THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1864.

The Cotton Crop of Paraguay

It will, no doubt, interest our mercantile readers, to learn the real state of the cotton crop in Paraguay. So much has been said respecting the amount of the crop; so varied have been the estimates of the number of bales to be exported, that it was impossible to arrive at any certain conclusion in the premises.

Conceiving, therefore, that this matter was of infinitely more importance to our subscribers than the unmeaning details of Crudo struggles and believing also that it was desirable to know from the Paraguayan Government what action it would take as regards the exporting of the staple, Mr. E. T. Mulhall started for Paraguay on the 2nd inst. On his arrival in Asuncion, he had an interview with the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Finance, the President being temporarily absent at the new encampment at Cerro Leon.

As a matter of course, our brother editor had hardly set foot in the capital of Paraguay, before it was circulated freely through the city that he had arrived for the express purpose of asking from Government a monopoly of the cotton trade. His interview with the Ministers, however, soon dispelled this illusion on the part of the public.

Neither of the Ministers, however, were in a position to say, with any degree of certainty, what the crop would amount to. The President, meantime, seemed to have much clearer ideas on the subject; he had been through many of the country districts, and seen several plantations. The cotton pods (capullos) in the districts near Asuncion had been destroyed by a maggot, but as the plant keeps flowering for 3 or 4 months, only the first pods were lost. His Excellency takes as great an interest in cotton as ourselves, and, in fact, seems to be the only man in Paraguay who fully appreciates the value of the staple.

In answer to our question as to the action of Government, the President most distinctly stated that the cotton trade would, under no circumstances, be interfered with by the Government, and that notwithstanding the most tempting offers which had been received from England and Belgium, he (the President) was determined that the cotton trade of Paraguay should be free.

The Paraguayan Government had bought, and was still buying, cotton, but on a limited scale, and solely for the purpose of sending samples to the different European markets; but all the small shopkeepers through the country were advancing to the planters, and paying prices which even in Manchester cannot be realised.

The bulk of the cotton in Paraguay must be sold in Buenos Ayres, as it will be held by parties who have no means of exporting: we calculate that this year there will probably be eight hundred to a thousand bales of ginned cotton sent down to Buenos Ayres by the traders in Asuncion.

By one of the strangest of anomalies, the Paraguayan shop-keeper can afford to buy cotton at two silver reales per pound, and sell it in Buenos Ayres after paying freight and charges at a less figure—competition with such a class of dealers is utterly out of the question, unless all the known principles of commerce are fallacious.

We shall try however to explain this extraordinary attitude of Paraguayan commerce, which precludes the possibility of a Buenos Ayrean or English merchant purchasing cotton in Paraguay.

First—The exports of Paraguay are limited to yerba and tobacco, the former of which being monopolized by Government is sold only at a certain fixed price, and at times is very scarce and cannot be had. The latter, that is to say tobacco is worthless in the market, owing to the careless manner in which it is cured. The consequence is that the Paraguayan merchant finds no possible means of paying for what he imports save at a serious loss. The selling price of his goods is not therefore based upon what the first cost price of the article is, but rather upon the actual loss in remittances. The shop keeper at Villa Rica or Itaugua pays at the rate of four silver reales a pound for clean cotton, and if he sells at a loss, he puts it on to the price of his goods, and in the end makes the produce pay him the difference.

At present the shop-keepers pay three Paraguayan dollars (ten shillings) per aroba, for seed cotton in the country, when we could only afford at the very highest to pay two dollars placed in Asuncion.

The Government has at present about 203 bales ginned cotton, which will probably arrive per next steamer, but it is not for this market, as it will be shipped by first opportunity to Europe, still the ship brokers and ship captains will be gainers.

