TO CORRESPONDENTS... THE STANDARD... WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1864

The meeting convened by Messrs. Jacobs, Zimmerman and Perry took place on Monday afternoon at the Hon. Mr. Kirk's rooms. We noticed the following gentlemen present:

disappointed, particularly the Tribunal... The Chairman felt that the suggestions of Mr. Blix were more subjects for the committee than for the meeting.

LATEST FROM SAN JUAN. My last mails from the interior we perceiving a long letter, with nothing in it, from this province, published in the 'Ferro-carri.'

English wealth continues, and our barometrical friend M. Jaggeli has foretold that this will be an unusually wet winter. We have not seen the sun for several days, which makes us think it is a splendid time for photographers.

Whereas we recognise in the United States Sanitary Commission an institution eminently Christian and humane, organized for the prevention and relief of suffering, to which object we have constant evidence that it is devoting its efforts most faithfully and energetically, therefore—

ROMANCE OF THE LOTTERY. Last week a speculative housemaid, in the service of Mr. Gowlan, was induced to invest 20 dols, conjointly with a black man, in the Municipal Lottery, sarcastically called 'Beneficencia.' Maryanne was for some days agitated by the hopes and fears incident to such enterprises; nor could the everyday labours of domestic life distract her attention from the lucky number. Mechanically she dusted the drawing-room furniture: even when making the beds, her thoughts ran on the great prize, and 'what she would do with it,' if the golden apple of Hesperides should drop into her lap.

General Pamero's plan for drawing a frontier line from Mendoza and the foot of the Andes to Sierra Ventura in this province, by the base of the Cordillera. As it is necessary to take down the maps and study this closely, we will postpone our opinion on the matter.

APPALLING DISASTER IN NEW YORK HARBOUR. 36 men scalded to death. A most terrible accident occurred in the lower bay on Friday afternoon, following the explosion of one of the great works of the United States Navy-Chicago, Lieutenant Commander T. S. Fillebrown. She was proceeding to the mooring buoys at the Horseshoe, for the purpose of erecting her compass-rooster, when she took the iron cal (Onondaga in tow this morning and gone to sea. Fortress Monroe being her destination. When opposite Fort Hamilton, a quarter past four P. M., her port boiler suddenly exploded, blowing up the decks and severely scalding all connected with the engineer's department—thirty three in all. One was blown overboard, but subsequently recovered, but badly injured; one has died, and the remainder are in a very critical state.

JUSTICES "LA RUSSE" The 'Tribuna,' 'Pueblo,' and 'Frencha' are full of complaints about the Criminal Judge of Merced. It is amusing to see how surprised our colleagues are at an 'outdated case of undue severity. The judge who is called a scandalous judge does anything to scandalize any judicial board. He merely stopped the mail-coach as a friend in Chiviloy had forgotten to write to him (ride 'Le Progreso'). Far from blaming the judge, we return our sincerest thanks that the annihilating Frenchman was not at once hanged, drawn, and quartered: good heavens! it is little need the avenging powers of a camp judge. It may at first seem unfair to imprecate the Frenchman for the remissness of a third party in Chiviloy, but we congratulate Dr. Zarabon on his moderation in not putting all the passengers in the stocks, as might have happened with another Criminal Judge.

Argentine Central Railway. We have been favored with the following letter, which will be read with interest: Cotagua, 12th June, 1864.

Southern Prisoners' Relief Fund.
 There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The nearest necessities of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no means of care, which is stark and sufficed with his clotted blood. Horrrible is war in all its features, astounded is that no greater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to soothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their countrymen in Europe, and upon christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging the comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in its extremest need. An unusual proportion, also, of those that fill the ranks of the Confederate armies belong to the higher walks of life, upon whom privation, such as are endured by prisoners in the hands of the North, fall with increased severity.
