporters, the price here being quite as favorable, if not more so than in the Western States, they made their purchases here.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Good News for Russia and Carobols! We have seen a private letter from London announcing the completion of all Mr. Wheelwright's arrangements for the Central Argentine Railway.

The State of the Streets—After long time, and a deal of talking on the part of "El Nacional," the Calle Corrientes has been put in a state of repair, and is now no longer such a break-neck pass as it formerly was...

Chair in the University—One of our native colloquies speaks in high terms of a new chair which has been placed in the University. In other countries when we speak of a chair in an university, we generally mean the man who occupies it, or more frequently the class of learning taught there...

Bullion—On the last trip from Rosario, made by the Pavan, she brought 218 gold ounces, 3,338 silver dollars and 27 marks silver.

Staved Out—Sir Charles Napier said that he could keep the Punjab in check with an Englishman, after his dinner, a high Irishman and a steev'ing Scotchman. The Argentine Government would appear to think that their countrymen are like North Britons, better to fight, if they have the men to get content with sending them out to guard the frontiers...

Attempted assassination—The native papers make much noise about an alleged attempt to murder General Faus. Mr. Faus has purchased the copyright, and it will be published in a few days.

Maritime Intelligence—On the 11th inst. the General Frigate "San Carlos" left Montevideo, with the captain and crew of the Princess Louise, which was wrecked on the Lobs Island...

Something like Advertising—In the Evening Standard of 24th ult. the London firm has 65 advertisements; these occupy one whole column of the newspaper, and taking them at the reduced rate of three shillings each, must cost £2 16s. or £13 8s. Buenos Ayres paper currency. A very pretty Little sum to pay for advertisements in our paper for a single day; but no good loss, as it has been found from experience that advertising expenses are rapidly repaid by the increased profits of the business.

Table of Exchange—The indefatigable manager of the Bulletin, Mr. Rom, has just sent to press a table of exchange adapted to the new calculation of patacons instead of doubloons.

CALLE LAIGA DE BARRACAS

Dr. M. PONGERARD, of the London University College.
This Establishment, which from its formation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, under a sound commercial establishment, and since the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.
An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee of the morality and industry of the pupils are cordially attended to.
The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Calligraphic instruction.
Two stations of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful quarters of the Quiltes de Barracas, at very low rates of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
