United States Sanatory Commission
In view of the great good accomplished by the United States' Sanatory Commission, for the relief of the wounded and sick amongst the soldiers of the army and those of the Southern States who are prisoners in their hands, it has been thought a duty, on the part of the Americans resident in this city, to contribute to these objects. At the suggestion, therefore, of some friends, the undersigned have assumed the responsibility of calling a general meeting of their countrymen, in the hope that this call will be responded to; and the representative of the United States in this country, the Hon. Mr. Kirk has expressed his sympathy with the movement, and kindly offered his rooms as the place of meeting. The undersigned, therefore, request all who wish to favour the plan, to assemble at the rooms of Mr. Kirk, on Monday, the 20th inst., at three o'clock, p.m., for the purpose of consultation, and for the appointment of committees, to give a formal character to the suggestion.

A NEW ERA

When, after the affair of Pavon, General Mitre was unanimously elected President of the re-united Argentine nation, we predicted a new era of progress and civilization for the River Plate...

But even our most sanguine expectations will fall short of the glorious reality, and we have now the cheering assurance that English capitalists turn their attention to our desert Pampas as a fitting field for industry and safe investment...

Besides this great enterprise we know of a dozen smaller joint-stock companies already formed or in formation, at Glasgow, Liverpool, London, Dublin and other cities in the United Kingdom...

When we take into account the land grant of the Cordoba railway, nearly one million acres, which will be mostly settled on and cut up in farms before two years, we may safely calculate that the adjacent lands in Sta. Fe and Cordoba will be enhanced tenfold in value...

Proposes of land companies... The simple fact of the Imperial Finance Co. of London investing One million silver dollars in lands of the Argentine republic is a proof of the growing interest taken in these countries by Englishmen...

COMMERCIAL GRIEVANCES

When a failure occurs in Buenos Ayres, it is the talk of all town for a few days; the matter is looked into, a meeting of creditors is called, and generally speaking the bankrupt's books are so got up as to present a sorry prospect of 60, 70, and even 80 per cent. of a dividend amongst the creditors...

Nevertheless, the bankrupt's stores are again open, the former clerk and patron having changed places; that is to say, the clerk is now proprietor and the bankrupt is his clerk...

For various motives we have been requested not to publish names, but that our readers may not be on the wrong scent, we believe the bankrupt in question and Civaleri were fellow-countrymen...

Several similar cases, our informant states, could be quoted, to show the great want of a Bankrupt Court in this city, but we consider the foregoing sufficient...

M. Riestra's Scheme... So much opposition is offered by the board of brokers to M. Riestra's carefully drawn-up scheme for the redemption of the paper money, that unless some measures are taken to conciliate the brokers, there is not the remotest prospect of the project being passed...

The prevalent opinion through town is, that if the above amendment is introduced, M. Riestra's invaluable project will be passed without opposition.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Yesterday there was more news stirring than usual. The weather was fine, the streets free of mud, no new failures had occurred, and, in fact, Buenos Ayres was in a good humor.

About 12 o'clock a special "chásquo" arrived from Barracas, with the glorious news that Admiral Mud had been defeated by a number of Basques in a slight engagement which took place on Calle Buen Orden Hill...

It is current that Mr. Wells will be recompensed for the loss of his balloon and M. Pestalardo, the opera manager, we hear has offered to give him a benefit.

We perceive that Sr. Riestra has been appointed by the President, a Commissioner for the classification of the National Debt. Owing to the number of claims which were sent in, it was found that the Commissioners were too few to do the work...

Yesterday the well-known express wagon of Messrs. Barry and Walker, the popular English grocers, was seen going at a frightful speed down Calle Bollariva, with a cask of wine and a barrel of sugar on board...

We understand that a meeting has been held at the Provincial Government House, and that the prolonged line of the Northern Railway is ordered to run midway between Campana and Pilar, to Zarate...

The 'Eco' of S. Nicolas has verily properly commenced its career by demanding a new bridge over the Arroyo Medio. Nothing is more necessary for our increasing traffic with Santa Fe...

