THE ORIENTAL PEACE

The Flores' revolution is at last played out, without any of the alleged objects being accomplished...

Had the present peace been the result of a regular pitched battle...

Let it not be supposed, for one moment, that we are displeased with the present treaty...

Peace, as we said before, at any cost, is cheap; but dear, doubly dear, is this unsuccessful revolution cost...

The Flores' rebellion has at least been successful in proving one or two facts...

Far be it from us to suppose that it is within the region of possibilities that some indignant Spaniard...

Far be it from us to suppose that it is within the region of possibilities that some indignant Spaniard will, on the disbanding of Flores' army...

CHANGE OF MINISTRY

Mariano Acosta has resigned the portfolio of Government in the Provincial Cabinet...

One of our great Argentine capitalists who, we believe, up to the present has not subscribed to the Central Railway...

The steamer Pavon, we learn, will not be ready to resume her place on the line between Buenos Ayres and Rosario for at least two weeks...

Mr. Loeb has at last got an order from Government for the payment of the million of dollars which he deposited in the bank as a guarantee for the commencement of the works of the Bahura Railway...

The disturbances in Salta have given rise to a prolonged debate in Congress during the next week...

In the statement of the Central Argentine railway, published by the 'Tribuna' the other day, respecting the subscriptions for the shares of this company...

On the 1st of next month a new branch of the Mauá Bank of this city will be opened at Gualeguaychu...

been spared to render these houses everything that can be desired as a private residence...

We are happy to inform our readers that by letters received yesterday from Paraguay we learn that the statement made the other day...

We hear of the arrival of an English gentleman, par Paraguay, who comes out to make large purchases of land for a London company...

The supposed long lost Nancy Riley has at last arrived, and brought with her, two speculative Englishmen...

It would appear that President Lincoln had received some superior information respecting the intentions of Spain concerning the South American Republics...

The message from the President, transmitted to the Senate in response to a resolution of that body...

The returns made under the United States census, which I know in reference to some of the States, as nearly correct, stand thus:

Actual value of property in 1850 - $7,135,780,228 Actual value of property in 1860 - 16,159,616,088 Increase per cent. - 126.45

Mr. Loeb has at last got an order from Government for the payment of the million of dollars which he deposited in the bank as a guarantee for the commencement of the works of the Bahura Railway...

On St. John's night we hear, that in the country districts numerous bonfires lit up the camp...

The greatest anxiety is felt to know the news which the Saltago will bring. There is a strong belief that the political news from England will be of a warlike character...

Of this imports, 1,840,534 dollars in dry goods and 6,128,899 dollars in general merchandise...

It is hardly necessary to emphasize the importance of these facts, and of their bearing on the public credit...

The last mail from Asuncion brings intelligence that Dr. Stewart has been named Surgeon-general of the Paraguayan army...