At the fortress of Humayta, where there are some ten thousand soldiers, we saw millions of cotton plants, flowering and with cotton. Many would suppose that this cotton being sowed by the soldiers belonged to the Government, but to the credit of that much abused and slandered country, let it be said that so far from such being the case, every soldier who planted cotton has the exclusive right of disposing of same. We saw rooms and rooms full of seed cotton, and the commander of the place stated that he thought the crop would amount to about four thousand arrobes ginned cotton.

Samples of ginned and seed cotton we have at our office, should any party wish to inspect same, also some native wove calico, which sells in Asuncion at 4 reales per yard.

Along the River Paraguay all the cotton plantations have yielded splendid crops, whilst those in the interior have partially missed. The Georgian seed imported from the States as a general rule missed everywhere, whilst the Sea Island came up beautifully.

There may be a few still in Buenos Ayres who question the importance of the cotton trade of Paraguay, but we should advise them to make a trip to that extraordinary country and judge for themselves. The whole power of the country is concentrated in one man, that man says cotton must be grown, and from what we have seen we are inclined to think he will be obeyed.

CHIVILCOY, BRAGADO AND JUNIN.

We are now on the Western frontier. These partidos a few years ago were comparatively valueless because unsettled on by the Irish sheep-farmers. We shall see how profitable they have become to Sr. Saavedra's administration, by the heavy property-taxes now levied off these quasi virgin camps.

Chivilcoy is celebrated for its cereals but unfortunately the list before us affords no guide as to the amount of land under 'chacras,' and is only a confused calendar of names and contributions. We find 20 estancias, the largest of which are: Terrero 10, Villarino 6, and Manuel Lopez 4 sq leagues: the total estancia land is set down at 46 sq. leagues, the only foreigner being Mrs. Cranwell, 3 leagues, and Mr. White 1 league. There are 25 leagues of Government land, but the partido is returned 28 leagues smaller than the Topographic Department describes it. The valuation is 400,000 dols per league. Under the heading lots, which probably means grain farms, we have 22½, valued at 400,000 dols each, and held by 18 individuals. There are 300 other holdings which we take to be house property in the village; among them is Mr. John Morris. The tax gatherers made a haul in this district, increasing the Contribucion by 130 per cent. over 1862. We believe this is the only country which would tolerate with patience such gigantic increase of taxation. Are there no Wat Tylers in B. Ayres?

Bragado is near the Indian territory and farmers seem to dislike the locality: it comprises 1?7 sq. leagues, all Government land except two estancias, 6 leagues each, belonging to Francisco Pla and Mariano Biaus. The minister Dominguez, requested the assessors to value the land at 300,000 dols per league, but they replied that in all conscience it was hardly worth half that figure. Including 50 houses in the village the total Contribucion is only 12 thousand dols, being 20 p ͨ increase on 1863.

Junin contains 15 sq leagues all Government land except a few small plots of ground and one estancia: the latter belongs to Dona Luisa Castro, and is returned in the Topographic list as 3¼ leagues: the old lady insisted she had only three quarters of a sq league, whereupon the Justice of Peace an amiable man named Telesphorus Chaves, wrote to the topographic-president for information, but the latter replied "that he could not bother his head about such trifles" The old lady gained her point, on the total tax, including 76 house holders in the village of Junin, only amounted to 2,893 dols, on which the diligence agents charged a commission of 28 dols depreciated currency (5? pence) for bringing it to town. Nevertheless the collectors raised the Contribucion 103 per cent on the previous year.

It would be manifestly incorrect to take the returns for these three partidos as true of the present time. In nine months a great change has taken place, and many Irish estancieros, such as Mr. James Kavanagh in Bragado, and Mr. Darby Tormey in Junin have acquired large estancias on the frontier. During the recent drought, numbers of our countrymen have driven their flocks thither, and thus saved them from total loss. The Irish settlers in Chivilcoy, Bragado, and Junin, may be estimated at 200; and the value of foreign property in land and stock at £100,000 sterling. The foreigners own one-tenth of the land held by private parties, the Government lands being worth the large sum of 40 millions dols m/c.

