ALLIANCE WITH PERU.

It was not without reason or forethought that the Cabinet of Lima sent its agents, last year, soliciting alliance with the sister-republic.

The President of Peru has been most warmly and ardently attached to the cause of the Republic of Peru.

show their determination to resist the dream of re-conquest. Dr. Segui may have been able to do so, but his project is chimerical.

It is well therefore that all classes of Argentines keep their eyes steadily fixed on the Chinchas Islands, protecting against their occupations, and holding themselves in readiness to repel the want of independence.

HAVE NAVIGATION
If the guns of Martin Garcia were run out, and Admiral Murature with his squadron lying right across the channel, the free navigation of the rivers could not be more effectually impeded than at present.

The state of the River Plate, from Buenos Ayres to the mouth of the Parana, is such that even with the most experienced pilot, foreign natchmen, which are chartered in this city to load up the rivers, are continually running aground, and many of them becoming complete wrecks.

But had it been the navigation of the Plata, that of the Uruguay is ten times more so. Formerly there were posts sunk and buoys placed in certain parts to denote danger; but every vestige of these is now gone, and so dangerous has the navigation of this river become, that even our regular passenger steamboats are constantly running aground, bigging in their bottoms on hidden rocks, and not infrequently imperiling the lives of all on board.

The Montevideo Government is fighting for its existence against a lawless band of revolutionaries, and consequently has neither time nor means to attempt to remedy this evil.

But the Argentine Government is at peace, Congress is now sitting in this city, and we think it a fair question to put to these gentlemen, who cast the country over these hundred thousand dollars a year, whether it is their intention to have the rivers buoyed or not.

The navigation of the Parana is even still more dangerous than that of the Uruguay. At Rosario, we will recollect, before reaching that port, we saw a few banks marked out. Will our readers guess with what? Why, a few empty demijohns, which some of the Italian boatmen put there themselves for their own safety.

Along the Entre Rio and Corrao canals, the navigation of the Parana is equally perilous; no buoys, no charts, in fact, nothing to go by. It fell out our duty to call the attention of Congress to this matter. Our vessels are lying rotting in front of Martin Garcia, when they should be plugging the river and planting buoys on the banks.

No man could be better qualified for this task than Admiral Murature, whose intimate acquaintance with the rivers, render him peculiarly fitted to accomplish this work.

made away with, some say by the current, but the captain insist they were stolen.

How long the rivers are to remain in the state they are, it is for our legislators to decide. Up to this hour, not one man in Congress has called attention to the subject.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Montevideo. All eyes in Montevideo are turned now upon President Mitre to see what he will do in the Chinchas Islands question.

All the political prisoners in Cordova, according to the 'Tribuna,' have been liberated, that is to say, they are now only confined within the limits of the city.

On last Monday a gang of forgers was brought in from Canelones to Montevideo. The prisoners are six in number, one of whom is a woman.

The Montevideo steamer 'General Artigas' landed a regiment of soldiers in Colonia the other day, which the Government sent down for the protection of that town.

A little gentleman, crabb, under the command of Don José Castro, is watching the coast and keeping an eye on some whale boats expected from Buenos Ayres with supplies for the man Flores.

These are numbers of Army Officers amusing themselves in Montevideo. The Minister of War has given them 48 hours to depart for their respective regiments.

In Paysandú things are very quiet. An Irishman recently arrived assures us that only five prisoners were found where a 'Nation' or 'Tribuna' can be found is a barber's, who lends it to his customers.

The 'Villa del Salto' has returned to Paysandú, having made an excursion through the Islands in front of Fray Bentos and Soriano. She captured one pilot boat loaded with supplies for the man Flores, a lot of ammunition, etc.

On the 20th of May there were great sports in Paysandú and over his young Oriental played the 'Bar-tija.'

A frightful murder has been perpetrated near Colonia by some of the regiments. Don Pedro Rivera was brought into Colonia with his throat horribly cut, it is said by order of the Colorado officers.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

At the rate we are going on Buenos Ayres will be ahead of New York in a few years. The latest novelty is a new express wagon company, which is about to be started by two enterprising Englishmen.

Yesterday as one of the diligences which ply between the market and the Barracas bridge was proceeding down the Calle Florida, having fourteen passengers inside and about a dozen outside, the roof of the coach began to give way.

We hear that Commissary Barbot of Montevideo, arrested two noted thieves on board the Mercury, who were about to retire from business for awhile and sojourn in Europe.

