61 CORRIENTES 61 SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAYA & CO., No. 103 Calle de Cangallo, BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the most extensive of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Maya and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the savings classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the unwarlike gambling, in lotteries, and other dissipation.
The Bank of Maya and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Calle Cangallo, from Nine am till Three pm on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten am to Twelve m for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned. The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Maya and Co. is respectfully invited to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of the operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The work of Maya and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the savings classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.
Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1865.
