THE ELECTIONS.

The elections last Sunday only took place in a few parishes. At the Merced and College there were none, owing to the justices of the peace having resigned office.

It will be said, of course, by partisan politicians, that justices of the peace have a perfect right to resign when they please, and that it is on those terms they accept office; but unbiased men will take a very different view of the case.

It appears, as far as we can learn, that in the parishes where the justices resigned, there was a most overwhelming majority of what is called 'cooidos'; that owing to the precautionary measures of the President, no disturbance could be created; the probabilities were, therefore, that if the elections proceeded, the party to which their worship belonged would be beaten.

In treating of this matter, we put politics altogether aside, for we believe men holding such positions as that of judge, should remember their oaths before anything else, and that the judge who allows politics to guide his conduct, takes that peculiar view of his duties which too often leads to the extension of crime.

The man who runs down the street shouting out 'Muera Mitre!' 'Muera Saavedra!' or 'Viva la Revolucion!' is less a traitor to his country than the public officer who betrays his trust or degrades his name.

We charge the justices of the peace, who resigned office on Sunday, with nothing, as we understand so little about their politics; but we merely wish to call public attention to the fact, that the acceptance of office in this country seems to imply no moral obligation for the fulfilment of its duties.

Limited as is the jurisdiction of the courts to which these justices belong, we regret to say, that by a careless nomination, on the part of the Government, the public are obliged to endure the most serious wrongs and inconveniences.

ment to the alcaide, who, of course, played the same trick. We ask, is this justice, and is it any wonder that the law in this country commands such little respect, when the judge's ermine is prostituted in such a manner?

THE AERO-AUT WELLS.

Buenos Ayres is promised shortly the rare treat of a balloon ascent. We do not know whether Porteiros have ever seen other than paper-balloons, or rocket-parachutes; at least we do not remember any pupil of Gondolifer who visited the River Plate.

Our colleague, the 'Tribuna,' published its interesting paper review the day after the mail for Europe closed. We are surprised that D. A. Hector should make such an egregious blunder.

On Sunday, Captain Bruce went with his family on board the Pavaon, to be conveyed to the Mersey lying in the outer roads. Several friends accompanied them, and, with his usual courtesy, Captain Bruce placed the Pavaon at the disposal of passengers going to the mail steamer.

The Southern Starling. By a sailing vessel arrived on Sunday, we have dates from the States to the 10th Feb.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The elections on Sunday proved a magnificent hoax. At the Merced and College, the justices of the peace having resigned, no table could be formed. At the Piedad there was a row, and we regret to hear that Sr. Mateo Martinez was wounded.

The weather is so dry, that the farmers are beginning to be alarmed. Verily, it would seem as if there was a curse on the country, for the drought in the camp, and the political excitement in town, are keeping up the race, which terminates at the goal of ruin and revolution.

The news from the Banda Oriental, per Salto, is not so very important as regards Flores, who, it appears, is nowhere at present. Saldana has been at last taken, and it is thought will be hung.

as regards Flores, who, it appears, is nowhere at present. Saldana has been at last taken, and it is thought will be hung. In Fray Bentos there is a regular hub-bub; every one is leaving the place, even our new agent has received a threatening notice, and is advised to leave the town.

The row at the Plaza Concepcion on Sunday was quite jolly. The Cocidos, perceiving that they were outnumbered by a set of rif-raff from every parish in town, snatched up the table, and destroyed everything. The justice of the peace, perceiving how things were going, put the voting papers in his breast pocket and cleared out; but a troop of free and enlightened fellows followed him, caught him by the throat, and pinned him down.

LATEST FROM THE UNITED STATES.

French Packet News anticipated.

Richmond Nearly Taken.

By a sailing vessel arrived on Sunday, we have dates from the States to the 10th Feb.

The Southern Starling. By a sailing vessel arrived on Sunday, we have dates from the States to the 10th Feb.

A meeting has been held in New York, and resolutions were passed, calling upon General McClellan to take the field.

Richmond is in a most feverish state, and a conspiracy to murder President Davis has been detected.

The New York money market was depressed. Exchange on England had gone up to 175. Gold, last quotations, 159 5/8. Railway stocks were falling.