Ex-Governor Sarriento has caused a serious row in Chile, by presenting a claim for an enormous amount against the Chilean Government due to the Argentine, for the expenses incurred in the war of Independence.

The President and Minister of War highly approve of the Armstrong gun, and it reports prove true, St. Gelly is thinking of introducing them in our navy.

Yesterday we had a regular Scotch mist in town. Our native friends detest this sort of weather and regard it as even worse than the north wind.

On Wednesday last his Excellency, Governor Saavedra, visited the Villa Luxan per rail. He was accompanied by his Ministers, who expressed themselves delighted with the trip.

Several of our subscribers in the partido of Luxan have requested us to call the attention of government and barrangers to the necessity of opening a Wood Market in Luxan.

M. Rosetta's paper movie scheme has got a great promise in the 'Acion Argantina' of yesterday, by a correspondent who signs 'Campos.'

The Yankoo war vessels lying at Callao are resolved to aid Peru and attempt the recovery of the islands.

with the works of the Central Railway resumed, we have no doubt that Santa Fe will shortly rival Buenos Ayres.

The Municipalities seems determined to insure the popular fairs of Berry & Walker, having made a sort of water fall or corrals in front of their store.

We understand that Lieut. Allen, late of the British Army, has taken a commission under the Government.

It is a dressmaker in calle Chacabuco, Mr. Fontis has narrowly escaped assassination, as we read in 'Le Progreso.'

The 'Reform' extracts the following from the 'Patria' of Valparaiso. The President of Peru has decreed that all the infantry regiments of the Peru shall be increased to their full strength of 1000 men, and the cavalry to 600.

The enthusiastic order of Peru is surprising, and preparations for war are actively carried on. Moderation is indicated by the press and club meetings, in order to guard against any excesses on the persons and properties of Spanish residents.

Several of the leading Spanish merchant vessels are being armed, and converted into a steel-plated frigate, under the care of a Chilean engineer named Candamo.

The French Minister, in offering his mediation, and left for the Chinchas Islands to confer with Pinzon and Mazaredo.

All the foreign residents are indignant at the Spanish aggression, and leading English houses, including that of Gibbs, have offered the Government large sums of money.

intended to murder all the Spaniards, induced them to disperse. Don Juan Galvez, chief of the Italian party, has been called to the assistance of the cabinet.

When the news from Peru reached Valparaiso it caused a great sensation and a meeting was called to protest against Spain and insist upon the Chilean Government taking decided steps in the matter.

Cotton-Planting in Mendoza.

Senator Blanco brings good tidings of cotton at the foot of the Andes. Last year he purchased of us a few pounds of seed, which have yielded 160 pounds seed cotton.

St. Blanco has put his cotton on exhibition at the Bolsa, and is looking for a sign to forward to Mendoza.

The principal facts respecting the capture of the Chinchas Islands our readers are aware of, but there are several minor details which will no doubt be interesting.

When the seizure of the Islands was known at Callao, a general meeting of English, Irish, and Germans was convened, and resolutions passed to assure the Peruvian Government of their determination to support and defend their adopted country.

The Peruvian Government despatched the English steamer Resador to the English Admiral of the Pacific station, and has ordered that none of the Peruvian steamers touch at the Chinchas Islands.

The President arrived at Callao on 13th April, and was received by an immense crowd; he addressed the people, and told them they had nothing to fear, as Peru was well able to protect her territory from the rascally Spaniards.

The Spanish vessels have already taken all the coal out of the Peruvian pontoons, and have also taken possession of the Peruvian steamer Luján, and made prisoners of all hands on board; subsequently Admiral Pinzon liberated these prisoners.

Several of the leading Spanish merchant vessels of the place forced the expropriation of the populace, have gone on board the Spanish man-of-war Cavango.

It is believed in Peru and of the West Coast that the British Admiral will object the Spaniards from the Chinchas Islands, without waiting for orders from his Government in assistance from the other South American Republics.

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER.

In reply to a complimentary notice which we addressed the talented 'cantante,' Mme. Driol, we have been favoured with the following: Buenos Ayres, June 2nd 1864.

Dear Sirs, I have been profoundly affected by the flattering expressions which on the part of your foreign brethren and especially Irishmen, you did me the honor to address to me relative to my performance of Marta especially in the sublime melody the last rose of Summer.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAU & CO.
No. 103 Calle de Cangallo.

BUENOS-AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mau & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, instead of expending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mau & Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. For the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Mau & Co. is sufficiently known to the public by its operations which are regulated on the strictest and most prudent principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Mau & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
