SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 1893.

Review for Fortnight.

The semi-monthly retrospect affects us little to comment upon, this being the dull season of the year. Owing to the recent heavy rains, the overland communication is very irregular. Vast troops of bullock carts, which left months ago, laden with produce from some of the distant provinces, are still on the roads, being unable to proceed from the impassable state of the public highways.

LATEST ABOUT FLORES.

June 11th 4 P. M. 'Our Private Correspondent.' I have just seen Dr. P. ... who has come from the Puerto, and I am told that Trillo has caught a spy of Flores, who is an Englishman, and is of very important intelligence to the President. Batana has walked the fellow off to the Lollin.

To-day Medina's vanguard is expected in Florida, as Don Gerardo Gomez was in the immediate vicinity of San José. Lucas Moreno has started to-day with his division for a place on which is a state of excitement, and all the available men joining the Government forces.

Another Letter. I have little to tell you about since my last Flores dispatch coming on Sunday. I am sure you know that he would receive the same reception as in Pysandu and Mercedes; and that if he made the least delay he would have been overtaken by Gomez, who was in the pursuit of him.

In the city of Buenos Ayres, Congress is at present sitting several very important measures have been introduced by the Minister of Finance. One in particular, for the organization of Free Banks, throughout the Republic, which if passed will have a very important change in the country. We have 'let it our duty to oppose the measure, in consequence of the notorious value which the Minister thought proper to put upon the National bonds, which are at present at a great discount owing to the ceaseless persecution of the Minister in paying or recognizing the Treasury and other bills due to foreigners, and by the late National Government.

THE FLORES' CAMPAIGN. The invasion has taken a new phase. Flores' name is at length evident to all and nearly played out. After receiving his Brazilian auxiliaries at Santa Rosa, he besieged Salto, but not being sufficiently strong to storm the town, he retreated to the mountains.

The native population has been either indifferent or opposed to the revolution, and it is doubted that the two divisions of Flores are Brazilian or Corrientes. The former are said to have deserted "en masse," after passing the Rio Negro and Flores with reduced numbers (300 men) to a division from Florida to the department of Minas; here there is an intricate mountain-chain, called Cuchilla Grande, which baffles all pursuit.

NEWS FROM EUROPE. The Peace arrived in Rio Janeiro bringing data from Europe to May 20th and 350,000 sovereigns for that city, none for the River Plate.

The state of Europe is unchanged, diplomatic relations between the two nations suspended. England is still agitated about the difficulty with the United States. The House of Commons has adopted several resolutions in favour of the Cabinet, and a very high tone prevails, in consequence of President Lincoln. The American Minister complained to Earl Russell that several British actions were so serious as to constitute a disgrace to the British name.

Coronel are in his track. Don't believe that he can carry on his guerrilla tactics here. You're a fool.

President Berro has sent out orders to all the authorities to take the murder of poor Mr. Smith, as also that of an unfortunate Spaniard, whom what the President wishes the public that he will have the assassins hung in a few days. They can't escape, as account are about everywhere, unless the joint Flores, which if they do, we have every hope this misguided man will at once deliver them up to justice.

THE GRAND CENTRAL ARGENTINE RAILWAY.

Dear Sir, The subscribers to the Argentine Railway, on the American side, are up to the present as follows: S. B. Hale & Co. Henry & Kopes John Lowry Wilson Jacob E. H. Folmar & Co.

Yours respectfully, E. H. Folmar. Thomas Armstrong, Esq. June 13th 93.

London, 8th May.

Dear Sir, I am much obliged by your kind letter, to which I have taken time to reply by this mail, but will do so by no means. Meanwhile I have received the Hand-book. So far as the information is very copious and must do good. Mr. Wheelright seems to have had it all his own way, and I hope he will succeed in raising the required capital. Buenos Ayres is on a new tack, as one must be lucky to have all these railways opening out, and I hope the Great Southern will be soon going ahead. I send you the Money Market Review, with a short article on a new tack, as one must be lucky to have all these railways opening out, and I hope the Great Southern will be soon going ahead.

THE O'CONNELL STATUE.

Quis homines tot sententias. Sir—In your impression this morning, I perceive your energetic expression, "I am in favour of erecting a statue to O'Connell." In entering my protest against the above project, I am not taking the field with either a premature view of the matter, or else a lack of interest in the subject, but simply as your worthy friend has warmly supported. He clearly goes on for great things, when with one fell swoop he has endeavored to quench a flame which has drawn forth acclamations of very opposite opinions, and men who do not often fall into the mistake of being so vehemently in favour of a cause.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

EXPORTS.

Business has been almost entirely suspended for the last fifteen days, on account of the new Custom-house law put into execution on the 1st inst. which imposes a much heavier duty on our products, up to the 1st of July next. Shippers have been busy despatching, as quickly as possible, all their stock on hand, so that our exportation has been very brisk for some days past. To-day there is a full in transactions, but prices are unchanged. Although the weather, before last week, was very fine, arrivals from the camp have been very limited.

Dry Hides—No important sale has taken place for Europe. The unfavorable news from the Old World has put a stop to all speculation. A few purchases, only, have been effected for U. S. States, comparatively unimportant. Salted Hides—Very little doing, and as stated last circular, there is no hope of a new supply as our salted hides have stopped working. Wool—in spite of the bad account from our foreign countries, there has been a pretty constant demand, this owing to the rise in specie, which forces those who hold paper money to sell, by wool purchases, a more advantageous exchange than the rates in England and France at present offer.

The following is a restatement of prices for the fortnight. Dry Hides, camp and matadero, for Germany—Nominal, no sales. Do for U. S. States and Genoa—35 to 37 rls. 35/16. Do for Spain—40/16. Do for France—30/16. Do heavy—36/16. Do mixed—110 to 125 mpc. Do call—12 to 16 1/2—32 rls. 30/16. Do under 12 lbs—20/16. Do Paraguay—42 to 46 rls. according to condition. Do Corrientes—39/16. Do Salto Hides, Saladero, Ox. 36 3/4 rls. 60 lbs; few transactions. No stock. Cow, 28 rls; Matadero, no transactions, no stock.

Wool, Cordeba, washed, 12 1/2 each; business limited; dry (12 to 14) lbs, 43 1/2 each. Tallow, in pipes, 13 3/4 rls per arroba; pure in boxes, 16 rls. Do refined, in pipes, 33 1/2 without cask. Jerked Beef, 13 1/2 rls per arroba; no improvement. Horse Hair, Corrientes, 29 rls; E. Rio 31 rls; Cordeba, 33 rls per arroba; Buenos Ayres, mixed, good South, 108 to 110 mpc; North, 109 to 105 dol. mpc per arroba. Cordeba shorn, 100 to 105 dol. mpc per arroba. Finest kinds growing very scarce, and camp arrivals few, the season being nearly over.
