OUR CREDIT ABROAD.

Previous to the arrival of the last French packet it was generally believed by people who had no means of knowing to the contrary, that the credit of this country abroad was unbounded.

NO MORE BURNING.

Such is the startling news we read in Sunday morning's 'Tribuna.' No more paper money is to be burnt; the Minister of Finance believes that it is a most stupid measure, and not calculated in the slightest to reduce the value of ounces.

We confess that we were unprepared for this startling intelligence, since only the other day it was said that the Minister, having negotiated a loan with the merchants, would burn four millions of paper money in the first days of May.

The Minister of Finance seems to think that he has a discretionary power respecting the burning of the paper money. Now, we hold that he has not, and that the omission to burn the extra duties is a direct violation of the law, a breach of good faith, and an act most damaging to the credit of the country.

M. Gonzalez, in offering his opinions as to the advisability of carrying out the law, assumes to himself a post which he has no right to. People do not want his views, but only ask him to comply with the law.

No wonder that in this country there is wanting that respect for the laws which is the great guarantee of public safety, when we find men in such exalted positions as M. Gonzalez, the very first to violate them; and then, with gratuitous audacity, give his reasons for so doing. The question is one of a rather serious character; it involves the character of our public men, nay, even the integrity of the nation. If we are to abolish the burnings, then why not also abolish the extra duties.

The following specious reasons offered by the minister for suspending the burning of the paper money, we take from our colleague, the 'Tribuna.' People may form various judgments of the matter, but to our eyes it is nothing more nor less than a new plan to circulate more paper.

Dr. Gonzalez proposes as follows: To totally suspend the burning of millions of paper on account of the last emissions, delivering to the Provincial Bank, public national funds along with the established amortisation to a value equal to the amount at present burned. For example, if the amount of the last emissions to be burned be 100,000,000 of paper money, in place of burning 200,000 monthly, the National Government shall deliver to the Bank 100,000,000 in public national bonds, with an interest of 6 per cent. per annum and an amortisation of 1 per cent. per annum.

By these means two advantages are gained. 1st. It eases the national treasury of the burden of burning two millions monthly, or 15 per cent. of the produce of its rents.

2nd. It capitalises and guarantees for the bank the millions which, without bettering the state of paper, should have been burned. The first advantage is self evident. The second becomes more clear, on the following simple reflections: These 20 million ounces say 4 millions of silver dollars, would serve as a guarantee for the special loan, which essentially requires the conversion of paper, besides producing a part of the revenue which the loan would render necessary, and which, by another method, would have to be deducted needlessly, from the resources of the bank.

AWKWARD PREDICAMENT.

On last Sunday the residents in this country had a rather painful proof of the utter insufficiency of our present legislative system, Gov. Saavedra attended the Provincial Chambers with his message ready cut and dry, to inaugurate the Provincial Chambers, but as by the terms of the Constitution a certain number of members is requisite to form what is called a quorum, the Governor was unable to open the chambers, in consequence of the required number not being present.

Our readers must be aware that there is at present a very serious split amongst our politicians, the Crudos or local party being considerably inferior in numbers to the Cocido or National party. To such a height has party spirit been carried that it is more than probable we shall now have no more Provincial Chambers—as the Cocido members seem determined not to attend. The result of all this will most probably be that Gov. Saavedra must resign, and as a matter of course D. Norberto de la Riestra will succeed him.

Looking at the matter in this light we cannot say that there is much reason to regret the determination of the Cocido members. Still it is rather humiliating to be obliged to admit that the working of our legislative system is all out of joint. We have too many Chambers, Deputies, Senators, &c.; and until we have a simpler legislative system, we shall be always subject to the caprices of politicians.

made at his magnificent arsenal in Asuncion. It most, however, be borne in mind that Mr. Whitehead and his mechanics have their hands full with the new mail steamer on the stocks, the dry dock, and other heavy works. Besides, these vessels of very light draught, such as are used in the Indian rivers can be procured sooner and probably cheaper in England. As it is difficult to bring out these river boats, we suppose they will be shipped in pieces, and put together when they reach their destination.

The navigation of the Tibiquari and Confuso has also the attention of Government: the first intersects that rich territory lying between Villa Rica, and El Pilar, and great fiscal advantages are offered to all parties sending down produce by this river. We may, therefore, fairly conclude that the development of these hitherto neglected highways has succeeded Cotton-planting, among the 'hobbies' of what Argentines call the capricious despotism of Paraguay.

The works of the Southern Railway are going ahead. The cuttings near the Lomas are very slight, in some places not exceeding two feet. It is gratifying to see so many natives at work. There are also Basques, Italians, and an Irish among the navvies. One gang is at present building a bridge over the Lomas road, where they have an encampment of tents, and others are scattered over the country as far as San Vicente.

As an instance of the enormous rise in the value of land in the Lomas de Zamorra, we may mention that a youth, whose parents died some seven years ago, was left 40 squares of land, but the valuation being only $300 per square, it hardly sufficed to pay for his schooling. Luckily, he held possession of the land until the commencement of the Southern Railway, and has now sold it to various English residents, realizing $600,000 mpc. A friend of ours bought a plot some time ago for $10,000, for which he has been offered $50,000, and he refused the offer.

A fearful riot took place in calle Parque, on Sunday night: the neighbors were alarmed by several shots, but the occurrence remains in the greatest mystery, and we can hardly expect much information from the Police. Next Thursday will be the festival of the Ascension of Our Lord, and a strict holiday, as in all Roman Catholic countries. There will be high Mass at the Cathedral.