General Grant telegraphs from Nashville that an expedition sent by General Foster from Knoxville against the rebel General Thomas and his guerillas at Quallahtown succeeded in capturing that place, driving the guerilla band into the mountains, killing and wounding two hundred and fifteen of them and taking fifty prisoners.

Quiet has been restored on the Rappahannock since the return of our forces. A range of rifle pits were constructed by the rebels opposite Moton's Ford, supported by a line of breastworks.

We give full particulars of the panic created in Richmond on Saturday and Sunday by the reported approach of our troops at Bottom's Bridge, the main facts of which we published yesterday. The people at the rebel capital were in a state of wild excitement.

The Richmond 'Examiner' of the 8th says that for several days past the Government has been in possession of facts that hinted, beyond a doubt, to the existence of a secret organisation of disloyal men, having for its object the forcible release of the prisoners held at Libby and on Belle Isle, the assassination of President Davis, and the destruction of the Government buildings and workshops.

The people of Louisiana and Texas are almost starving, and crave peace on any terms.

JUJUY AND BOLIVIA.

We are indebted to the 'Ferro-Carril' of Rosario, for the following extract of trade carried on between Jujuy and the neighbouring Republic of Bolivia.

Articles of Bolivian Manufacture—$728 1/2; lead and tin, 83 1/2; liquors, 30; provisions, 30,855 1/2; sundry Bolivian produce, $60. Total—$22,310.

The exports from Jujuy have been—Articles of Jujuy manufacture—2270; liquors, 1214; provisions, 10,985; sundry Jujuy produce, 4261 1/2; $1,730 1/2. Total—$12,041.

The fines inflicted by the police of Jujuy, do not seem to be a very good speculation, and either offences are rare, or else the sun melted is small. The receipts of the police during the month of December only amounted to 95 dols., whilst the expenses have been 100 dols.

PERU.

In Peru a new School of Arts is proposed to be opened, and which promises to be the first of the class in South America: a School of Agriculture is also spoken of. The hacendados are now turning their attention to the better cultivation of the vine and sugar cane.

The principal hacendados have held a meeting in Lima to take into consideration the best means of still further developing the resources of the country. At this rate M. Ulloa will, in his next harangue, have to except the Republic of Peru from his diatribe against South America.

THE LONDON, BUENOS AYRES AND RIVER PLATE BANK LIMITED.

Montevideo, March 21, 1864.

To the Editors of the 'Standard.' Gentlemen, My attention has been called to your translation of some official documents exchanged between me and the Oriental Government respecting the Direct Contribution.

I regret to observe that errors, doubtless involuntary, have occurred both in the statement of facts and in the translation of documents. As public attention has been so prominently directed to this subject, I depart from my usual course, and now I send you the true facts for publication.

This Bank was registered in this city on the 14th January 1863, by Mr. Josling, the agent of the Bank at that period. It appears that in accordance with the law the Capital should have been declared by him between the said 1st January 1863 and 15th February 1863, and the payment of the Direct Contribution in accordance with such declaration, should have been made between the 16th February 1863 and the 31st March 1863, or in the act of making the declaration, at his option.

This, I presume from ignorance of the law, was omitted to be done. Subsequently, as a relief to the public under the circumstances of the existing civil war, this period was prorogued to the 31st October 1863, but of course the Bank or its representatives would not willingly have availed themselves of this grace.

I arrived here on the 17th June 1863, and was of course unaware that any default had been made in the payment of this or any other tax. Indeed I presumed, judging from my past long experience in Buenos Ayres, that this tax was only levied on real estate. The first intimation I had was from the informant in November 1863. Finding that I could not come to any satisfactory arrangement with the Direct Contribution Office, I was advised to appeal to the Government with the view of possible being relieved of the fine, and at the same time of coming, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, to some composition as to the amount of Capital to be declared.

I could only be bound to declare the amount corresponding to the 15th Feb. 1863, on which the declaration was legally due.

This foot note of the commission has given rise to some anonymous comments which are not worthy of refutation. I may add that I have since declared the working capital of this Branch corresponding with the 17th March 1864, to be $243,750, being the equivalent of one-fourth of the entire capital of the Bank paid up to that date.