THE 'POSADAS' EPISODE.

We have another instance of Tribuna humbug in the little anecdote about the Postmaster-general, at the Chambers on Friday last. That misinformed journal stated that Sor Posadas cheerfully aided in loading a pistol for the Crudos, although belonging to the Cocido party, and that by a strange liberality of sentiment he apostrophized the fellows who swarmed through the Chambers with the insignia of rowdies, as the "real people of B. Ayres." God forgive us! we could not take the half drunken navvies armed with knives and pistols as a fair sample of Argentine citizens, nor could we believe that the liberal and enlightened gentleman who has travelled through those parts of Europe where real liberty exists, could fall into such weakness.

The facts of the case are simply these: Mr. Posadas, who is like ourself, neither Crudo nor Cocido, went to the Chambers to vote against a pretended election, which he does not hesitate to term as immoral and disgraceful. Some one asked him to lend his walking cane, which he did, and it was presently turned to the profane use of a ramrod. We can understand how disgusted was the honorable Deputy to see the Legislative Chambers converted into a rowdy depot. The pistol-man returned the cane, "with thanks," and one of the by-standers said "in the name of the people." "Muy bien, said Mr. Posadas, but the real people is here," pointing to the Deputies assembled inside

The retort was very apropos, and intended as a reproach to the armed mob that had been admitted to the Chambers, under the pretext of defending popular rights. It displays more ingenuity than sincerity on the part of our colleague to make Sor Posadas pay a compliment to a faction, with whose recent conduct he is both disgusted and indignant. The honorable Deputy's sang froid, in rebuking the armed mob around him is highly creditable.

REVOLVER PRACTISE.

Sor Sandalio Lima junr. publishes an explanation in the columns of the 'Pueblo' of that playful event, his firing revolvers out of a coach window as he drove down calle Bolivar, on Friday night. He states that he had been spending the evening at the house of Mdlles. Miguens, and as these ladies had evinced a public enthusiasm for the Cocidos, it seems some of the Crudos attempted to scale the garden-walls, to alarm, if not injure, the fair inmates. Sor. Lima and some heroic companions, inspired with a feeling of gallantry offered to remain all night, to keep off the invaders, which the young ladies declined, with thanks.

The Cocido knights errant next got into a coach, and drove to the corner of calles Bolivar and San Juan although it does not appear they resided there, or had any special business in the locality. A group of 16 men suddenly attacked them, firing revolvers at random: the knights paid no attention to the first volley, taking it perhaps as a joke, but when their assailants pursued the carriage and kept up the firing, the former simply discharged a few shots from the windows, which caused their arrest. It is to be regretted that the Policia could not find any Crudo riflemen near, and Mr. Lima and his friends were taken to the Policia, where, upon declaring that they meant no harm they were at once liberated.

We think, however, it would be as well if the authorities intimate to these gentlemen that it is not exactly 'the thing' to fire revolvers out of a coach windows as they might possibly hit the wrong man, and in Europe there is a strong prejudice against such practises.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-day the new Deputies for the Chamber of B. Ayres are to be sworn in: as it is not at all likely they will resign after such strenuous (we will not say laudable) efforts to get into the Legislature, a row is anticipated. We hope neither Crudos nor Cocidos will molest the Standard office, as we love both equally.

At 10 a.m. a funeral service will take place in the Cathedral, for the late Rev. Dr. Aguero, Rector of the National College. The students will probably attend out of respect to their late venerable, though inefficient, head

On Monday 2nd prox. will take place at the Bolsa the usual drawing of National Bonds for the Loan, Oct 1860. The coupons will also be paid at the Maua Bank, on any day after that date.

No one has yet been named Rector of the National College in this city. Dr, Larroque, after his resignation of the Concepcion college to make room for that pious divine, of pistol celebrity, Padre Curcio, was spoken of. As rumors of infidelity and Renan proclivities, are general, it would be well to exact an oath of belief in the Divinity of Jesus Christ, from the gentlemen to whom we entrust the education of youth.