To-day takes place the trial trip of the Eva, which will leave the Mole at 9 a.m. for the Tigre. We understand that President Mitre and a select company will attend the excursion: there will be a 'dejeuner a la fourchette.' On Sunday a Doctor of Laws was thrown out of his gig in the calle Largo, Barracas, but fortunately not hurt.

The American pastor gave a prayer meeting at Mr. Marshall's Barracas, on Sunday evening, which was largely attended. D. Andres Lamas was expected to leave yesterday evening per Salto, for Montevideo; and his departure was spoken of in connection with the current and contradictory rumors of an arrangement with Flores, and Brazilian armed intervention.

We regret to learn that the Premier, Sr. Rawson, has been confined to bed for some days past. It was not ungenerous of the 'Pueblo' to attack a man under the circumstances. We hope he will soon be able to return to the Cabinet of which he is both the honor and support.

There are rumors of Governor Saavedra's resignation, and we think he would signally serve his country by abandoning a post which has neither gained glory from his administration nor imparted respect to his declining years. From so disastrous a Government, so incompetent a ministry, and so disgraceful a camp administration, any change must be for the better, and we would gladly say 'Adieu,' if his successor were the able and vigorous President of the Senate, D. Norberto Riestra, on whom the Government must devolve in case Sr. Saavedra patriotically retires.

It is probable we shall have no Provincial Chambers, unless the Saavedra Acosta party consent to give up the premises in Calle Moreno. The Cocido members will not attend, and, of course, the Chambers cannot be opened without a quorum.

The rumors about Oriental affairs are manifold and important. The Brazilian fleet, with an army of 10,000 men, was said to be momentarily expected. According to another account, President Aguirre and General Flores had agreed on the basis of a pacific arrangement. Either of these stories seems not unlikely.

The Marquis de Olinja has brought us five sacks of seed cotton, from Curumbá, Matto Grosso, which we intend to purchase, but it is a pity that the staple was not ginned before shipment, as the freight becomes enormous in proportion with the value of the consignment.

Mr. Wheelwright says in his last letter that he is 'sally disappointed' the 'finco' is considered owing to the bad reputation of the Argentine Government in England. It is said only £30,000 has been taken, on 23 per cent. of the capital now required. There is a sum of £400,000 taken in this country, but this cannot be relied on to construct the line. Again, it was rumored yesterday on 'Change,' that the shares were all taken up by the two financial companies, under whose auspices it had been introduced, but this requires confirmation.

The 'National' states that the Provincial Government has ordered the burning of eight millions mpc. of the 10 millions due by the Nat. Government for this purpose. The Senators Lavollé, Lecioz, Acha, and Bosch have resigned their seats in the Provincial Chamber: it is likely all the Cocidos will do the same, as they consider the Chambers disgraced.

The Congress Chamber of Deputies will meet to-day at 3 p.m., in preparatory session: the 'National' mentions a new box for the gentlemen of the Press. It is thought both Chambers will be solemnly opened by President Mitre on the 9th inst.

The favorite opera of Norma will be given to-night. This is the best role in the repertoire of our company, and brings fully into play the different talents of the rival prima-donne.

ERRATUM. In Saturday's paper we gave a list of the exports of Buenos Ayres in 1862 for six thousand acres follow: read 'six hundred thousand.'

OPENING OF THE CHAMBERS. On Sunday at half-past 12 o'clock H. E. the Governor and the ministers Acosta and Dominguez, dressed in grand-tenue, his Excellency's coachman, the coach and the four white horses, were ready for the august ceremonial of reading the message (which we noticed under his Excellency's arm) and inaugurating the Provincial Chambers.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

The New York correspondent of the Evening Star states that the Federal Government will surrender the barque Saxon, the British ship seized by the Federal cruiser Vanderbilt at the Cape of Good Hope.

Great Fire at Greenock.

Greenock, 11 March, ten p.m. Shortly before nine o'clock, the sugar house of Messrs Crawhall and Co. was discovered to be on fire. The fire originated in the upper portion of the building, which is eight stories in height. The fire has now reached the lowest story, and there is no probability of any portion of the building being saved. The damage is roughly estimated at £20,000. This sugar house was destroyed by fire exactly two years ago, and was subsequently rebuilt. The whole is covered by insurance.

THE KENNING AUCTION.

At the Cork assizes, on Monday, before Mr. Justice Keogh, six men were put forward and indicted for having at Queenstown, without license from her Majesty, agreed to enlist and enter service as sailors on board the Kearsage, the same being an American ship of war, contrary to the provisions of the Foreign Enlistment Act. The prisoners all pleaded guilty, and having entered into their own securities to appear for judgment when called on, were released from custody.

A Great Comet Predicted.

The following is an extract of a letter just received from Melbourne:—"Professor Newmayer, on a three years' scientific visit from Bavaria, tells us that in 1865 a comet shall come so close as to endanger this our earth; and should it not attach itself to us (as our globe is quicksilver to another, nor annihilate us the sight will be most beautiful to behold. During three nights we shall have no darkness, but be bathed in the brilliant light of the blazing train! The professor was leaving Australia for Bavaria, so that we may hear more of this on his reaching Europe."/>

The Florida.

The Confederate cruiser Florida, after procuring the necessary supply of coals at Madeira, put to sea on the 20th ultimo—whether pursued by the St. Louis or not our advices do not say. The report of her being blockaded in Funchal Bay on the 6th instant is therefore without foundation.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUD & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. — BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the 60 great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo, Buenos Ayres— that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maud & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings with interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other rivalities.

The Bank of Maud & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 10th 1863.
