LONDON, APRIL 26, 1864.

EDITORIAL TABLE. We have no political opinion for the pocket edition; it would be well if Argentina could learn the past fortnight an unexpected lesson in their history.

We are told that some of the natives of the Western Railway, in pay of the Crudo Provincial Government, are not so enthusiastic about fighting, although they go through the streets with knives and pistols.

The disabled Anglo-Argentine veteran, Michael Morgan, is likely to receive more from private sympathy than Government reward: after a day of 30 years the War office gave him 200 paper dollars (20 shillings).

It is thought we shall have no more street-rioting on blooded, until Thursday 24th inst, this being the day fixed for swearing in the new deputy on whom depend the hopes and fears of all who are foolish enough to trouble themselves about the sedes vacantes of the Argentine Republic.

Yesterday a soldier was carried on a stretcher apparently dead, by his comrades, through Calle Cangallo. His face was covered, but he still wore his 'kepi'; we have not heard any particulars.

2000 troops towards the Corrientes frontier, and the Argentine republic is at present hardly able to resist so has the step. Some people think it will be serious: we do not.

The Danish Consul has favoured us with a copy of the blockade regulations of some part of Denmark, but as we do not understand High Dutch, much less Danish, we are at a loss as to the nature of the specifications.

STATE OF THE RIVER-CANAL. The event of most importance for the Province is the new bridge brought by the late steamer of the happy termination of the difficulties which appeared to beset the Great Central Railway.

The workmen on the ten miles of subterranean already made, are at work on the culverts, three of which are already finished, leaving only two to make to put this portion of the line in a state to receive the rails.

The town has been busy transferring large quantities of merchandise to the interior. We have to regret that Rosario is so poorly off for large importing houses that the greater part of the goods imported to the interior are purchased duty paid in Buenos Ayres.

Should another separation between Buenos Ayres and the Province take place, it will be altogether owing to the odious principle of the statesman of the sister province, sedes vacantes in the provinces enhance the prosperity of Buenos Ayres.

The Governor Delegate of Santa Fe, Mr. Donato, has just returned to the capital of the province after a lengthened visit to the Department of Rosario, where his presence has been of great service.

The political affairs of the provinces are becoming more satisfactory. In the principal provinces everything is quiet and orderly; Catamarca only remains a few hot on the fair face of the Confederation.

Coronel is happily delivered from her insatiable troubles. The government of Mr. Ferrer is firmly established and all opposition has ceased; and the enthusiasm which will be created there by the favorable news in reference to the railroad will tend indubitably to allay past feeling.

San Juan and Mendoza are "going ahead" in a fair way. The mines of the latter province are proving every day richer and richer.

The report addressed to Mr. Meiggs of Chile, giving a circumstantial account of the discovery of a pass in the Andes by which a railroad may be easily thrown across the Cordilleras, has created a great sensation.

The elections in Santa Fe and in Entre Rios have passed over in the quietest manner possible, there not having been a single row.

The Government has not yet decided for the National Exhibition, but we have strong hopes it will soon do so, as the eminent Minister of the Interior approves the idea.

THE RUGBY OF TERROR. The 'Pueblo' exaggerates the number of what it calls 'assassinations' (killing at election riots is not generally, by the way, called murder but manslaughter).

On Friday night some mad caps drove through town firing revolvers out the coach windows. It was, probably, to counteract this, that three men fired into a coach at the corner of Defensa and Comercio.

On Sunday Mr. John Hood was received into the Roman Catholic Church, at Merlo, receiving the usual conditional baptism at the hands of Rev. P. J. Dillon.

On Sunday Mr. John Hood was received into the Roman Catholic Church, at Merlo, receiving the usual conditional baptism at the hands of Rev. P. J. Dillon.

Here it may not be amiss to explain to our readers that the Catholic Church holds baptism to be valid, whether conferred by priest or layman, Christian or Mahomedan. Yet in the case of Protestants a doubt always arises as to whether they hold the necessity of baptism for salvation, and their clergy-men are not in all cases particular about pouring water on the neophyte's head.

Mr. Head was baptised immediately before High Mass, by the Rev. Mr. Dillon, assisted by the Rev. E. Romero and another native priest. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin of Buenos acted as sponsors for their countryman, the ceremony being performed at the high altar.

THE RIO NEGRO. We have the 'Eco' of Mercedes to Sunday, 24th inst, Colon Perez's division, surnamed 'brilliant,' is encamped near Daica, preparing to set out in search of the rebels.

On Monday last the above popular academy was honored by a visit from His Lordship the Bishop, who thus by his presence graciously evinced the warm interest he feels in the advancement—not alone of our Irish College, but of every establishment calculated to impart a sound practical education to the rising generation.

THE BELGRANO RACES. The races on Sunday, we are informed, were a miserable failure. Perhaps, owing to the bad weather, the attendance was so poor, no ladies being present, and only a sprinkling of professional turfites.

THE BELGRANO RACES. The races on Sunday, we are informed, were a miserable failure. Perhaps, owing to the bad weather, the attendance was so poor, no ladies being present, and only a sprinkling of professional turfites.

THE CLUB WAR. Agitation in Town. The National official paper, 'Nacion Argentina,' published yesterday an alarming supplement, calling upon the citizens to attend the funeral of Captain Laque.

A number of inflammatory harangues were delivered over the grave, and it was feared that a dangerous excitement of feeling would be exhibited. Today and to-morrow, will, perhaps, pass off quietly, but we fear serious disturbances before the end of the week.

THE CIVIL MEDICO-QUIRURGICO. We have received the second number of this medical periodical. The 'Fortnightly review' is anything but pleasant to nervous-minded folks: it is not the most flattering; dysentery is very prevalent, and in the opinion of most of our medical men, it assumes a grave character.

ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE. On Monday last the above popular academy was honored by a visit from His Lordship the Bishop, who thus by his presence graciously evinced the warm interest he feels in the advancement—not alone of our Irish College, but of every establishment calculated to impart a sound practical education to the rising generation.

ENTRE RIOS. We have received our usual files of newspapers from Uruguay, but, as usual, contain little or no news. Captain General Urquiza intended giving yesterday (25th inst.) a grand banquet at his house of San José in honor of his successor. All friends of his Excellency, without distinction or special invitation, were requested to attend.

INDIAN INVASION. The Indians have again invaded our frontier, coming down on Colonel Machado's lands, at Queven Salado, not very far from Azul: it is said the Colonel overtook them and recovered 300 head of cattle. Major Ortiz writes from Sauce de Urubí, complaining of the justice of peace refusing him assistance against the savages. The one is Grulo, the other Cocido, and the Indians laugh at both.

MORGAN'S CASE. Received from the Editors of the 'Standard' the sum of $185 mpc, for which I return sincere thanks to the kind contributors. Buenos Ayres, April 26th, 1864.

EXPORTS. During the past month, the exports of country produce for Europe have been: Salted cowhides, 51,847 Da, horsehides, 4907 Dry cowhides, 103,830 Da, horsehides, 5974 Tallow, 243 pipes Wo, 724 boxes Mares' grease, 60 boxes Horsehair, 131 bales Sheep, 10,463 do Woolens, 1856 do
