CRICKETERS.

Buenos Ayres, May 6, 1864. To the Editors of the "Standard." Gentlemen, The Buenos Ayres Cricketers were ready to start for Montevideo yesterday, when they were disappointed by the receipt of a note from the secretary of the Montevideo Club postponing the match for a more convenient opportunity. You will oblige me by publishing these few lines for the information of the members of the B. A. Club. Yours faithfully, FRANK PARISH.

In every Age and Nation

A fine set of teeth has been considered an essential element of female beauty, and dignified usefulness. When perfectly they exert a spell potent as that of Duse's, while all the other beauties and attractions of the human frame combined, cannot atone for the loss of this one. No grace or feature can, however, declare its independence of the others, all are intended to act together, and not separately, and to produce a pleasing effect good teeth, as a part of beauty's mystic enchantment, are as one typical and essential. Left to themselves they spontaneously deteriorate, as if their Persian beauty were too delicate for the wild winds of earthliness. Those who do not trifle with nature pay regretful attention to the fact that she has bestowed. So long as we do her reverence it is man's native right to be happy. Enjoyment is the universal condition of pain and discomfort are but the casualties, the exceptions excepting a tender good - the value of nature being as commonly her grievance have been known. In no part of the animal organization is the effects of neglect prove so disastrous as in the economy of the teeth. From "A Practical Treatise on the Teeth," Messrs. Gilchrist, who supply Artificial Teeth on their patented irrefragable of climate or disfigurement may be seen by reference to our advertisement column.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU & CO.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, workmen, & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1893.

WILLIAM FERGUSON AND CO.,
57-DEFENSA-57.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [p] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five dollars currency, or one thousand dollars after the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising it, free in the public newspapers.
