THE ORIENTAL TREATY

By the news which arrived on Sunday from Montevideo... it appears that people in Montevideo are hourly expecting the proclamation of peace...

Unless the real object for opposing peace is to bring about the most serious complications in the River Plate...

Besides, it is right to remark that the Argentine Minister, whose sympathy is avowedly with the Colorado party...

A great dispute is now going on touching the immutability of principles and such like, that the terms of peace as proposed by M. Elizalde...

present on the most frightful scale. People will hardly believe it, yet positively it costs less to send a 'bulto' to England than to Chascomus.

The sheepfarmers are at last, thank heaven, doing well.

Mr. Zinny reports 2 boarders and 97 day scholars in the Nat. College, but complains of the bad attendance of the children.

FIELD BOOK FOR 1863.

On the first of July we commenced our Field Book for 1863, in which we trust to make a great improvement on our last.

IMPORTANT MEASURE

On Friday a measure of great importance passed the House of Representatives and the public will wait with hopeful expectancy to hear that it has become law.

The proposed steamship subsidy, which we notice for facilitating intercommunication by mail and otherwise between two great communities, may be supposed to have a fair chance of becoming an accomplished fact.
