THE YERBA MONOPOLY.

Some few weeks past, when the Chado and Cocido question was first appearing...

As many of our readers may take an interest in the question, we extract the following from our Paraguayan colleague.

It requires very little foresight to perceive that the Yerba question, is destined to become a matter of serious importance in the River Plate for two reasons.

First, because the Portefolios wish to Paraguy cheap.

Second, because any project hostile to the Paraguayan Government or the industry of the country, no matter how ridiculous or absurd will meet with a popularity in Buenos Ayres which will sweep down all opposition.

That the Portefolios should wish to have cheap yerba, we are by no means surprised, but that they should seek to force the Paraguayan yerba into their markets at their own figures is as illicite as preposterous as it is absurd.

The Argentine Government is blessed with the same fertile soil, endowed (in theory) with the finest institutions, we confess that it is a matter of surprise and wonder to us that a people who are so anxious to have cheap meat do not produce and fabricate their own.

Oh, but it is a hateful monopoly of President Lopez's about the Portefolios, and cannot be tolerated—monopolies are illegal monopolies are tyrannical, monopolies on such an article of consumption must be abolished.

That monopolies are illegal we deny; on the contrary they are the life of Europe by some of the most civilized nations. In the long history of international reciprocations, we challenge this naylight M. Peliza to show us an instance of where one nation forced upon another the surrender of its monopolies.

Nay, at this moment, when Portefolios are growing so much about Paraguayan monopoly in yerba, they are themselves forming a more objectionable one in the same article, in the province of Sorrento.

What say Governor Lagana and Minister Camello? that they fear the Yerba Company will fall through. If the gentlemen of the B. Ayres Bolea succeed in this scheme, it will deprive the country people of the right to a beneficial staple, and cause perhaps a revolution.

France has also her monopolies, as every one who uses her tobacco well knows. Spain has her monopoly in salt.

Paraguay is purely an agricultural country, and the very monopoly which M. Peliza so much complains of has been the direct and absolute means by which Government has been enabled to liberate the people from taxation.

The Paraguayan steamers ply the river's and connect Paraguay with the ocean, their locomotives are now binding towns and villages together, and elicited some very pungent replies in the 'Semanao'.

Candidly speaking, we think Portefolios have little to say about monopolies, when they threaten to cut the price below their rotten bank and dishonored paper dollar.

The history of commerce, affords sufficient proof of what M. Peliza's proposed law, if enforced, would result in. It will not lessen the consumption, because only the wealthy use this description of yerba.

We question, if there is a country in the world where trade is more unimpeded, or commerce more regulated, than in the River Plate, not that we mean to make any wholesale charges against the foreign mercantile body, which, we are proud to say, is composed of men of the strictest rectitude and most honorable principle.

A few days ago we paid a visit to Messrs. Vandeveld's factory of pastoral and farming implements in Calle Buenos Orden.

The governor of the city is present; strong vizing. The Military legion 300 rank and file, the 2nd bat. 3rd, and another infantry battalion 200, making up 800 men.

The recent Indian invasion near Azul has alarmed all the Southern districts. The Brazilians overtook an Italian officer with dispatches and murdered him.

The province of Corrientes is at present so full of cattle, that the estanciaeros are actually obliged to export to Paraguay and Entre Rios.

An independence month begins next week. We advise the public that it is usual to withhold in honor of the anniversary whose brick and lime no mortal stands in the plan.

Many people say that the French pocket news will drive the election for out of the Corrientes and Concordia.

The weather is at present very variable. On Tuesday night we had rain, but it seems only in the city, on Wednesday night frost, and on yesterday a fine clear sunshine.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Sheridan law-suit has at last terminated. We have not heard the terms of arrangement, but congratulate all the claimants on so happy an issue.

There was much exaggeration in the rumor that the book-keeper of the Northern Railway had been attacked by robbers.

His place, on the desk. Besides the Condo martyr of last Friday, 'rudo' has paid the forfeit of his temerity.

HORRIBLE CAMP BARBARITIES.

One British man killed and two wounded.

The band of the murderer is again at work at the camp. Every day brings a new victim and adds to the interminable catalogue of unpunished crime.

On Sunday night, 24th inst. Mr. Bernardus of Lobos was murdered at the door of his cook-house, by a native who came to the house.

Alas! there is no truce sentence, for the state of barbarism and bloodshed to which the country parts of B. Ayres have rapidly descended can find no parallel among semi-civilized nations.

FLORES' MOVEMENTS.

The 'Informa' of April 27th has letters from Salto 23rd inst. 'On the 10th, Flores crossed the Rio Negro at Quinteros and Toros, with an army of 800 men.

in their route to the Brazilian frontier in the department of Salto, Colonel Urquiza, who lately gained a triumph at Constitucion, commands 300 men, of whom 60 are South of the Arapay, clearing the district of the filibusters.

Major Roman gained a victory, at Treinta Tres, 24th inst. over the rebel band of Uru, killing 4, taking 6 prisoners, and dispersing the rest, who fled to the mountains.

The fortifications at Camelonas are going on actively; ramparts were raised, 5 feet thick, and a line of circumvallation has been made with a trench six feet deep.

The 'Comercio' states that 'General Moreno, along with Munoz, Rodriguez and Aparicio were comfortably situated at 23rd inst. on the estancia of Palmares.

IMPORTANT FROM CORRIENTES.

CHAMBERS OF B. AYRES.

NEW DEPUTIES SWORN IN. Yesterday, at half-past one, the ominous ceremony of swearing in the gentlemen elected by 21 parishes and refused by 10, as Deputies for the province, came off at the Chambers.

There was a large number of persons in the house, but no disorder. The gentlemen who took their seats were D. D. Ignacio Corrientes, Carlos D. A. Anco, Darlo Roca, Isaac Blanco, Pedro Naco, Manuel Quintana, M. A. Montesdena, Dr. Kier, Luis Mercedino, Augustin Saavedra. The Corrientes members did not attend, but it is far from making a quarrel, really, seeing that the Municipality and all the public bodies fail to make this almost difficult duty, it is well dispensed with.

After the swearing-in, the recommended Chamber proceeded to elect suitable officers. Those on whom such honorable distinctions fell were:— President—D. Ventura Martinez, 1st Vice—Dr. Manuel Quintana, 2nd Vice—D. Ignacio Corrientes.

The 'Comercio' accuses the candidate of unjustly neglecting Sr. Harbo, with bringing the natives to fight at elections. We never mentioned the candidate's name, but accused the official Government of not having done duty. The neighbors of Lujan can prove that the W. railway works were stopped; our colleague loses time in trying to cook the sun.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU & CO.
 No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and "precaritated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
 The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
 The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
 These advantages have now, hitherto, been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working men & servants, on all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of misadventures of old age, and of spending them in the innocent gambling, lotteries and other frivolities.
 The Bank of Mau & Co. are also pleased that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres following the example of their friends in Montevideo.