The price of maize and hay is so monstrously high, and the roads so bad, that people who formerly drove stylishly through town in tilburies, milords, &c., are now obliged to walk or go in the diligence...

If we had Coroner's inquests here, the Municipality must have been long ago transported for manslaughter. Every day we hear of fresh accidents owing to the perilous state of the roads around town...

We notice several new buildings about Calle Buen Orden, near the intended terminus of the Great Southern; this is a sign of the times. Peaceable people will rejoice that the friends of disorder who left this city for Flores' headquarters...

Respecting the English Dramatic Co. we find another Richmond in the field, a gentleman who has been some time in the camp, and possesses both vocal and mimic talents.

A Peruvian meeting is to take place to-morrow in the Plaza Victoria; public opinion has very much calmed down since the publication of Sr. Mazarredo's memorandum.

The Directors of the Central Argentine railway would do well to leave us a list at this office; yesterday when the collector came round we induced a gentleman just arrived to take 5 shares; we will change no commission. It seems three-fourths of the shareholders here are foreigners...

UNITED STATES SANATORY COMMITTEE

We call attention to an advertisement in another column, respecting this praiseworthy body. On Monday-next, at three o'clock, a meeting is to be held at the Hon. Mr. Kirk's residence...

No matter in what light people may regard the present lamentable struggle going on in the States; no matter which side possesses their sympathy, we think that in this hour of affliction, we should all subscribe to alleviate the sufferings of the poor soldiers.

In the days of their prosperity, no people on the face of the globe subscribed with greater liberality or munificence than the Americans; their money, their ships, their produce, were always at the command of suffering humanity...

During the Irish famine, how many thousands have been rescued from starvation by the timely supplies from America? We can well remember multitudes of despairing people to whom the American eagle, like the dove of the Scriptures, brought food and nourishment...

Again, when the operatives of Lancashire were thrown into destitution by the cotton famine, the George Griswold and other vessels were laden with provisions and clothing for the sufferers; and this generosity, on the part of America was the more remarkable, inasmuch as there was actually at the time a rupture of relations with England...

It would not be difficult to prove that our American brethren have much stronger claims on us than the Danes, for whom a similar contribution has been made in England. We rest, therefore, confident, that Mr. Kirk's invitation will not pass unheeded among those who listen to the calls of suffering humanity...

THE CHANNEL FLEET

From the Owl (Private).

Admiralty, May 2, 1864.

My dear Duress,—Here are your secret instructions. They are drawn up by me, and are, I think, very clever.

G. PAGER.

Admiralty, May 2, 1864.

Sir,—The fleet under your command being about to proceed to the Baltic, I am directed by my Lords to give you the following instructions for your guidance:—

- 1. You will carefully read and at the same time understand, all the enclosed papers on the Schleswig-Holstein question, and having so read them, you will communicate your impressions to Captain Hornby, your flag captain.
2. It is not considered necessary for the junior officers to attempt the solution of the question.
3. On reaching the Baltic the question will naturally occur to you—What am I to do? To this question it is not easy to give the requisite answer.
4. My Lords are clearly of opinion that something must be done for the advantage of the Danes.

My Lords are equally clearly of opinion that nothing ought to be done which might damage any of the ships under your command.

Two courses are therefore open to you, and it will be a source of satisfaction to you to know that such latitude is given to you.

You will bear in mind, that you are sent to the Baltic to uphold the dignity of England, and to carry out the policy of Her Majesty's Government. What that policy is, you are not at liberty to mention.

You will of course bear in mind that the Channel Fleet is a most expensive luxury. My Lords therefore trust that you will be careful to do nothing to endanger its efficiency by engaging in dangerous hostilities.

Her Majesty's Government having determined upon maintaining peace in the North of Europe, you will at once open fire upon both belligerents in the event of their trying either to enforce or to evade the blockade.

Supposing for the sake of argument that on reaching the Baltic you do something, results are likely to follow; but as those results are of necessity uncertain, my Lords must decline to give you any special instructions.

On the other hand, if you find it more advisable to do nothing, the consequences may be so serious that my Lords cannot with justice to themselves assume any responsibility in that event.