The talk about resignation on the part of Governor Saavedra and the gaucho Minister is a mere invention and would only display weakness It would also perhaps hasten an event which seems but a question of time—the abolition of the Provincial Government of B. Ayres.

Deputy Blanco of Mendoza writes to Consul Hutchinson that his seed has turned out well: the three classes, Sea Island, New Orleans, and Georgian, were supplied from this office, and it would have been more regular for Mr. B. to have written to us: the information is, however, equally cheering in whatever manner it comes.

We are glad to notice the revival of the Foreign Racing Club, which will hold a meeting next Sunday. Counting such energetic friends of the turf as Messrs, Anderson, Davidson, White, &c., there is no reason why they may not at least make a more respectable show than last Sunday's Argentine races at Belgrano. It is a pity that our countrymen in the camp, with so many facilities, do not aid the Club.

The foreign merchants, it is said, will shortly be entertained at a splendid ball, by one of their body, which will be, according to rumor, one of the most magnificent seen in this city for some years.

Among the sanguinary consequences of the election riots is a deadly pistol encounter which took place yesterday at the Custom-house. It seems the Nation Government did not follow the Duke of Newcastle's precept enforcing the abstinence of civil servants from political broils. One Gomez (no relative of Cañada Gomez) a capataz in the Custom-house, was so violent a Cocido as to excite the animosity of a no less violent Crudo named Conesa (brother to the Colonel) also employed in that department. Both gentlemen, it seems, went to business, yesterday morning with revolvers, and crossing the 'patio' saluted each other with an ounce of lead. Gomez has had his arm broken and Conesa is unhurt. The blame of firing first is thrown on Gomez, and Conesa went to the Policia to deliver himself up, but was, we believe, set at liberty.

Notwithstanding the central position of the Custom-house, and its importance, the public attention is not sufficiently turned to its flagrant abuses and chronic evils. It has always been regarded a nuisance, by our merchants, but since the election riots it is positively insufferable. It resembles a camp of soldiers, for, we learn, all the clerks and peons are armed. Moreover there is no despatching anything; one merchant has been now three weeks vainly endeavouring to despatch 30 carts, but he can hardly get even two. Colored paper is not to be had in town, and the booksellers despair of getting any out of the custom-house until the election riots be over!

A serious numerical error appeared in yesterday's 'Standard,' respecting the military levies in Paraguay. The number was written 20,000 in the copy, and corrected in the proof, but the compositor unfortunately left in the erroneous 90,000, though not with any intent to alarm the nervous.

There was a supplemental mail last night, per Tevere, to the Jersey, which leaves Montevideo to morrow The French mails will probably come in to day with dates to March 26th.

The inflammatory editor, Dr. Carriego, passed through this city recently, en route for Concepcion He will hardly pull well with the new Governor of Entre Rios, although he may in vain solicit the glory of martyrdom.

The 'Nacional' states that Canon Alvarez, of Parana, will probably succeed to the Rectorship of the National College. We hear a very good character of this clergyman, and virtue is not always an ex officio qualification in Buenos Ayres, whatever Dr. Costa may think.

The opera for to-night has been postponed till Saturday: Elisir d'Amore will probably draw a number of English and other foreigners. The natives don't like pieces which lack of gravity.

The news, per Pavon, is scanty. Another revolution in Cordoba, on the 18th April; several parties arrested Also a row in Salta quelled: the latter put down by flogging the delinquents publicly. Not a bad idea.

The 'Nacion Argentina' and 'Pueblo' give alarming accounts of raising the gaucho militias in the camp, and insinuate a revolution by the Provincial Government against President Mitre The 'Nacional' has another 'sensation' article, predicting the annexation of the Correntine Missiones by Paraguay. We have little fear for stage thunder, although it sounds grandly.

