The African Benefit

To night, the Italian company will give the opera of 'Marta' at Colón Theatre...

Many and contending opinions are held about the present war in the United States...

We hope, therefore, that the census project is not lost sight of, as we feel convinced, if properly taken, it will do a deal of good...

The Calveite Question... We regret to be obliged emphatically to deny all participation in the opinions of the 'Nacion Argentina'...

Each of those who assists at the Benefit to-night, so generously given by the Italian lessee (Sr. Postolario), will have the just conviction that he has bound up the bleeding limb...

Many a grateful tear will course down the bronzed cheek of the veteran lying on his bed of pain, when he hears that far-off friends in Buenos Ayres have contributed for his relief...

When the new Provincial Minister entered office, the first thing we heard of was, that the Government of Buenos Ayres had determined to take a census...

But the labours of the census takers should not be limited to these items only, they should also take the number of unemployed gauchos living in each paritido...

Another interesting item would be the number of those 'bochales' or group shops, the average capital of the proprietors, and also the number of 'merchandise' perinatating through the paritidos.

In any paper the more strange that we take this view of M. Pizarro's case, since the Senator had in his paper 'El Nacional' that one of the Editors of the 'Standard' when formerly a teacher of languages was guilty of stealing candles from his pupils...

DEBATE IN THE BRAZILIAN CHAMBERS

On the 23rd ult. the Brazilian Senate was occupied with Sr. Da Motta's interpellation of the Cabinet, calling for explanations as to the course intended by Government in the Montevideo question.

The President of the Council objected to such explanation as highly inconvenient in the present state of affairs. The future of negotiations between Flores and President Aguirre did not import a defeat to our cause, since his business was quite distinct, namely to demand reparation for injuries done to Brazilian subjects.

The great row in the Boca seems to have completely subsided, but as yet we have not heard the number of killed, wounded, and missing.

Minister Saravia has at last gone down to Montevideo with an ultimatum in his pocket for President Aguirre, allowing him only 48 hours to give an answer, pro or con.

since President Aguirre admitted such rights. It would be well therefore for Brazil to make an armed intervention.

Sr. Zacarias insisted on reprisals for the murders and robberies committed on Brazilian subjects, for which the Oriental republic must make satisfaction. Brazil should employ her forces by land and sea to do herself justice, and protect her citizens resident in that republic.

The foreign estancieros are doing well at the natives are early bogged by the revolution. The camps could not be in better condition, but it is almost impossible at present to sell land or sheep.

purchase is a jobber who buys with the view of effecting a 'negocio'—then, indeed, he buys without any fear, because he has most likely to view some hard working, honest farmer to whom he transfers his right in the land as well as the right to defend some half dozen law suits with which it is, in nine cases out of a hundred, already entangled.

The Minister, who has already done so much, should not rest on his oars. It would be advisable to keep in the Public Lands Office three separate lists of all the public lands ceded or rented inside and outside the frontiers; one list to contain all the lands in litigation, the second all those to which there is an undisputed title, with the name of the person holding such title, and the third full and exact statement of the lots at the disposal of Government.
