OPENING OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

On Thursday last the vicinity of the new Congress Hall was crowded with persons anxious to assist at the opening of Congress, and about the hour of noon a detachment of 100 men from the 2nd battalion was drawn up in front of the building.

Long before the appointed hour every part of the Congress-hall was filled by an unusually respectable audience, admission being only allowed by ticket, and the military acting as sentinels on the various doors.

At one o'clock the President, Gen. Bartolomé Mitre, accompanied by his five Ministers, proceeded from the Government House to the Congress Hall.

The President looked as usual serene and haggard, not did a gleam of animation pass across his countenance as he began his remarkable and brilliant language, and the crowdless silence and concentrated attention of all.

According to Argentine custom, the President retained his seat while speaking, and there was no sign of applause as the rounded periods and flattering phrases passed from his lips in sharp, steady, and unvarying manner.

Our colleague returns thanks to Messrs. Drabble and Co. of Buenos Ayres, for the present of two cotton gins, which that firm presented to the Government.

The Brazilian Minister, Sr. Lopez Gama, has been, owing to ill health, obliged to leave Assunção. It appears that the question of limits has not yet been settled.

The questions pending between Paraguay and the Republics of the River Plate are still the same, nothing new having occurred in the political world.

The Message was then read by the Secretary of the Interior, and we will review it tomorrow. We understand that the able photographer, M. Bartoli, of the Republic of Uruguay, has taken a picture of the celebration, which he will forward to the Illustrated London News.

STOP PRESS. NO ELECTIONS.

The 'National' publishes the Governor's decree dated 13th inst. suspending the elections ordered for Sunday, adding that this is for conciliation.

The following are the terms agreed to by the rival Clubs:— 1. Six city deputies resign, to make room for Occido candidates.

Mr. Phibes merits 'Ovad Milhe Fialha,' no less from his countrymen, than from all patriotic Argentines. We believe he is the only Irishman in the Argentine service; and it is a pity General Mitre cannot find more of the same stamp.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY.

The Paraguayan mail steamer arrived at last, having run aground on her voyage down, in front of the Diamante. The Esmeralda, however, came to her assistance, and got her off.

The 'Semanario' contains an account of the inauguration of the printing office, by President Lopez, which was one of the grandest affairs that has occurred in Paraguay for years.

The building was tastefully decorated in the court patio was a colossal statue of Gutierrez, Sr. Talavera, and Sr. Benitez, made brilliant speeches on the occasion, and adverted, in strong terms, to the degenerate principles of some of our native colleagues.

The monthly review of our Paraguayan colleague is extremely interesting, in the greatest peace and order reigns throughout the Republic, and the campaign at Cerro Leon is now regarded as permanent, and the recruits kept arriving from all quarters.

The country has not suffered so much from the drought as was thought, in the mixing the classes; and people who buy tobacco this year, will have no necessity to open the bales for inspection.

Our colleague returns thanks to Messrs. Drabble and Co. of Buenos Ayres, for the present of two cotton gins, which that firm presented to the Government.

The Brazilian Minister, Sr. Lopez Gama, has been, owing to ill health, obliged to leave Assunção. It appears that the question of limits has not yet been settled.

Interesting from Japan.

By way of San Francisco we have news from Kanagawa, Japan. The 7th ult. The Ycoon's palace at Yedo was burned on Christmas Day.

The following are the terms agreed to by the rival Clubs:— 1. Six city deputies resign, to make room for Occido candidates.

Mr. Phibes merits 'Ovad Milhe Fialha,' no less from his countrymen, than from all patriotic Argentines. We believe he is the only Irishman in the Argentine service; and it is a pity General Mitre cannot find more of the same stamp.

A WELCOME GUEST.

We are happy to learn that our talented and respected countryman, Samuel Phibes, Esq., Argentine Consul at Liverpool, has arrived by this packet, on a visit to Buenos Ayres.

The 'Semanario' contains an account of the inauguration of the printing office, by President Lopez, which was one of the grandest affairs that has occurred in Paraguay for years.

The building was tastefully decorated in the court patio was a colossal statue of Gutierrez, Sr. Talavera, and Sr. Benitez, made brilliant speeches on the occasion, and adverted, in strong terms, to the degenerate principles of some of our native colleagues.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU & CO.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the Eo great emporiums of the River Plate-Montevideo & Buenos Ayres-that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
