

The Standard

Ficha Bibliográfica

---

Título:	The Standard
Variante del Título:	The Standard and the River Plate News
Número de Edición:	0
Fecha de Publicación:	1864-05-09
Lengua:	Inglés
Creador:	Edward Mulhall y Michael Muhall
Tipo de Recurso:	Periódico

---

The carriage had by this time crept near to the scene of operations, and at the time had passed at which it was proposed to return, the drive home...

Visit to Barclay and Perkins' Brewery.

The court-yard of Stafford-house was crowded on Monday morning as early as nine o'clock, and the company were anxious to pay their respects to Garibaldi.

Saturday Reception at the Crystal Palace.

After visiting Barclay and Perkins' brewery General Garibaldi returned to Stafford-house, where several deputations were waiting to pay their respects to the hero.

Return of General Garibaldi to Italy.

It was earlier than on Tuesday that the General left London for the Continent, and he was accompanied by several of his friends.

Colonel Chamberlain's Farewell.

It was earlier than on Tuesday that the General left London for the Continent, and he was accompanied by several of his friends.

Second Visit to the Crystal Palace.

On the occasion of the General's visit to the Crystal Palace on Monday, such was the intense eagerness to see and hear him that the presence of anything but the most distinguished company would have been considered an affront.

Liberty; French residents in London; Poles resident in London; Swiss residents in London; and the Garibaldi Volunteers, &c., &c.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

The story was in every mouth, and it would be difficult to find a person who had not heard of the visit of the General to London.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

A vast concourse of people assembled at an early hour in the morning in front of the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate, anxious to witness the General's departure to be presented with the freedom of the City.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

several of the aldermen and with the Lady Mayors, to share in this honor, but there were loud cries of "No, no, no, don't deny the General!"

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Visit of the Princess of Wales to the Crystal Palace. Shortly after twelve o'clock on Monday morning a number of ladies, headed by the Princess of Wales, arrived at the Crystal Palace.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

Reception at Mr. Soely's, M.P.

On Tuesday afternoon, from two to four o'clock, there was a grand reception at the residence of Mr. Soely, M.P., Prince's-gate.

NEWS BUDGET.

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

The Whitworth Mountain Gun.—The King of the Belgians having expressed his wish to see a model of the Whitworth mountain gun...

Colton Cultivation in Algeria.—Advices from Algeria state that the cultivation of cotton is making great progress in that colony...

A Niece's Husband.—A disgusting act was performed at Castel, near Dover, a few days ago, by a young man who had married a girl of the name of...

Birth in a Railway Carriage.—Upon the arrival of the train from Brighton at the Kensington railway station on the afternoon of the 10th...

A Fatal Fire through Orinoline.—Information has just been forwarded to Dr. Lister, the surgeon of the death in the University College Hospital...

Curious Customs with Greek Sailors.—The following curious customs with Greek sailors were reported in Liverpool on Good Friday.

Death of Mr. T. P. Cooke.—The public will be glad to hear that this gentleman, one of the last representatives of the old school of British officers...

BURYING A CHILD ALIVE.

A very painful case was tried at the Oxford Assizes, before Mr. Baron Pigott, last week, in which Hector Jordan, 24, servant, was charged with having buried alive the body of a child who was six years old...

Singular and Fatal Accident.—An inquiry has just been held by Mr. Vaughan, deputy coroner for Westminster, at St. George's Hospital, respecting the death of William Rogers, a coal fireman...

A Clergyman in the Bankruptcy Court.—Mr. Commissioner Goulburn gave judgment in the case of the Rev. G. T. P. Cooke...

Statute in Sir Rowland Hill.—The proposal to erect a statue in honor of Sir Rowland Hill at Herringbone, in which town he was born...

Death of the Archbishop of Ely.—The deepest regret prevails in Cambridge and the vicinity in consequence of the sudden death of the venerable Archbishop of Ely...