I now annex what you will find to be a careful translation of the principal documents exchanged, and I shall feel obliged by your inserting this letter and the accompanying documents in your next edition for Europe per Southampton packet and oblige.

Your obedient servant, J. C. RUDING, Manager.

To His Excellency the President.

The undersigned Manager of the London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank presents the following case for your consideration. At the commencement of the present year (1863) the first agent of the Bank arrived here with the object of testing the field this city might present for exchange and local banking operations.

For the first three or four months of the year our operations were limited to a small capital until the necessary information was obtained, and the various arrangements matured for converting the Agency into a Bank. I arrived from England with the latter object in July 1863.

As you will observe by the accompanying newspaper, it was only on the 23rd October I was enabled to complete this change which I duly announced in the periodicals of this city; and even at the present moment, although a year has elapsed since the presentation of the petition, the Bank has not yet been granted the right of emission conceded to other Banks in a similar position.

Notwithstanding therefore that this Bank can hardly be considered as fully constituted, a difference has arisen with the Direct Contribution office, which from the peculiar features of the case I submit should be adjusted by your Excellency. Lately arrived in this country, I was unaware that the capital of this Bank was liable to the payment of the Direct Contribution to which ignorance is alone to be attributed the fact of my not having made the requisite declaration, for it cannot be supposed that I could have any intention of evading the same.

For these reasons I address myself to your Excellency with the petition that in consideration of the small relative capital with which this Branch commenced business, of the larger amount that will be required in future of the great boon this introduction of foreign capital will be to the country, of the delay which has occurred in placing it on the same footing with the other Banks, and of my ignorance of the law being the sole cause of my having rendered myself liable to the fine, which is now exacted with surprising rigour, you will allow me to repair the omission by making a moderate and equitable composition, having for its basis the facts as herein detailed, and the limited nature of our operations precedent to my establishment of this Branch on the present scale.

In view of the above I trust your Excellency will accede to the just prayer of my petition.

(Signed) JOHN CLEMENT RUDING, Direct Contribution Office, Montevideo, 14th Dec, 1863.

To His Excellency the President. The undersigned having been informed of what has passed between this office and Mr. Ruding the present Manager of the London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank, established in this city relative to the non-declaration of Capital for the current year, in the time prescribed by law, begs to state:

That on the 30th October the final period granted to the public for the payment of this tax expired, and on the 1st November the usual Public Informers were appointed, by one of whom, Don Miguel Perez Rolon, the Bank of London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate was denounced among other names to this office.

That on being summoned before, the said Manager expressed himself in similar terms to his present petition, protesting his ignorance of the law and calling my especial attention to the fact that he was not the Agent who presented the original petition to the Chambers for the establishment of this Bank, but had only recently been appointed to replace that gentleman as Manager. The same was confirmed by the lawyer who accompanied him (Dr. Vicente Fidel Lopez) who knowing the law, pointed out to me the recent establishment of the Bank, in the belief that on this ground it was not bound to contribute for the entire year like those already established, more especially as it was only in the event of the right of emission being granted that the full capital would be required, and that in the absence of same the transactions had been necessarily limited.

To these arguments which were afterwards urged both by the Bank's Notary and head Clerk, the undersigned referred to the letter of the law giving each of the parties a copy thereof and granting them the time they might require to transmit to this office the declaration of Capital. But I informed them that I considered that the law required the Direct Contribution to be levied in every case for the entire year and that I persisted in considering the establishment as a Bank in accordance with its title and its public announcement, but that should the Manager be dissatisfied with my decision he was at liberty to refer to the Superior Authorities.

The Bank has therefore had sufficient time to make the declaration of its capital in accordance with Article No. 2 of the existing law, and as it has not yet done so, notwithstanding the repeated applications of the informer, and as the period fixed by Article No. 1 of the regulating decree (as prolonged in consideration of the circumstances attendant on the present state of civil war) expired on the 30th October, the Bank is liable to the fines which in accordance with Article 13 are to be levied on all in arrear.

There has therefore been no act of rigour on the part of this office, but simply the faithful execution of the law. Under the above circumstances your Excellency will decide on the merits of the case.