Your late illustrious predecessor in the command of a British fleet in the Baltic talked a great deal of fighting, but brought his ships home again in safety. It will be for you to consider how far it would be safe for you to follow his example.

For your guidance, my Lords recommended you to study the foreign policy of Her Majesty's Government as shown in two blue books forwarded herewith.

My Lords, however, advise you to be so careful, but recommend to you that happy mixture of recklessness and caution which I show to such advantage in my answers to questions in House of Commons.

My Lords likewise advise you not to be so careful, but recommend to you that happy mixture of recklessness and caution which I show to such advantage in my answers to questions in House of Commons.

My Lords feel sure that, with these clear instructions, you cannot go wrong. At the same time they reserve to themselves any credit there may be if you do right.

In conclusion I am desired by my Lords to recommend you most earnestly to keep your weather-eye open and look out for squalls.

Admiral Fitzroy has received instructions to keep you informed which way the wind blows.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant, CLARENCE PAGER. Rear-Admiral Sydney Colpoys Dacres, C. B.

THE NEW SPANISH LOAN

It appears that the parties to the arrangements stated by the Epecoa have been made for supplying the Bank of Spain with £1,000,000 in gold and silver are Messrs. Baring, Gibbs, and Mildred. It is not believed, however, that the negotiation can be of the nature described by that journal. At a juncture like the present it is unlikely that three firms, each of which has a partner in the direction of the Bank of England, would enter into a commitment to send such a sum of money out of the country, not for commercial purposes, but to relieve the inconvenience which the Government of Spain encounters as the consequence of the treatment experienced by its foreign creditors...

Shakespeare in the Gran Chaco

To the Editors of the 'Standard' Gentlemen.

"The items Origines." And here I am again. My tragedy is not yet finished, but I hope to have it in time for the first representation of the English Dramatic Company. Between you and me, I have no faith in compositions that are struck off in an electric telegraph style, because I believe that anything is worth doing well which is worth doing at all. You mention, in one of your late numbers, that Sr. Mansilla's tragedy of 'Atar-Gull' was composed in 48 hours; and in one of your papers of last year, it is observed that Major Rickard's 'Mining Journey across the Andes' was written on his way home, by the French packet, from Buenos Ayres to Bordeaux. I am more a disciple of the poet laureate, Tennyson, than either of these authors, for he keeps all his poetry, for twelve months after writing, before it is published.

Now, to give you a synoptical account of my tragedy for your approbation: Its title being 'The Santafecino Bedouin; or, the Gaucho Deceiver.' The dramatic persons are—Señor Don Juan Jones, La Señorita Betsy Jane, La Señora 'Biddy' (mother of Betsy Jane, and a washerwoman); three other washerwomen; Don Tomas, the Gaucho Deceiver; Don Carlos Grasso, an anciano at Pavon; Perchunque (a Chaman, peon); a pulpero; an owl, group of bisacchos; a black cat, and a white bull-dog. Scenes of love and horror, set off by beer, at a tango; incidents of a like combination of deceit, sublimity, and harmony at a rancho, with the awful finale at a saladero, are its grand attractions.

Now, ad rem? Will you buy my manuscript, Mr. —, and what will you give for it? Yours to command, THE SPIRIT OF WALKER.

PRODUCE MARKET

Liverpool, May 6, 1864.

Since our circular of the 7th ult. the arrivals from the River Plate comprise the John Risson, from Buenos Ayres, the Flycatcher and Son, from Montevideo, and the Sicilia and La Plata steamers from both ports, bringing 13,700 dry, and 2715 salted ox and cow and 5800 salted horse hides. The Maria Harris, from Buenos Ayres, and the Eagle and Janwood from Rio Grande, have likewise arrived with cargoes of wool, bones, bone ash, &c. From other quarters the principal consignments of hides are confined to 426 West Coast, 2165 Brazil, and 27,000 East India.

During the past month our market for salted River Plate Hides has continued very quiet, and no change of moment in the relative position of buyers and sellers, so far as regards the late imports of the new slaughter are concerned, can be reported; the former showing little disposition to entertain the advanced views of the latter. For the old stock little inquiry has existed, and the greater part has been cleared at full previous rates.