Fight between the Chaco Indians and the Woodcutters

The Indians, in great force, attacked the woodcutters, who were squatted near Bella Vista, on the right hand side of the Parana. The fight was a hot one, and several fell on either side. the woodcutters, having at last to pursue their usual occupations, 'cut their sticks.' The wife of one of them threw herself into the water, with a child in her arms, and managed to escape to the other side of the river by means of swimming.—'Ferro-Carril del Rosario,' 26th April.

That paper says that the reason of this skirmish is not known. We suppose it is in revenge of the Indian killed in Corrientes, mentioned a few days ago. It will be remembered, that on the Chaco Indians applying for punishment to be inflicted on the culprit, they stated that if their demand was not acceded to they would kill the woodcutters.

COTTON IN MENDOZA

The following letter, addressed to the British Consul, Mr. Hutchinson, appears in the 'Ferro-Carril del Rosario':—

Mendoza, April 8, 1861.

Mr. Consul Hutchinson Rosario.

Dear Sir,

You being one of the most active agents in introducing into the country the cultivation of cotton, I take the liberty of addressing you. My present object is to relate the experiments I have made in the various classes, and remit you a sample of the common kind which I have already picked, it being intended for seed. From the experiments tried by me, I have obtained the most happy result in the following qualities—

Island—Long fibre, white flower, seed adhering to the cotton.

Upland—Green, short fibre, white flower, seed green and adhering to the cotton.

Brazil or stained—Strong plant, yellow flower, black seed, and clear of the fibre.

New Orleans—White flower, seed small, black and clean.

Of all classes, I will gather from 200 to 300 lbs., and intend (D.V.) to plant on a larger scale next season.

I have the honor to remain, &c.,

EUSEBIO BLANCO.

ELISIR D'AMORE.

If one person in B. Ayres be justified in crying anathema on the elections, that man is Sr Pestalardo; for, if not owing to the elections, to what can be attributed the beggarly account of empty benches on Tuesday night, when he presented to a Porteño public Donizetti's favorite opera, and one which, for the last 24 years, has never failed to draw crowded houses in London and Paris—Elisir d'Amore.

In the Elisir d'Amore, as played on Tuesday night, Sra Briol was herself all through the piece, and in the last act the duet between her and Dr. Dulcamara was encored. We are sure she forgave her audience this gothic anachronism, judging from the increased playfulness and sweetness displayed by her on her second appearance. Lelmi, on several occasions was loudly cheered, and his grotesque fun kept the audience in good spirits all through Taking all in all, it was a complete success, as far as the singers were concerned. Although the performance did not commence till half an hour behind time, it was over by half-past eleven, a good hour for quiet people to get home. The Elisir will be repeated again to-night to, we hope, a large audience.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Reckless Driving and its consequences—On Thursday afternoon, as a private carriage was coming full tilt round the corner of Montevideo and Piedad, the end of the pole caught a respectable man, to appearance a Frenchman, in the back, and sent him spinning. Coachee was driving right on to the prostrate man, when an Englishman, who was passing, turned the horses' heads aside, and was rewarded for his uncalled for interference by the coachman trying to twine his whip round his head and shoulders. Seeing the sufferer safe on the pavement, our countryman, who seemed to hold some outrageous ideas on the subject of being whipped, brought a heavy stick, which he had in his hand, down with all his force on jarvie's knees, which had the effect of making that party forget the dignity of his livery and his high position in the world, and shout as though he were having his throat cut. It is perfectly absurd for the police to pretend not to notice these public pests, for the coachmen of Buenos Ayres as frequently drive, standing on the board and looking back, as sitting on the dickies and looking forward.