The Shakespeare Centenary.—In connection with the National Shakespeare Committee, it has been arranged that the English residents in Paris...

Singular Journey of a Child.—A boy of six years, the son of Mr. James Loyal, a tin-plate worker of California, near Birmingham...

Singapore in a Prison.—Dr. Linklater lately held an inquest at Pentonville Prison on the body of William Edwards, aged eighteen...

THE PRESENT STATE OF GREECE.

The special correspondent of a contemporary gives the following concerning the state of Greece, and her feelings towards England...

THE SHAKESPEARE TERCENTENARY.

In London every theatre has acknowledged the genius of that great poet which, three hundred years ago, was born in this world, and whose fame in progress of ages is the more honored and adored.

Planting the Shakespeare Oak.

The Working Men's Shakespearean Committee, in London, have arranged to plant a Shakespeare Oak in the grounds of the Woodville and Forest, which is a beautiful spot, and which is now a public park.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Mr. Moore then said, in behalf of the Shakespearean Committee, he had to welcome the company to what had been termed the planting of the Shakespeare Oak.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

Earl Carlisle next gave "The Memory of Shakespeare," a very interesting and original paper, in which he dealt with the life and works of the great poet.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

From this time she seemed to be more self-reliant and capable, and she was able to perform her duties with more confidence.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

The Comedy of Errors and Romeo and Juliet were performed on Wednesday night to a full house, and the audience was much pleased with the performance.

INCIDENTS OF THE NEW ZEALAND WAR.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

We are indebted to the Manchester Examiner for the following account of a volunteer in the New Zealand War.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

too late; the naked footprints of all were seen on the sand-bank. Several of the volunteers had been killed, and the number of the survivors was reckoned to be about 100.

THE SWELL MOB IN THE RAILWAY GARRISON.

George Langford, a well-known man, was charged, at Dunstons, with stealing a clock of the value of £10 from a first-class carriage on the Great Northern Railway.

George Langford, a well-known man, was charged, at Dunstons, with stealing a clock of the value of £10 from a first-class carriage on the Great Northern Railway.

George Langford, a well-known man, was charged, at Dunstons, with stealing a clock of the value of £10 from a first-class carriage on the Great Northern Railway.

George Langford, a well-known man, was charged, at Dunstons, with stealing a clock of the value of £10 from a first-class carriage on the Great Northern Railway.

George Langford, a well-known man, was charged, at Dunstons, with stealing a clock of the value of £10 from a first-class carriage on the Great Northern Railway.

The March.

The march was generally interrupted with much fire, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

The march was generally interrupted with much fire, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

The march was generally interrupted with much fire, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

The march was generally interrupted with much fire, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

Attacked by the Natives.

We were attacked a few weeks' rest after our first day, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

We were attacked a few weeks' rest after our first day, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

We were attacked a few weeks' rest after our first day, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

We were attacked a few weeks' rest after our first day, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

BIOGRAPHY OF MR. REEL.

The Dublin correspondent of the Telegraph gives the following account of the engagements of the gentleman who created some sensation at Westminster.

The Dublin correspondent of the Telegraph gives the following account of the engagements of the gentleman who created some sensation at Westminster.

The Dublin correspondent of the Telegraph gives the following account of the engagements of the gentleman who created some sensation at Westminster.

A False Alarm.

Our guide at this moment was a tall, thin man, and he was much pleased with the performance.

Our guide at this moment was a tall, thin man, and he was much pleased with the performance.

Our guide at this moment was a tall, thin man, and he was much pleased with the performance.

Once more in Safety.

I found our retreat and a copious of the Waikato natives, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

I found our retreat and a copious of the Waikato natives, and the volunteers were much pleased with the performance.

The Port of Dublin.

The Port of Dublin. The tonnage that passed through the port of Dublin in the year 1863 amounted to 2,251,771 tons, and the revenue was £1,000,000.

Education a Duty.

Education a Duty. The Society of Friends in the United States have issued a report on the state of education in the country.