Two cargoes of Rio Grandes and one of Montevideos are reported as having been sold, afloat, for outputs, at 6d per lb for the former and 6 1/2d per lb for the latter. Sales, 8:50 salted River Plate. B. Ayres heavy ox, 60 1/2 to 64 1/2 per lb, and 4 1/2 tare; light ox, 48 1/2 to 50 lb at 5 1/2d to 5 3/4d per lb, and 4 1/2 tare; extra heavy ox, 80 to 84 lb at 5 1/2d to 6d per lb, and 7 1/2 tare. Uruguay light ox 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 lb, at 5 1/2d to 5 3/4d per lb, and 4 1/2 tare. Montevideo heavy ox, 62 lb, at 5 1/2d per lb, and 5 lb tare; light ox, 60 1/2 lb, at 5 1/2d per lb, and 4 1/2 tare.

REVOULTION IN SALTA

5,000 COMBATANTS IN ARMS.

The Brazilian steamer Ypanema arrived yesterday with news of a counter-revolution in Salta. It will be remembered that Governor Uriburu, two days before the expiration of his term of office, caused himself to be imprisoned by his nephew, another Uriburu, the latter being proclaimed Governor by a mock revolution. The people finding themselves so cheated, rose on the night of May 17th to expel the intruder, and put in his place Don Segundo Bedoya. The 'Eco' of Cordoba states that Uriburu with a garrison of 300 between soldiers (8th batt.) and youths, managed to hold possession of the principal square and the adjacent blocks, but Bedoya, at the head of the Deputies and 4000 men (including 400 infantry well equipped), besieged the town. There was some fighting in the streets, and several houses were attacked. Bedoya's party is charged with having shot a Colonel and two Captains of Uriburu's faction, but private letters contradict this, and say that Bedoya's only reason for not taking the town by assault, is to avoid bloodshed, since the usurper cannot hold out many days, all his men deserting. Old Uriburu was only one day in prison, the face being fulfilled. The official paper of Salta boasts that Uriburu had 3000 men, and moved his head-quarters from the city to a place called Sumalao. Also that Major Allaro, at the head of a strong force, went in quest of Bedoya's rebels. These statements are not borne out.

There is great agitation in Tucuman, where the pacificator General Rojo has just returned, from Santiago: it is thought he will try to bring about an arrangement. The National Guard of Metan (Salta), had marched on the capital, in support of Uriburu.

It is a common saying among people in Buenos Ayres, when talking about the fluctuation of the paper money and the rise and fall in specie...

They would then, at least, have the satisfaction of knowing that their business was legitimate, and they interfered neither with the price of bread or the value of the first necessities of life.

In the 'Gazette'—Owing to press of matter, we have to hold over an article on this subject till to-morrow.

SOUTHERN PRISONERS' RELIEF FUND. COMMITTEE. CHRISTOPHER ATKINSON (CHARLESTON, S. C.), CHAIRMAN.

Victor Pontz (Liverpool) James Aldger (S C) H O Brewer (Ala) Robert A Clark S. C.) Daniel Hubbard (N O) Ferdinand Kodelwald (N O) J T Welsman (S C) J F Blacklock (S C) OSCAR G Parsley (N C) J H Ashbridge (N O) Charles Stewart (S C)

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times.

The Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund is intended to mitigate some of these sufferings which cannot altogether be relieved. Within little more than a twelvemonth, nearly £3,000 have been collected and expended in relief.

The managers of the Fund are assisted in their efforts by self-devoted ladies in the principal Northern cities, who visit the sufferers and give them such aid as the means at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has granted permission that this Sanitary work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southerners residing in South America will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves to all, irrespective of country or political convictions, who sympathise with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Buildings, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq, 17 Saville Row, W.; in Paris, by H O Brewer, Esq, 6 Rue Circulaire; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq, 21 Rue Lord Byron.

SAVINGS BANK BANK MAUA & CO

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place their most confidence.

The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maua & Co. of this city following the example of their Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863. p. p. Maua & Co. WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS: 1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p. c.) per annum which is liquidated every six months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