Why waste their Sweetness on the Desert air?—We have all heard of one of the old French emigré noblemen, who made a good living in London, during the days of his affliction, by making salads. Why do not some of our countrymen turn their attention to operatic criticisms? Some of them are 'dabs' at it, for on Tuesday evening it was our fortune (or misfortune) to be near some of them, and we were enchanted and annoyed at their interrupting pieces of music, by enunciating, in a pig's whisper, their opinion of Dr. Dulcamara's gastronomic powers. These criticisms had the chief essence of wit, brevity—for example, 'How that old cock pitches into it.' Some of them were evidently afflicted with the dance of St. Vitus, for whenever the drum took any part in the music, they commenced stamping with their feet, These fast parties might make a handsome income by teaching the young Porteños the 'double-shuffle', as executed on the plantations on the Ohio. We don't charge anything for this advice.

Mr. Wells' Balloon—We are glad to learn that the famous æronaut has concluded a very advantageous contract with the Municipality to make three ascents in his atmospheric conveyance from the Plaza, on the 23rd, 24th, and 25th proximo (Independence Days.) He will go up, first time alone, and afterwards accompanied by an attractive young lady. He is to ascend at least 500 yards, but he calculates on a mile and a half. Next week he will exhibit his 'ghost' at Colon.

Daring Theft—Some villain, not having the fear of Sr. Cazon before his eyes, has stolen one of the hind-quarters of a cow, belonging to a person called Jacob Heber. The said Jacob, who has been for many years, engaged in cattle driving, had on one of his journeys reached the front of the Cathedral of Buenos Ayres, and was so pleased with the locality, that he took up his station there. He was a very quiet character, never interfering with any one, and on this account the theft is all the more scandalous.

ON 'CHANGE

April 27, 1864.

Notwithstanding all the political turmoil, paper is each day displaying greater firmness. Patacons opened at 28 85 and closed at 28 80, but there was not the slightest animation on the Bolsa. Time sales were limited exclusively to this and next month, which shows that wild speculation has ceased for awhile. We are told that the present transactions in specie are restricted exclusively to the requirements of trade, and that although the price of patacons would show that ounces were only worth 461, still ounces are intrinsically worth from three to four dollars more.

Paraguayan cotton was the subject of conversation on the Bolsa to-day. Our readers will learn with surprise that notwithstanding all the pooh poohing which our cotton efforts received, some of the leading mercantile houses in the Plate have already made proposals to the Paraguayan Government for the cotton crop, and met with point blank refusal. The cotton crop of Paraguay will probably amount to some two or three thousand bales, estimating the bales at from 3 to 400lb each.

The Pavon arrived this morning, bringing down $13,000 in Bolivianos, and 215 condors. Things in the Provinces look quieter than at home.

HEALTH FOR THE INVALID

BY

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

LOSS OF APPETITE—LOSS OF STRENGTH—LOSS OF HEALTH.

The marvellous effect of this fine medicine upon the system is such as to immediately rally all the vital functions, the appetite is soon restored, a full flow of spirits quickly follows, the body becomes immensely invigorated with a certainty of restored health: fresh air and a little exercise are necessary to bring about a permanent state of things. Holloway's Pills impart tone and energy to the most delicate constitutions, and in a manner as to astonish all who take them. By their extraordinary virtues they have obtained the largest sale of any medicine in the world.

HEAD, LUNGS, AND STOMACH.

Look to the regularity of the functions of these foundations of vitality. Holloway's Pills restore to order the slightest departure from the proper action, and therefore may be considered as the regulators of the main spring of human life. Apoplexy can always be prevented if the proper action of the bowels be attended to, which this famous medicine never fails to accomplish. Disorders of the head and heart often terminate suddenly and fatally from obstructions in the system, which might generally be prevented by taking small and regular doses of this fine corrective.

FEMALE DISORDERS.

