Respecting the National Government, it has been mathematically demonstrated that it will find quite a liberal annual return in its half of the profits of the National Bank.

So, finally, we conclude, by expressing the hope that the great local newspapers, as well as the Government, the Chambers, and the public, will at last take into serious consideration a scheme of the vitality of which all will be equal to its magnitude.

Robbers in the Government House. The 'Pueblo' states that some burglars got into the Provincial Government House. A pity they didn't steal the Ministers!

LOCAL EVENTS.

Rosario Oriental—Sixty-four French citizens have addressed a petition to the Admiral in command of the French squadron on this station, praying for some protection and redress from the Montevideo Government.

Serenos.—The 'Progreso' says very truly that if these amiable and useful gentry are not restricted in the abuse of their spears quiet and respectable individuals must carry arms to defend themselves against the guardians of the peace.

Por Falta de Espacio.—Our friend the 'Pueblo' has so used up all its energies in writings quibos on the Northern Railway, that with the above heading, it coolly tells its readers that it is obliged to leave out much original matter, but at the same time inserts a paragraph on the Central Railway.

A Good Haul.—The police have made a capture of a number of the rascals who were infesting the neighbourhood of Flores; amongst them was taken the head of the gang, a man called Martin Corrales, alias Garibaldi.

M. Casparini.—This gentleman presented himself before the Tribunal of Commerce yesterday.

ON CHANGE. April 12, 1864. There was a full to-day, everybody seeming inclined to rest on his oars after the sailing of the French packet, and passively waiting the important news from Europe, expected by the Mersey to-morrow.
