Another Fatal Murder.

Yesterday about three p.m., a soldier entered a house in Calle Orenio, with the intention of robbery; he killed the owner of the house, and fled down Calle Piedad taking refuge in Sor. Suarez's house, where he was soon seized.

MONTEVIDEO.

On Tuesday last the suit instituted by Señor Brizuela, against the editor of the 'Reforma Política,' for defamation of character, was to commence in Montevideo. Brizuela's charge, judging from his antecedents, must be very rich and racy, and we can almost fancy his look of injured innocence, and his talking to the judges in the King Cambray's vein.

RESERVA NEWS.

A gentleman whose position affords peculiar facilities for observation regarding the movements of the presentry, has assured us that their excitement respecting emigration is exaggerated. Not a farmer who does not seriously consider the 'advantage of leaving land and home; not a labourer who does not long for the means which shall enable him to fly from this miserable land. He instances one case of this sort, and it merely indicates the process which is going on throughout the country, and which promises to leave Kerya a waste, if some means shall not be taken to remove the causes which excite to this lamentable depopulation.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUD & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maud & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, as trainees, workmen & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maud & Co. of this City following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 18th 1863.

WILLIAM MAUD & CO.
WILLIAM MAUD & CO.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p. c.) per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account (fixed) according to the rates established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor from the Bank it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
CALLE LARGA DE BARRIOAS

Does—70, Pagarret, of the English School of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education is combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages, is imparted to the pupils, and based upon the same system as in all that class European institutions of the kind.

The course is a careful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, and a sufficient guarantee in the morals and behavior of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Reading instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful quarters of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very foot of the city, is one of the most beautiful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