No medicine can be so infallibly relied upon for overcoming all obstructions as these Pills. They never fail to restore a healthy action throughout the system. The printed instructions will enable all to correct the first symptoms of disease, and avert many serious maladies. Holloway's Pills soon change the sickly and sallow complexion, thus restoring the bloom of health. To females entering into womanhood, or at the turn of life, these Pills will be found invaluable. They should be taken two or three times a week as a safeguard against cramps, headaches, palpitations of the heart, and all nervous affections, so distressing at certain periods.

SICK HEADACHE, INDIGESTION OR FOUL STOMACH, AND DISORDERED LIVER.

In such a deranged state of health the food is decomposed instead of being digested, and proves poisonous rather than nutritious. This derangement can be at once set right by a course of these purifying and digestive Pills, which have acquired for themselves an imperishable fame for the mastery they have constantly exercised over the digestive organs. Holloway's Pills increase the appetite, regulate the liver, repress biliousness, healthily stimulate the kidneys, and move the bowels in a more wholesome and natural manner than any other medicine.

DISORDERS INCIDENTAL TO CHILDREN.

The liver and stomach of children are, from many causes, often out of order, as they are allowed to eat many things that would disagree with their parents, hence their blood becomes impure, and liable to take any disease that is prevalent, and that in the worst form. One Pill, reduced to a powder, and put into a little water, given occasionally to children of twelve months old, and to those of three or four years, three Pills, and to others of seven years of age, four Pills—will always make children look blooming and healthy. Seventy-five out of every hundred do not reach the age of maturity. Holloway's Pills would not only preserve their health, but save the lives of thousands. Many people foolishly think that children only require a little medicine twice a year.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:—

Ague
Asthma
Bilious Complaints
Blotches on the Skin
Bowel Complaints
Colics
Constipation of the Bowels
Consumption
Debility
Dropsy
Dysentery
Erysipelas
Female Irregularities
Fevers of all kinds
Fits
Gout
Head-ache
Indigestion
Inflammation
Jaundice
Liver Complaints
Lumbago
Piles
Rheumatism
Retention of Urine
Scrofula, or King's Evil
Sore throats
Stone and Gravel
Secondary Symptoms
Tic-Douloureux
Tumours
Ulcers
Venereal Affections
Worms of all kinds
Weakness from whatever cause.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world, at the following prices:—1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s. each Pot.

 There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N.B.—Direction for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box, and can be had in any language, even in Chinese.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Furred Tongue, Tainted Breath.—No personal disadvantages can be more annoying than these disagreeable afflictions, which are quickly removed by Holloway's Pills. The powerful cleansing properties will soon rectify impaired digestion, and take away all its vexatious symptoms. When the constitution, from climate, excess, or other causes, is enfeebled, a regulated course of this medicine will effect a complete change throughout the system, and restore to the worn out invalid that ease and strength which he thought had flown for ever, so long had he been a stranger to both. An occasional course of these justly celebrated Pills is recommended to all feeling "ill at ease," who, indeed, can rarely point out the origin or seat of their morbid sensations.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUÁ & Cº

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every six months

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest forfeited by the death of other shareholders in their Class whose capital, however, is returned.

3rd. With loss of capital, by death of the insurer All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class

All these subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.

The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (fincas), and with the greatest security.

The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company

Subscriptions in Paper Money.

The Directors, wishing to enlarge the operations of the Society, have acceded to the request of many people in this city, and determined to issue shares payable in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, under the following conditions: —

Article 65—From the 1st of April, 1864, shares shall be issued to such persons as may wish to pay in Paper Money of Buenos Ayres, and in accordance with Article 47 chapter 5 of the Statutes of the Society the lowest sum receivable being $200 annually, payable in one sum, or in instalments, subject to the following rules:

1st—For Paper Money Subscribers sections will be opened and kept separate from Silver Money Subscribers.

2nd—The liquidation of the sums belonging to the sections of Paper Money Subscribers will be administered according to Article 31 of the Statutes, and for account of these particular sections.

By these means the Directory hopes to gain its object which is to enable the poorer classes to enjoy all the advantages of the Society.