The undersigned refrains from passing any comments which would moreover neither fix the designation of the establishment in question, nor the amount of its effective capital, the only two points most interesting to your Excellency, in order that you may be better enabled to form your decision as to the composition solicited.

(Signed) J. J. GALLARDO, Direct Contribution.

I, John Clement Ruding, British subject, domiciled in this city as Manager of the London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank, declare that I possess the following property:—

Capital in Circulation. Effective Capital in the year 1863: $50,000—which property I value as marked in the accompanying schedule for the payment of the Contribution corresponding to the above year in accordance with the law, submitting to the penalties incurred in the event of this declaration not being correct.

Montevideo, 18th Feb. 1864. (Corresponding to 1863) For JOHN CLEMENT RUDING, (Signed) J. P. WHITE.

Special Municipal Commission.

Montevideo, 3rd March 1864. Publish in all the newspapers of the Capital, with all the antecedents, that the London, Buenos Ayres and River Plate Bank has declared in the office of the Direct Contribution that it possesses no more capital than $50,000. (Signed) LOUIS LEBLANC, President. PABLO ZICPITRIA, Secretary.

SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN.

On coming now to examine how the conditions on which Denmark was put in possession of the Duchies were kept we shall find that they have been unceremoniously set aside by her, and that the history of the ten years succeeding the peace is one of suffering and struggles between the German population of the Duchies and their Danish Duke. In reality, the sovereign power was not in the hands of the King, but of the democratic party, the Eider-Danes, who were inspired with feelings of hatred and revenge against the Duchies. The Danish rulers governed arbitrarily and tyrannically, more so in Schleswig. Almost all the civil officers and judges of the country were removed, hundreds of German teachers and pastors were dismissed, and Danes were appointed in their places. The suppression of the German language, and the substitution of the Danish in its place, was especially aimed at. In more than fifty parishes the Danish language was introduced into schools where German had hitherto been solely in use. The German names of a great number of places were abolished, and Denial... substituted. A common Constitution was introduced by ordinance...

In Holstein also; the Diet manfully resisted every measure having a tendency to sever the connection with Schleswig...

Prussia and Austria, as parties to the Treaty, are placed in a most difficult position. As already seen, the Treaty pre-supposed that the right of succession would exist...

In Schleswig the right of interference on the part of the German Powers rests exclusively on international grounds. We have seen that, by the Peace of 1852, the King of Denmark, in his capacity of Duke of Schleswig, engaged himself towards the German Powers...

The following is the best report we could procure:— Cathedral Norte. No table, justice of peace resigned.

CITY ELECTIONS. Senators (Crudos)—3800; Cocidos, 140. Deputies (Crudos)—7000; Cocidos, 8.

LOCAL EVENTS. Faculty of Surgeons.—The Tribunal mentions that the Faculty have presented to Government a petition to do away with what it calls the old and ridiculous system of degrees.

Prussia and Austria, as parties to the Treaty, are placed in a most difficult position. As already seen, the Treaty pre-supposed that the right of succession would exist, but this right has not been established.

On Thursday morning last a fire broke out in a cabinetmaker's workshop in Calle Piedad. We have heard no particulars, neither the name of the owner, nor the cause of the disaster.

On Sunday night the small theatre at Moron was opened. The attendance was very good; all the upper ten of that flourishing town being present.

To-day, the new steamer will make her first trip to Colonia: she is too small for any large amount of cargo, and only carries passengers.

ON CHANGE. March 28. Patrons were very firm to-day opening at 29 25, and closing at the same price. Total cash sales, 33,073; for Thursday, 47,300 at 29 30; for Saturday, 4,800 at 29 80; for the end of April 26,400 at 29 30; for various dates, 40,130 from 29 to 29 30. Total sales of the day, 15,813.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the great Emporium of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe, profitable depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
p. p. Mau & Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE.
CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6%) per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA DE BARRACOS
Dor.—Tr. Pongerrard, of the London University College.
This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.
An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the morals and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.
The different branches taught at the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Religious Instruction.
Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.
The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quarters of the Calle Larga de Barracos, at the very gates of the City, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
For particulars apply for prospectuses at the Standard Office, Calle Bolgrano 71.
